Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time – February 6, 2022

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart, for you have heard the words of my mouth. — Psalm 138:1

THEOPHANIES

Today's readings recount three theophanies, or particular manifestations of God's presence. The prophet Isaiah is caught up in a dramatic scene of heavenly worship, with a royal throne, burning embers, and seraphim singing, "Holy, holy, holy." Isaiah is overwhelmed. In the responsorial psalm, the assembly adds its own worship to that of the seraphim: "In the sight of the angels, I will sing your praises, Lord" (Psalm 138:1). Paul reminds the Corinthians of his own experience of a post-Resurrection appearance of the Lord, making him an apostle, but one "born abnormally" (1 Corinthians 15:8), since he had no acquaintance with the earthly Jesus. The first of those who did know the earthly Jesus were surprised by fishing advice from the teacher who had commandeered Simon's boat, resulting in an extraordinary catch. Although less colorful than those of Isaiah or Paul, this theophany was just as overwhelming. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — In a vision Isaiah is called to be a messenger for the LORD of hosts. Isaiah responds, "Send me!" (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)

Psalm — In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord (Psalm 138). Second Reading — Paul reminds us of the gospel he preached through which we are saved, if we believe it (1 Corinthians 15:1-11 [3-8, 11]). Gospel — Jesus directs Simon to take his boat into deep water for a miraculous catch of fish. Simon and his partners leave all to follow Jesus (Luke 5:1-11).

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unflinching care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How can I come to rely more on heavenly grace?

God wishes to test you like gold in the furnace. The dross is consumed by the fire, but the pure gold remains and its value increases.

This Week in the Life of the Church - feast days and notable events in Church history

Sunday, Feb. 6, 2022

✠ We Remember: St. DOROTHY is identified by apocryphal tradition as a resident of Caesarea, Cappadocia. When she refused to sacrifice to the gods during Diocletian's persecution of the Christians, she was tortured by the governor and ordered executed. "On the way to the place of execution, she met a young lawyer, Theophilus, who mockingly asked her to send him fruits from 'the garden' she had joyously announced she would soon be in. When she knelt for her execution, she prayed, and an angel appeared with a basket of three roses and three apples, which she sent to Theophilus, telling him she would meet him in the garden. Theophilus was converted to Christianity and later martyred." (P) ✠ St. WARREN (+1159) (his Latin name is Guarinus), an illustrious cardinal, Bishop of Palestrina and a member of the Order of St. Augustine is also honored today. ✠ St. PAUL MIKI AND COMPANIONS were 26 martyrs, the first canonized saints of the Far East, who died some 400 years ago. In 1862 they were all canonized as the Martyrs of Japan. (S,D,P) ✠ In 1944, on this feast of the Martyrs of Japan, 65 American Divine Word missionaries died aboard a Japanese prison ship. The priests, brothers, and sisters, who had been forced from their mission posts throughout the Far East, were among the victims of a mistaken attack by a U.S. aircraft whose pilot thought he was attacking a warship. ✠ We Remember: a Greek farmer, St. LUKE THE YOUNGER (DIED 946), who was admitted as a novice to a monastery at Athens, and became a solitary on Mt. Joannitza, near Corinth. He worked so many miracles in this place that it was known as Soterion (place of healing) and he himself as the Thaumaturgus (Wonderworker). As a boy, Luke would often give his clothes to beggars or go without a meal to feed the hungry. When he sowed the fields, he would scatter half the seed over the land of the poor - yet he would notice that the Lord blessed his father's crops with abundant increase. Luke wanted to become a monk but his family was unwilling to let him go. But when the family offered hospitality to two monks who were on pilgrimage from Rome to the Holy Land, the monks persuaded Luke's family to allow him to travel with them to Athens. He was 18 when he built himself a hermitage at Mt. Joannitza. (B,L) • In 1478, St. THOMAS MORE was born. Lord Chancellor of England, he was beheaded in 1534 for refusing to recognize the divorce of Henry VIII and Henry's becoming supreme head of the church in England. Exactly 100 years later, in 1578, the death of BLESSED THOMAS SHERWOOD. Only 27 years old, Thomas "was apprehended on suspicion of being a papist at the instigation of the son of Lady Tregonwell, a Catholic whose house he had frequented. He was sent to the Tower, where he was cruelly racked in a vain endeavor to make him disclose where he had heard Mass, and then thrust in a filthy dungeon. Thomas More's son-in-law, Roper, tried to send him money to alleviate his sufferings, but the lieutenant of the Tower would not permit of any money to be spent on him beyond six-penny's worth of clean straw for him to lie on. After six months he was tried, condemned for denying the Queen's supremacy, and hanged at Tyburn". (Butler's) After his execution, Thomas Sherwood's mother was also confined to prison, and she died there 14 years later.

✠ International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking
✠ We Remember: St. JEROME EMILIANI (1486-1537) is a model of conversion from a dissolute life to a life of total dedication to the care of the sick, abandoned children and women converts. He was born in Venice of a noble family, became a soldier, was captured in battle and imprisoned. During that time, he learned to pray, and resolved to reform his life; he was miraculously set free after praying to our Lady, and as a result he promised to dedicate himself to her service. Returning to Venice, he was ordained a priest at age 37. In times of pestilence he was heroic in caring for the orphans, sick and poor; Jerome started a religious order to do this work and to educate young abandoned youth. He died of the plague in 1537, and was canonized a saint in 1767. Pope Pius XI named him patron of orphans and abandoned infants in 1928. (S,V,B) ✠ St. CYNTHIA (+249), an Egyptian girl martyred under Decius because she would not worship idols. • In 1949, CARDINAL MINDSZENTY, Primate of Hungary, was convicted of treason and espionage and sentenced to life imprisonment by the communists.

