Second Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy) April 24, 2022
Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever. — Revelation 1:18a

DIFFICULTY, SURVIVAL, AND GLORY

In Revelation, John the Evangelist tells us what we can expect as followers of the risen Jesus: distress, endurance, and a kingdom. Although we are only eight days into our fifty-day Easter feasting, we cannot ignore the distress weighing down our daily lives. Jesus' resurrection does not erase individual suffering, but his glorious triumph over death cultivates endurance in our hearts. We remember that Jesus did not spare himself, and we ask for the strength to endure as he did. Imitating Christ helps us grow as members of God's royal family. As beloved citizens of the Kingdom of God, we recognize our kinship with all people. Peter demonstrates his care for others as he heals multitudes of broken, suffering people. In the Gospel, Thomas accepts his own spiritual healing when Jesus helps him to believe. In times of difficulty, survival, and glory, we borrow Thomas' declaration of faith: "My Lord and my God!"

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The apostles perform many signs and wonders among the people. Many are added to their numbers (Acts 5:12-16).

The absent Thomas doubts (John 20:19-31).

This Week in the Life of the Church - feast days and notable events in Church history

Sunday, April 24, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. FIDELIS OF SIGMARINGEN (1578-1622). Born in Sigmaringen, Germany, Mark Roy received doctorates in law and philosophy, and became known as the "Advocate of the poor." He entered the Capuchin Order and received the new name Fidelis. As superior of different monasteries, he was charitable and zealous. He dedicated himself to preaching and ministering to the Austrian troops, and was sent by the newly-founded Propagation of the Faith to preach to Swiss Protestants. Fidelis was asked to join the Calvinist sect, to which he replied, "I have come to combat heresy, not to embrace it." He was subsequently stabbed to death in the church at Seewis in Switzerland, and canonized by Pope Benedict XIV in 1746 (S,B,V).

Monday, April 25, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. MARK THE EVANGELIST Mark, who died c. 75, was intimately associated with the development of the young Church. Born in Jerusalem, he is generally thought to have been the young man who ran away when our Lord was arrested (Mark 14:51-52) and the "John whose other name was Mark" of Acts 12:25. He accompanied Saints Paul and Barnabas on their first missionary journey. Afterwards, he followed St. Peter to Rome and is described in the pre-1970 Roman Missal as "the disciple and interpreter of St. Peter," whose preaching he set down in writing in the gospel which bears his name. St. Peter calls him "my son Mark" (1 Peter 5:13). Mark was a helper to the stronger personalities. His Gospel seems to reflect Peter's preaching, but the direct, concrete, colorful style expresses Mark himself. Considered founder of the Church of Alexandria in Egypt, Mark is specially honored by the Coptic Christians of that country, where he died a martyr. His body was in the ninth century translated to Venice and is enshrined in the magnificent cathedral dedicated to him. Many modern scholars believe that Mark provided Matthew and Luke with a common source for their gospels. In art he is represented as a lion; the symbol is taken from the four creatures mentioned in Revelation 4:7-8. (V,B,P) ✠ Forty years ago, in 1982, JOHN CARDINAL CODY, died after serving as archbishop of Chicago for 17 years. Ordained for the Archdiocese of St. Louis in 1931, he also served as auxiliary bishop there, as bishop of Kansas City-St. Joseph and as archbishop of New Orleans.

Tuesday, April 26, 2022

✠ We Remember: On this day, the Church remembers her third pope, ST. CLETUS, a Roman converted by St. Peter who was elected pope c. 79 and suffered martyrdom, probably in Rome; Eusebius states that he died in the twelfth year of Emperor Domitian's reign (81-96). It is possible he had been a slave, and he is also known by the Greek version of his name, Anacletus, which means "blameless." Cletus is commemorated in the ancient canon of the Mass. ✠ We also commemorate ST. MARCELLINUS (+304), another pope who guided the Church from 293-304, martyred during the persecution of Diocletian. (D)

Wednesday, April 27, 2022

✠ We Remember: Though ST. ZITA died in 1278, her Christian witness of servanthood, charity and integrity inspires us still. Born in 1218 into "a humble household, as pious as it was poor," Zita was given strong, positive role models early in life: her parents were devout Christians, her elder sister became a nun, and her uncle Graziano was a hermit who was locally regarded as a saint. At twelve years old, Zita became a servant eight miles from her native village in the house of Pagano di Fatinelli, who employed many people for his prosperous wool and silk-weaving business in the town of Lucca. From the outset, Zita expressed her deep piety by rising in the middle of the night to pray, and by attending daily Mass at the church of San Frediano. The good food she received in her wealthy household she gave to the poor. Often she turned her bed over to a beggar and slept on the ground. At first, her fellow servants despised her; they looked upon her hard work and charity as a "silent reproach," and resented her "open abhorrence of evil suggestions and foul language." They tried, with some success, to cause her problems with the boss. "But she bore all her trials uncomplainingly," the story goes. When one of the men made "dishonorable advances," she defended herself by scratching his face, yet "she made no attempt to explain or justify her action" when the boss looked into it. In this extraordinary way, through patience, forgiveness and prayer, she overcame the hostility of the household, and her master and mistress "came to realize what a treasure they possessed in Zita." From then on the children of the family were entrusted to her, and she became the housekeeper. (L)

