WEEK OF JANUARY 3, 2010

Welcome to the Interfaith Airport Chapels of Chicago!

The O'Hare Airport Chapel and the Midway Airport Chapel are each a peaceful oasis in a busy venue. A place to bow your head in prayer while lifting up your heart and spirit! Prayer books and rugs, rosaries, and worship materials are available, as are chaplains for spiritual counsel. You are welcome to attend Mass or Worship services and to come to the chapels (open 24/7) to pray or meditate. May God bless your travels.

⊕ National Migration Week 2010

Renewing Hope, Seeking Justice is the theme of the 2010 National Migration Week, held January 3 - 9. The observance began over 25 years ago by the bishops to be a moment for Catholics to take stock of the wide diversity of the Church and the ministries serving them.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I hope that you will join with the Church and celebrate National Migration Week, which will be held on January 3 - 9, 2010. This year we are again using the theme "Renewing Hope, Seeking Justice," as it expresses an important motivation for the Church as she works with immigrants, refugees, trafficked persons and other people on the move. Christians everywhere are called to reach out a helping hand to those who are suffering, alone and on the verge of despair. Likewise, we are obligated to work tirelessly against oppression and injustice everywhere, with the hope of helping to create conditions that will allow everyone to thrive.

Following the lead of the Holy Father, who has chosen the theme "Minor Migrants and Refugees" for the 2010 World Day of Migrants and Refugees, we will be giving special attention to the place of children in the migration experience. Children are an exceptionally vulnerable population that are easily taken advantage of, exploited and abused. This is particularly true when they are undocumented and unaccompanied in a foreign country and, all too often, with nobody to turn to for help....

In coordination with The Catholic University of America, a new educational website will focus on the important role that the Catholic Church has played in the immigration debate throughout Twentieth Century America. We hope that this will be a great resource for teachers, directors of religious education and others interested in this issue....

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
 Most Reverend John C. Wester
 Bishop of Salt Lake City
 Chairman, USCCB Committee on Migration

The Epiphany of the Lord—January 3, 2010

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. — Isaiah 60:1

RISE UP IN SPLENDOR

This great feast of the Epiphany of the Lord opens with these words: "Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you" (Isaiah 60:1). That reading goes on to describe a world covered with darkness. Even in that world, the prophet announces that the glory of the Lord will shine on Jerusalem. Many would agree that our world is covered with darkness—the darkness that war, terrorism, and famine bring. Today we announce that even in today's world, the Lord can scatter that darkness, if only we would welcome Epiphany's light. As we remember the visit of the magi to the manger, let us pray that one day our weary world will rise up in splendor—the splendor of peace and justice. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

Sunday and Weekday Mass Readings

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! The Lord shines upon you and the glory of the Lord appears over you (Isaiah 60:1-6).

Psalm — Lord, every nation on earth will adore you (Psalm 72).

Second Reading — The mystery has been made known that the Gentiles are coheirs, copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel (Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6).

Gospel — Magi from the east arrived, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews?" (Matthew 2:1-12).

SAINT ELIZABETH ANN SETON (1774-1821) January 4

Though her liturgical designation is "religious," Elizabeth Seton, her feast-day prayer reminds us, was also "wife, mother, educator, foundress." Born into a wealthy Episcopalian family, Elizabeth married William Seton, whose untimely death in Italy where the young family sought healing for William's tuberculosis, left her, at twenty-nine, a widow with five children. Inspired by the faith and charity of the Italian family with whom they stayed, Elizabeth embraced Catholicism despite her family's disowning her and ceasing financial support. This woman of many firsts (and several vocations!) opened the first free Catholic school, beginning the American Catholic educational system, and founded the first American religious community for women, the Sisters of Charity. The tuberculosis that claimed her husband took also her oldest and youngest daughters and, finally, at just forty-seven, Elizabeth herself. Another first: in 1975 she was canonized the first native-born American saint. Once asked to summarize her spirituality, she replied: "Faith lifts the staggering soul on one side, hope supports it on the other, experience says it must be, and love says let it be!"

A good disposition is a virtue in itself, and it is lasting; the burden of the years cannot depress it, and love that is founded on it endures to the end. —Ovid

This Week in the Life of the Church

Being a compendium of feast days and notable events in Church history.

