✦ OBERAMMERGAU ✦ PASSION PLAY 2020

GERMANY AND AUSTRIA

In 1633, the villagers, of the small Bavarian town of Oberammergau, suffered devastating losses to the Bubonic Plague. Those survivors appealed for Divine Intervention for their families, vowing to God they would perform the Passion Play every ten years if they were spared. Still today, the residents host thousands of travelers as they depict the life and death of Jesus, once a decade.

OBERAMMERGAU PASSION PLAY

The small community of Oberammergau with its 5,300 inhabitants is situated in the Ammer Valley close to Garmisch-Partenkirchen, and is known worldwide for the impressive Passion Plays performed every ten years.

Once again in 2020 this unique tradition will attract visitors from all over the world. Only the inhabitants of Oberammergau are allowed to act on stage and to an audience of 4,800. The artistic background to the set and costumes are provided by the long and still lively tradition of woodcarving and painting, inherited from generation to generation in traditional family businesses since the Middle Ages. Alpine meadows and towering mountains provide a fascinating backdrop as this deeply moving, centuries-old spectacle is played out by the villagers on an open-air stage.
