Fifth Sunday of Lent – April 3, 2022

I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. — Philippians 3:8

SOMETHING NEW IN CHRIST

Jesus knew that the scribes and Pharisees were trying to trap him. They put him in what seemed to be a no-win situation. Let the woman who was caught in adultery go, and he would have been accused of ignoring the law. Let her be stoned, and he would fail to show mercy toward her, contradicting his life's message. Jesus' response teaches three crucial lessons: none of us is free of sin; we are not the ultimate judges of others; Jesus is the mercy of God, in whom we can always trust. In Christ, God does something new. When we give our hearts to Christ, we have the hope of new life, a life in which mercy reigns. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD does something new for the chosen people (Isaiah 43:16-21) or Ezekiel 37:12-14. Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126) or Psalm 130.

This Week in the Life of the Church - feast days and notable events in Church history

Sunday, April 3, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. RICHARD OF WYCHE (1197-1253) was a much-loved English bishop persecuted by King Henry III. By his courage, simplicity and poverty, Richard triumphed. He was renowned for his pastoral ministry and generosity. ✠ Also the feast of Saints Agape, Chionia and Irene, three sisters of Thessalonica burned alive for being in possession of the Holy Scriptures which, by and edict of Diocletian, was punishable by death. ✠ In 1287, POPE HONORIUS IV died. Serving two years, from Apr. 2, 1285 through Apr. 3, 1287, he was a strong supporter of religious orders, especially the Dominicans and Franciscans. (E)

Monday, April 4, 2022

✠ We Remember: ✠ ST. ISIDORE OF SEVILLE (c. 560-636), Doctor of the Church, presided over several synods; reorganized the Spanish church; encouraged monastic life; completed the Mozarabic liturgical rite, and wrote on theology, scripture, biography, history, astronomy and grammar. (B) ✠ ST. BENEDICT THE BLACK (1526-1589). Born a slave near Messina, Italy, he was freed, became a hermit, then superior of his community; his holiness, reputation for miracles, and his fame as a confessor drew many to him. Canonized in 1807, and is the patron saint of African Americans. (D) ✠ In 397, St. Ambrose died; his feast day is celebrated Dec. 7, the day of his ordination. • In 1627, many people of the Quaker sect in the U.S. were arraigned before the courts as recusants – persons who refused to attend the Church of England services. ✠ In 1968, the assassination of DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. (1929-1968) an eloquent black Baptist minister who championed the civil rights movement in the U.S. beginning in the mid-1950's. After theological training, including a Ph.D., he became a minister in Montgomery, Alabama, in 1954. He organized opposition to segregation on buses in 1956, leading the 382-day Montgomery boycott that brought the U.S. Supreme Court decision holding that such segregation was unconstitutional. Dr. King was the founder (1957) and president of the SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE. In 1960, Dr. King resigned his pastorate to devote himself completely to the civil rights movement, advocating nonviolent methods; this culminated in the massive march on Washington, Aug. 28, 1963, a demonstration by 200,000 persons in support of black demands for equal rights, highlighted by a speech in which Dr. King said, "I have a dream that this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed, We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal." In 1964, Dr. King won the Nobel Peace Prize. He was only 39 when assassinated April 4, 1968, in Memphis. Rev. King's funeral in Atlanta drew 75,000 mourners. Today we honor this prophet and martyr, and "apostle of justice," who gave hope to so many. (F)

Tuesday, April 5, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. VINCENT FERRER (1350-1419), a native of Spain, entered the Dominican Order and became an advisor to the King of Aragon and the Avignon pope (with whom he sided in good faith). To heal the schism of the papacy he traveled through Spain, France, Switzerland and Italy, preaching penance, working miracles, and converting thousands, being endowed with the gift of tongues. He played a vital role in the COUNCIL OF CONSTANCE (1414) (which took successful action to end the Western Schism involving rival claimants to the papacy). He acquired tremendous authority as a preacher, which was sustained by numerous miracles. (B) ✠ BLESSED JULIANA OF LIEGE (1192-1258). The origin of the Feast of Corpus Christi, sanctioned by POPE URBAN IV in 1264 – the office for the feast was written by ST. THOMAS AQUINAS – and extended to the whole Church, can be traced to the visions of Juliana, an Augustinian nun who understood from them that God wanted a feast to honor the Blessed Sacrament. She lived to see devotion to the Blessed Sacrament spread to Germany, Poland, and Czechoslovakia. It is now a universal feast. (W)