January 3, 2010

✚ THE SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY, a word meaning manifestation (from the Greek epiphaneia), is a kind of bookend for Christmastime: the rule around many homes is that the tree, the lights, the creche and decorations stay up until this day, on which Christians recall the visit of the three Magi (sometimes called the "wise men" or "kings") to Jesus after his birth. "Magi" refers to Persian priest-astrologers; later embellishments added the meaning of men of wisdom - doctors or philosophers. In the Second Century, the scholar Tertullian linked the Magi with two Old Testament prophecies that kings bearing gifts who would come to Israel, and by the end of the Sixth Century, "kings" and "Magi" were used interchangeably.

"God, through Christ, was manifested to the whole world, symbolized by the Three Magi from the East (Mt 2:1-12)," says the Catholic Encyclopedia. "The feast originated in the third century in the Eastern Church; by the fourth century, when it was introduced to the Western Church, it ranked in importance with Easter and Pentecost. The Eastern Church links the Epiphany with the Baptism of Christ; in the Western Church, the focus shifted to His birth." Catholics observe Our Lord's Baptism next Sunday, Jan. 10.

✚ We Remember: ST. GENEVIEVE (c.422-500).

Today's saint was born near Paris and spent her childhood tending sheep like the other shepherd children of her region, but at the age of seven, she met the saintly Bishop Germaine (of Auxerre), who blessed and encouraged her. At 15, Genevieve received the veil from the bishop of Paris. She was blessed with the power of visions and the gift of prophecy. When Paris was occupied by the Franks and afterwards threatened by the Huns, St. Genevieve encouraged the people to remain firm and steadfast, to watch the enemy, to fast and do penance, and to trust in God for their welfare. She has always been considered the special protectress and patroness of Paris. (D,B) ✚ In 1694, of the birth of ST. PAUL OF THE CROSS in Ovada, Italy. Paul F. Danei, founder of the Congregation of the Passion. The aim of the Order is twofold: to emphasize the Passion of Christ and to convert sinners back to Our Lord. The O'Hare Chapel is grateful for the regular assistance of Passionist priests from nearby Immaculate Conception Monastery at celebrations of the Eucharist. Please remember the Passionist community in your prayers! (W)

✚ We Remember: ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON (1774-1821). Today we celebrate the feast of the first American-born saint. She lived in Baltimore and was a wife, mother of five children, widow, teacher, and founder of the first American sisterhood - the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph. Born in New York and raised a devout Episcopalian, Elizabeth received an excellent education, and from her early years manifested an unusual concern for the poor. A socialite who attended George Washington's inauguration, she was widowed at age 31. In 1805, she was received into the Church, and in 1806 confirmed by Bishop John Carroll of Baltimore. Besides founding the Sisters of Charity, Elizabeth is considered by some as the initiator of the American parochial school system. She was beatified in 1963 and canonized just 20 years ago, in 1975. (D,B) "In heaven we will know each other by the glance of the soul." - St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

✚ We Remember: ST. JOHN NEUMANN (1811-1860). In 1836, about 15 years after the death of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, John Neumann came to the U.S. from Bohemia (now the Czech Republic) and was ordained a priest for the Diocese of New York. He labored in the district of Niagara until 1840, when he became a Redemptorist...the first to make religious profession in the United States. He labored in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio and the American frontier. In 1852, at age 41, he was ordained bishop of Philadelphia, where he worked zealously for the establishment of parochial schools and of parishes for immigrants from Europe. He also inaugurated 40 Hours Devotion in the United States. Possessing a special skill in languages, by the end of his life he had mastered 12. Bishop Neumann had a special love for children, the Sisters and the immigrants. He is the first bishop from the United States to be canonized a saint (by Pope Paul VI in 1977). (D,S,B)

✠ We Remember: BLESSED ANDRE BESSETTE (1845-1937). Today's saint was the founder of St. Joseph's Oratory in Montreal, Canada, perhaps the world's principle shrine to St. Joseph. "Frere Andre" was eighth child in a family of 12, and was orphaned at the age of 12; he tried his hand at several trades but was not successful with any of them. He could barely read and write and was sickly most of his life. At age 15, he became a Brother of the Holy Cross, but was rejected at the end of the novitiate. The bishop of Montreal, however, insisted that Br. Andre be allowed to make his religious profession. For 40 years, he worked as a porter at the College of Notre Dame, until he was needed full time at the shrine of St. Joseph. People from all over Canada came to him for cures and spiritual direction, and he has been credited with thousands of cures. The Oratory was solemnly dedicated in 1955 and raised to the rank of a minor basilica.

