The Baptism of the Lord — January 12, 2020 A voice came from the heavens, saying, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." — $Matthew\ 3:17$

THIS IS MY BELOVED SON

This Sunday's celebration of the Baptism of the Lord closes the Christmas season. In the scriptures we see one more epiphany, or manifestation, of the Spirit of God in Jesus-but this time it is as an adult, rather than as a child. Jesus' baptism also serves as the inauguration of his prophetic mission and the messianic age.

Today's reading from Isaiah describes God's chosen Messiah, upon whom God's spirit rests. In the Acts of the Apostles Peter says that "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power" (Acts 10:38). Finally, in the proclamation from Matthew's Gospel Jesus' baptism in water goes almost unnoticed. The crucial moment comes when the Spirit of God comes upon Jesus and a voice from heaven echoes the words of Isaiah: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Matthew 3:17). Jubilee Holy Year of The Centenary of the Proclamation of Our Lady of Loreto as Patron Saint of Aviation

Dec. 8, 2019 – Dec. 10, 2020 Why is the Church celebrating this Jubilee? The Holy House, which according to an ancient pious tradition was carried by angels in flight, inspired the aviators of the First World War to rely on the Blessed Virgin of Loreto. At that time, in fact, airplanes were popularly called "flying houses". Thus Pope Benedict $\bar{X}V$, on 24 March 1920, declared the Blessed Virgin Mary of Loreto "principal patroness to God for all aircraft". The centenary of the proclamation is therefore the occasion of this Jubilee. For more information, pick up the blue

† We Remember: ST. MARGUERITE BOURGEOYS (1620-1700) left the cultural center of France in 1653 for the rugged wilderness of Canada (then a French possession). Marguerite tutored the children of the French garrison of Montreal, consoling young families in their trials, teaching women to cook, sew, and care for their families in the wilderness. She converted the governor's stable into a schoolhouse where she taught both French and Indian children to read, write, count, and about God and His special love for them. In 1688, she founded the Sisters of Notre Dame de Montreal. This woman who spent her life serving the needy and caring for poor families of her community was canonized by Pope John Paul II on Oct. 31, 1982. (S)

* We Remember: ST. HILARY, BISHOP AND DOCTOR (315-367) was born at Poitiers in France. Married and the father of a saintly daughter named Abia, Hilary was converted to the Christian faith by reading the Scriptures, especially the Prologue to the St. John's Gospel. While still a layman, Hilary was elected bishop of Poitiers. Fighting strenuously against the Arian heresy, he became the first theologian of the Latin Church to combat this heresy and to introduce into the language of the West the preciseness of Catholic doctrine and Greek thought. Hilary suffered exile at the hands of the pro-Arian emperor. After his return, he had the courage to protest vigorously against the emperor's unwarranted intervention in religious matters. In fact, it was under Hilary that the clergy recognized more and more that even in a Christian state, the Church must be separate and independent. Hilary wrote extensively, composed several liturgical hymns, and helped St. Martin of Tours promote the monastic life. (B)

† We Remember: ST. FELIX OF NOLA: "In poverty we should be the more secure of possessing Christ," says Felix, who gave away his fortune to the poor. Son of a Romano-Syrian soldier who had settled at Nola (near Naples), Felix was ordained a priest and devoted himself to his bishop, St. Maximus. When Emperor Decius began persecuting Christians around 250, Maximus went into hiding in a cave, but Felix was arrested, tortured and imprisoned. Released by an angel who flooded his cell with brilliant light, Felix located his beloved bishop and carried the sick old man back home to be nursed. A later bishop of Nola, St. Paulinus, wrote us a poem with a glowing account of the popular veneration of St. Felix. Paulinus assures us that, in Heaven, Felix has a special sympathy for innocent victims of false testimony, and so is the patron invoked against perjury. (D,B,S2)

★ ST. SAVA (1174-1237), patron saint of Serbia. Sava went to the famous Greek monastery of Mt. Athos but returned to Serbia to settle a civil war. He remained to unify the nation by translating sacred texts into its language. ◆ In 1892, the birth of MARTIN (FRIEDRICH GUSTAV EMIL) NIEMÖLLER, Confessing Pastor, and author of this famous quote: "When the Nazis came to get the Communists, I was silent, because I was not a Communist. When they came to get the Socialists, I was silent. When they came to get the Catholics, I was silent. When they came to get the Jews, I was silent. And when they came to get me, there was no one left to speak."