Wednesday, April 6, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. MARCELLINUS (d. 413) was the imperial representative in Africa at the time of the Donatist disturbances. He was singled out by St. Augustine in his book The City of God, which he dedicated to "my dear friend Marcellinus." With his brother, Agrarius, Marcellinus enforced the decisions of the conference of Carthage against the Donatists, who resorted to leveling false accusations against the two brothers. The general in charge of putting down an insurrection believed the lies defaming them, and the brothers were put to death without even the formality of a trial." B,D ✠ ST. CELESTINE (d. 432) was elected pope in 422 and, like Marcellinus, was a friend of St. Augustine, with whom he corresponded. He struggled against several heresies of the day, and was in particular an unyielding foe of Nestorianism, holding a council in Rome in 430 that condemned the heresy and threatened Nestorius with excommunication; in 431, Celestine sent three legates to the Council of Ephesus, which formally condemned Nestorianism. As a successor of St. Peter, he claimed oversight over the whole Church, East and West alike. He also sent St. Palladius to evangelize Ireland in 431. Celestine died July 27, 432. ✠ In 1520, the artist RAPHAEL died. On this same day eight years later, in 1528, the artist ALBRECHT DURER died.

Thursday, April 7, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. JOHN BAPTIST DE LA SALLE (1651-1719) was a French priest who founded the Brothers of the Christian Schools, an order composed of laymen devoted to education. Original and revolutionary educational principles characterized the teaching methods of this congregation. Despite extreme opposition, he succeeded in establishing his system and his new institute on solid foundations. Canonized in 1900, he is the patron saint of all teachers. • In 1655, the birth of POPE ALEXANDER VII, who led the Church from 1655-1667. He commissioned BERNINI to enclose St. Peter's piazza with two semicircular colonnades. • In 1991, in a sign of expanding religious tolerance in the former Soviet Union, more than 3,000 people gathered at St. Basil's Cathedral in Red Square for Orthodox Easter services - the first time in decades. In addition to the Red Square services, the state television news program began its Sunday broadcast with an Easter message from Russian Patriarch Alexi II, and national television broadcast Saturday services from the Cathedral of the Epiphany, seat of Russian Orthodoxy.

Friday, April 8, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. DIONYSIUS (c. 170) was the bishop of Corinth and a leader of the church in the second century. Several of his letters to various churches are still extant: especially noteworthy is that in which he records the martyrdom of Saints Peter and Paul in Rome. The Greek Church venerates him as a martyr. (B) ✠ ST. JULIE BILLIART (1715-1816) founded the Institute of the Sisters of Notre Dame, endured many persecutions and died in Belgium.

Saturday, April 9, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. MARY OF CLOPAS (1st c.) was the wife of Clopas or Alpheus (John 19:25) and the mother of the apostle St. James the Less. She was one of the "three Marys" who followed our Lord from Galilee and who stood at the foot of the cross. (B) ✠ DIETRICH BONHOEFFER was executed on this day in 1945 at Flossen-burg death camp. "This is the end - for me, the beginning of life," he told friend and fellow prisoner British officer Payne Best. Born in 1906, Bonhoeffer was a Lutheran theologian and pastor who received his theological education at Tübingen, Rome and Berlin, and subsequently lectured at Union Theological Seminary, New York, and at the University of Berlin. From the start, Bonhoeffer opposed the Nazi movement and sided with the Confessing Church, for whom he headed a new seminary at Finkenwalde. For his association with the resistance to Hitler and a link with the failed assassination attempt on the Führer, he was arrested in 1943 and hanged on this day in 1945. In his theological thought, which matured in prison, he sought to speak in a secular way to secular society about God; this comes across in Letters and Papers from Prison (1953). He had an enduring interest in ecumenism and a link with the United Kingdom through his friendship with Bishop Bell of Chichester. (F) • In 1816, the AFRICAN METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH was established in Philadelphia, by BISHOP RICHARD ALLEN, who led the black Methodists to separate from the white church because of disturbances due to color discrimination. The first general convention of the A.M.E. Church was held in Philadelphia in April, 1816, and Richard Allen was ordained as the first bishop by General Conference, consecrated by five regularly ordained ministers. [FF] • In 1829, GENERAL WILLIAM BOOTH, founder of the movement that became known, in 1878, as the Salvation Army, was born. Apprenticed to a pawnbroker at the age of 13, Booth experienced first-hand the misery of poverty. He broke with conventional church religion and established a quasi-military religious organization with military uniforms and ranks. Recruiting from the poor, from converted criminals and from many other social outcasts, his organization grew rapidly and its influence spread from England to the U.S. and to most other countries. Died at London Aug. 20, 1912. (F) ✠ CARDINAL ALBERT MEYER of Chicago died on this day in 1965. A noted Biblical scholar, he was a major voice at the Second Vatican Council and worked aggressively for his beliefs and recommendations, one of which was the collegiality of bishops. He died after a serious illness at Mercy hospital in Chicago. • In 1965, the founding of the VATICAN SECRETARIAT FOR NON-BELIEVERS. Pope Paul VI started this office for the study of atheism and for dialogue with those who profess no belief in God.