✠ We Remember: St. MICHAEL FEBRES CORDERO (1854-1910) was a saintly schoolmaster, a De La Salle Brother of the Christian Schools, a native of Ecuador, and the first native vocation. A gifted teacher who specialized in languages, Michael was full of charity and good humor and led an intense life of personal prayer. His first love was preparing children for their first communion and writing textbooks. In 1907 he went to Belgium where his congregation's headquarters were then located in order to have more time to write. For reasons of health, he went to Barcelona, where after teaching only a few months, he died on this day in 1910. In 1936, in the midst of the Spanish Civil War, his remains were taken back to Quito, where his tomb became a center of pilgrimage, and where, in 1954, the government of Ecuador erected a great monument to him; canonized by St. Pope John Paul II in 1984. (D,B,L)

✠ We Remember: St. SCHOLASTICA (c.480-543), Virgin, sister (and twin) of St. Benedict and religious foundress, Scholastica is regarded as the first nun of the Benedictine order. The twins visited each other once a year in a farmhouse, because Scholastica was not permitted inside the monastery. St. Gregory the Great, in his Dialogues, says that at her last meeting with her brother, Scholastica obtained by prayer a sudden heavy rainstorm, which prevented Benedict from returning to his monastery and thus prolonged their interview through the night: three days later, Benedict saw her soul ascend to heaven in the semblance of a dove. The tradition that Scholastica was a nun dates from the 11th Century. Before then, she was considered a devout and holy woman living in the vicinity of the abbey of Montecassino. Her relics, with those of her brother, are beneath the altar of the abbey at Montecassino. Her feast has been celebrated on this day since the end of the 8th Century. (V,L,B,S) ✠ In 1543, the death of Fr. JOHANNES ECK in Ingolstadt, Germany. A noted theologian, he became a professor of theology and a canon at the Cathedral of Eichstadt. When MARTIN LUTHER posted his 95 theses on the doors of Wittenberg Cathedral, Fr. Eck responded with the Catholic position on all 95 points; he would spend the rest of his life debating Luther and his followers and writing tracts defending the Catholic faith. Pope Leo X appointed him as one of the authors of Exsurge Domine, Martin Luther's formal excommunication paper. Fr. Eck found time to translate the entire Bible into the German language and had it published. (W) • In 1829, POPE LEO XII died. • In 1939, the death of POPE PIUS XI, in Rome. "He encouraged lay participation in the mission of the Church, condemned contraception, and concluded the Lateran treaty with Mussolini establishing the Vatican City State as a separate political entity. He opposed both Communism and Nazism and supported Franco in Spain. The number of missionaries doubled during his pontificate. He was the first pope to use the radio for communication." He canonized many, including the Little Flower and St. Bernadette. (E,W)

Friday, Feb. 11, 2022 - Our Lady of Lourdes

✠ We Remember: World Day of the Sick; National Shut-in Visitation Day; The feast of OUR LADY OF LOURDES is observed on the anniversary of the first apparition at Lourdes in 1858. BERNADETTE SOUBIROU, 14, set off with her sister and a friend to gather firewood from the common land by the banks of the river Gave. Bernadette fell behind the others, and as she was removing her shoes and stockings before crossing the mill stream near the grotto of Massabiellee, she was visited by a woman no bigger than herself, dressed in a white robe, with a blue sash knotted at her waist. The apparition revealed herself to be the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of the "Immaculate Conception." Eighteen times the Virgin appeared to Bernadette. They prayed the rosary together, and Bernadette conveyed the Virgin's wish that a chapel be built on the site of the vision. The Virgin also told Bernadette to drink from a fountain in the grotto. There was no fountain, but when Bernadette scratched at the spot designated in the apparition, a spring began to flow, whose waters proved subsequently to have a wondrous healing power. Millions flock annually to Lourdes from all over the world, and since 1933 Bernadette herself has been officially hailed by the church as a saint. But she had a hard time in her lifetime. She was besieged by skeptics - bullied, cajoled and endlessly cross-examined. She entered the convent of the Sisters of Nevers in 1866, which became another trial, for she had a superior who found it impossible to believe that Mary would appear to a peasant girl rather than someone more exalted like themselves. In Bernadette's words she was 'ground like a grain of corn.' Lourdes and its continuing miracles have obscured the life of this remarkable saint. Parents seldom name daughters after her anymore, as they did in the 1930s and 1940s. But Bernadette's story lives, as does her shrine, which is yet a singular place of pilgrimage; in fact, one of the most popular." John Deedy, from The Catholic Book of Days. (C, B,L,V) ✠ In 1940, the death of Fr. JOHN W. MAGUIRE, CSV, in Miami. A Viatorian priest, he was a convert while a college student. He became very active in the American labor movement early in this century, serving as an arbitrator in many labor/management disputes. His most famous case was the bitter Kohler strike in Wisconsin in the 1930's. (W)

Saturday, Feb. 12, 2022

✠ We Remember: St. MELETIUS (d. 381) was an Armenian who became bishop of Sebaste and, later, patriarch of Antioch. During this time, the Arian controversy was raging, and St. Meletius was exiled by the Arian emperor. Eventually fully reinstated in 378, he presided over the Second General Council of Constantinople, but died before its conclusion. (B) ■ THE LABOR DAY MASS tradition was promoted by Fr. JOHN P. MONAGHAN, born this day in 1890 in Dunamore, Ireland. He was instrumental in founding the Association of Catholic Trade Unionists. (W)