- † We Remember: ST. PAUL THE EGYPTIAN (c. 240-352) fled to the desert of Thebes at age 22 to escape the persecution of Decius, according to St. Jerome, who is our sole source for the life of this saint. Paul stayed there in the desert even after the persecutions ended...in fact, he stayed in the desert for 90 years, until his death. He was the first in a long succession of the Desert Fathers, holy men in search of solitude and a place for heavenly contemplation. (D,B) ★ Another Desert Father memorialized today is ST. MACARIUS the Great (c. 300-390). Disciple of the desert-dwelling ST. Anthony, Macarius was once asked "How should one pray?" The old man said, "There is no need to make long discourses; it is enough to stretch out one's hands and say, Lord, as you will, and as you know, have mercy. And if the conflict grows fiercer say, LORD, HELP! He knows very well what we need and he shows us mercy."
- + ST. ITA (c. 570): Widely venerated in Ireland, St. Ita (also known as Ida, Mida or Deirdre) holds the foremost place among her country's women saints after St. Brigid. Of royal descent, she was born at Waterford and won her father's consent to lead a life of virginity. In Limerick, she founded a community of women dedicated to God; she also founded a school for boys. One of her pupils was St. Brendan, who became a famous abbot and missionary. He once asked Ita what three things God especially loved. She replied, "True faith in God with a pure heart, a simple life with a religious spirit, and openhandedness inspired by charity." (L,P,G)
- † In 1929, the birth of THE REV. DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. (1929-1968), Baptist minister who championed the civil rights movement in the U.S., awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964, assassinated in 1968. The civic holiday which commemorates Dr. King's birth is observed next Monday, Jan. 20.

‡ We Remember: St. MARCELLUS, an early pope who served the Church at a pivotal moment in its history, died in exile on this day in the year 309. He was elected four years after the death of his predecessor St. Marcellinus due to confusion resulting from Diocletian's persecution. The Church was disorganized and torn by factions - because those who remained loyal during the persecution objected to those who had fallen away and now wanted to return. His epitaph by Pope Damasus, composed in the century after his death, says that Marcellus' refusal to reconcile the lapsi (lapsed) on too easy terms made him unpopular with the laxer members of his flock. His decree cause widespread civic disorders, which led to his being exiled by the emperor Maxentius. (D,P,E) + ST. HONORATUS (350-429), Bishop of Arles, was born to a consular Roman family that settled in Gaul. Honoratus renounced paganism in his youth and went to the East to study monasticism. Returning to France, he founded the Abbey of Lerins, and in ${\bf 426}$ was forced to accept the bishopric of Arles. St. Honoratus says, "So live, therefore, that you may not fear the end of life." We Remember: ST. ANTHONY (or ANTONY) the ABBOT, also called "the Great," (c. 251-356), patriarch of all monks, was born in upper Egypt. First of the Church's hermits and generally regarded as the founder of monasticism, Anthony took to heart the words that were read in his church: If you seek perfection, go, sell your possessions, and give to the poor. You will then have treasure in heaven. (Mt 19:21). He gave away his property - which was considerable - to the poor, and in early adulthood lived as a hermit near his native place. He endured terrifying struggles with the Devil and violent temptations of the flesh. He later lived among the tombs in the cemetery, which was always considered the habitat of the Devil (Mk 5:2-5); there, the diabolical assaults continued and the Devil often appeared to him in horrible forms. But Anthony was also consoled by a vision of the Lord. Anthony's next move was to the desert, to fight the Devil in his own stronghold, and once again he emerged victorious. By this time, his manner of life had attracted many followers. The solitude of hermits was moderated since they were accessible to each other and to visitors, including pilgrims, and they exercised an important social role. Anthony seems to have visited Alexandria at least twice in support of the local church. About the year 305, he started a community - the first Christian monastery. The inspiration for his life of withdrawal was not extreme asceticism but radical simplicity, poverty, and charity in imitation of Christ. The anecdotes and words of advice of the desert solitaries, women and men, are preserved in collections known as the Sayings of the Fathers. About a thousand of these sayings are considered authentic, of which almost forty probably date back to St. Anthony himself, including this one: "When you have realized that a soul that is obedient to God and cleaves to Him is like a bird whose source of life is warmth, never let yourselves be deprived of the power of this fire." The life of St. Anthony was written by his friend, St. Athanasius, shortly after Anthony's death. Not only did it make St. Anthony known, but it contributed to the conversion of many individuals, including St. Augustine and St. Martin. (S,B,P,E)

We Remember: ST. MARGARET OF HUNGARY (1242-1270), daughter of Bela IV, king of Hungary, refused proposals of royal marriage three times, choosing instead a life of consecrated virginity, dedicating herself to austerity, meditation and prayer. She founded a convent of Dominican nuns on an island in the Danube near Budapest and, though of royal blood, served her Sisters as the lowest of servants. Margaret was also a mystic, and dedicated her sufferings and deprivations to the Blessed Sacrament. She was 28 at the time of her death. Pope Pius XII canonized her in 1943. (D,S) • THE WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY, a contemporary celebration to teach members about ecumenism and to intercede for the restoration of unity among all the churches, begins today. The Harper-Collins Dictionary of Religion defines ecumenism (from the Greek oikoumene, "the whole of the inhabited world") as "the quest for Christian unity through dialogue and collaboration among diverse Christian groups." The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is a joint endeavor of the Vatican and the World Council of Churches. It was established in 1908 by Fr. Paul Wattson, and is celebrated between the feasts of St. Peter's Chair at Rome, Jan. 18 (dropped from the Roman calendar in 1960, the Chair of St. Peter is now observed Feb. 22) and The Conversion of St. Paul, Jan. 25.