✠ We Remember: ST. PETER CHANEL is remembered today; the Church honors the first martyr of Oceania - the vast region of the islands of the Pacific. Born (1803) in France, Peter Chanel became a diocesan priest. He served selflessly as an assistant pastor, pastor, and seminary rector. In 1836, he joined the newly-formed Society of Mary, and was sent to Oceania. Pagan practices and Protestant opposition made his work discouraging, but he found courage in his morning Mass. Finally he converted the son of the King of Futuna in Polynesia. For that conversion, he was martyred on this day in 1841. Within a short time, the number of baptisms was incredible, not only on Futuna, but on Wallis, Tonga, and all the other islands. St. Peter Chanel was canonized by His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, in 1954.

Friday, April 29, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA, the 23rd child of hard-working parents, Catherine was born in Siena, Italy, in 1347. She showed early signs of unusual sanctity, joined the Third Order of Dominicans, and became spiritual guide to many. Catherine influenced public affairs. She encouraged the Pope to leave Avignon in 1377 and return to Rome. She dictated profound spiritual writings, died in on this day in 1380, and in 1970 was declared Doctor of the Church. She was made patroness of Italy in 1939.

✠ We Remember: MICHAEL GHISLIERI was only thirteen when the Augustinian priest and doctor of theology, MARTIN LUTHER, posted his 95 theses concerning matters of Catholic belief and practice at Wittenberg Cathedral in Germany on Oct. 31, 1517. But it would fall to Michael, as POPE PIUS V, to implement the Catholic Church's response to the PROTESTANT REFORMATION, which was ushered in on that fateful day. Born in northern Italy, Michael entered the Dominican Order at 14 and was ordained in 1528. Thirty years later, after being ordained a bishop, Pope Paul IV named him a cardinal, in 1566 he was elected pope, thanks in great part to the influence of ST. CHARLES BORROME0. Though his pontificate would last only six years, he would accomplish much. POPE PIUS V immediately began the work of reforming the Church. His austere and severe disposition was well fitted for the task of combating the loose discipline of that time in many ecclesiastical quarters, including the Roman curia. He carried out the Decrees of the COUNCIL OF TRENT (1545-1563), promulgated a catechism, and published a new Breviary and a new Missal. This set the norms followed by the Catholic Church until the Second Vatican Council concluded 400 years later (1962-65). He deleted some of the extravagant details in the lives of the saints; authorized a critical edition of the works of ST. THOMAS AQUINAS and proclaimed him Doctor of the Church; insisted on the catechetical teaching of the young as the duty of all parish priests, and he called for adequate instruction prior to baptism for adults. Pope Pius' support of Mary Stuart caused Queen Elizabeth I to launch a severe persecution of Catholics in England, which in turn led the pope to excommunicate her in 1570. He did, however, succeed in forming an alliance between Spain and Venice which ultimately led to the defeat of the Turkish armada at Lepanto on Oct. 7, 1571, which staved off the invasion of Eastern Europe. In gratitude, Pope Pius V instituted the feast of Our Lady of Victory, later renamed Our Lady of the Rosary. Moreover, the invocation Mary, Help of Christians, was added to the Litany of Loreto, and he promoted the recitation of the rosary. Pius showed great compassion for the poor and lowly, but insisted on strict justice in dealing with the powerful. His success in enforcing liturgical and moral reform was due in large part to the respect that the people had for his personal holiness. As he was dying, Pope Pius V said to the cardinals in attendance, "I recommend to you the Church that I have always loved. Try to elect as my successor a zealous man who will seek nothing but the glory of the Savior and will have no other interest here below than the honor of the Apostolic See and the good of Christianity." He died in Rome May 1, 1572, but his feast is celebrated today because May 1 is the feast of St. Joseph the Worker. Canonized a saint in 1712, Pope Pius V was the last pope to be declared a saint prior to Pope Pius X (in 1954). (B,S,A,P) ✠ In 693, the death of St. Erkenwald at Barking Abbey in Essex, England. He founded two Benedictine abbeys - Chertsey for men, of which he was abbot, and famed Barking for women. After being elected as bishop of London, Erkenwald became a major influence on the Church in England. he is considered to be one of England's greatest saints, and his cult flourished for almost a thousand years.
