Dear Friend of Chicago's Airport Chapels,

Recently, chapel volunteer Bob Smith and I had lunch at a local restaurant. Our server noticed Bob's shirt and asked, "What is that emblem on your shirt?" Bob was wearing a polo shirt with the airport chapels' logo on it. We had purchased these shirts for Chapel staff and volunteers for our annual golf outing a few years ago.

Bob told our server about the Chapel, the location and the services it offered. Her eyes grew wider. She said, "I never knew an airport would have a chapel. I will be traveling in two weeks, and I will definitely come to pray and attend Mass." I realized that our shirts could be a great conversation starter and a simple way to advertise the sixty-four-year existence of the airport chapels at Midway and O'Hare International Airports and their mission.

When you share your experience of the O'Hare or Midway Airport Chapels, you extend the mission of the chapels. A simple statement, such as "I like to visit the Chapel before or after my trip," can help others find a few moments of peaceful reflection in our holy place.

In addition to sharing news about the chapel, your generous support enables the O'Hare and Midway Interfaith Airport Chapels to provide for the religious services conducted there, for clergy who are available for emergencies and pastoral care, and for a quiet place for meditation and reflection.

Thank you for your continued support. Know that you and your family are always remembered in our prayers. Please also pray for me and all my colleagues at the chapels—Catholic, Jewish, Muslim, and Protestant—as well as all the people we serve.

May God always bless you and your loved ones,

Fr. Michael G. Zaniolo