If one were to seek the outstanding virtue of Br. Andre, it was his humility. He once said: "I am ignorant. If there were anyone more ignorant, the good God would choose him in my place." And when the power of healing was attributed to him, he responded: "It is St. Joseph who cures. I am only his little dog." (S) ✠ In 1412, the birth of St. Joan of Arc in Domremy, France; patron of France. • In 1494, the first formal Mass in the New World. The Mass was celebrated by Fr. Bernardo Boyl who accompanied Christopher Columbus on his second voyage. (W) • In 1895, publication of the encyclical Longinqua (on Catholicism in the United States) written to the bishops of the U.S. by Pope Leo XIII. (W)

✠ We Remember: ST. RAYMOND OF PENYAFORT (c. 1175-1275). A renowned expert in canon and civil law, St. Raymond also worked hard for the formation of priests and the evangelization of Jews and Muslims. He encouraged missionaries to learn Arabic and to study the Koran in order to enter into dialogue with Islam. A kinsman of the kings of Aragon, he joined the Dominicans in 1222; he was called to Rome by Pope Gregory IX and in 1234 completed his five books of the Decretals, systematizing and codifying the canon law; this remained the most authoritative codification of ecclesiastical legislation till 1917!

✠ In 1131, the death of St. Canute Lavard in Denmark; a Danish prince, he spent his life preaching Christianity to the German tribes and was assassinated by his cousin. (W)

• Today is also the birth of St. Bernadette Soubirous in Lourdes, France, in 1844. Born into a poor family, she was the humble and obedient little girl chosen by the Blessed Virgin to hear her announcement, "I am the Immaculate Conception."

• In 1894, of the birth of St. Maximilian Kolbe in Zdunska Wola, Poland. A Franciscan, he died in the Auschwitz Concentration Camp. (W)

Friday, January 8, 2010

✠ We Remember: ST. APOLLINARIS (c. 180), a bishop from Hierapolis in Phrygia (central Turkey), wrote and preached in defense of the Church's doctrines. He earned the title "the Apologist" for his defense of the Christian religion addressed to Emperor Marcus Aurelius towards the middle of the second century. He died a martyr. (D,B) • In 1438, the opening day of the Council of Florence, the 17th in Church history. Pope Eugene IV presided over this council which reaffirmed papal primacy and made a last attempt at reuniting East and West. (W) • In 1198, POPE CELESTINE III died; In 1337, Giotto di Bondoni, the great artist, died. • In 1438, the opening day of the COUNCIL OF FLORENCE, the 17th in Church history. Pope Eugene IV presided over this council which reaffirmed papal primacy and made a last attempt at reuniting East and West. (W) • In 1536, CATHERINE OF ARAGON died; in 1642, Galileo Galilei died. • In 1825, the birth of WILLIAM M. BRADY in Dublin, Ireland. An ex-Anglican priest, convert to Catholicism, and historian, his works were instrumental in dissolving the state Anglican Church of Ireland. (W)

✠ We Remember: ST. PETER OF SEBASTE (c. 391), a native of Cappadocia, and younger brother of St. Basil and St. Gregory of Nyssa; Peter succeeded Basil as abbot and in 380 was appointed bishop of Sebaste in Armenia. He took part in the general council of Constantinople (381). (D,B)

• On JAN. 9, 1522, POPE ADRIAN VI, the last non-Italian pope prior to Pope John Paul II (and the only Dutchman), was elected to the papacy. It was a huge surprise. Adrian was the Cardinal of Utrecht and hadn't even attended the consistory; he was in Spain. Though Pope Adrian was reform-minded and sought changes (reducing the splendor of the papal court and cutting back on cardinals' privileges and incomes), he was an outsider, not even able to speak Italian. And, as the first pope to face the full impact of Martin Luther's challenge, he misjudged the reformer, thinking him an obstinate and heretical monk who could be addressed with the usual applications of force and penalty. © • In 1794: Birth of MOTHER FRANCES BALL, IBVM, in Dublin. She joined the Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary, whose members are commonly called the Sisters of Loretto, in York, England. Later, as a young superior, she introduced her Institute into Ireland and then throughout the British Empire, founding 37 convents and schools all over the world. Thousands of girls and young women through the years have benefitted from this great teaching Order and from the efforts of this dynamic woman. (W) • In 1902, the birth of Jose Escrivá de Balaguer in Barbastro, Spain. He was founder of the Opus Dei movement and traveled tirelessly in Europe and South America on its behalf. He also authored many books on the movement.
