Week of May 14 — May 20, 2023

WELCOME TO THE INTERFAITH AIRPORT CHAPELS OF CHICAGO! The O'Hare Airport Chapel and Midway Airport Chapel are each a peaceful oasis in a busy venue. A place to bow your head in prayer while lifting up your heart and spirit! Prayer books and rugs, rosaries, and worship materials are available, as are chaplains for spiritual counsel. You are welcome to attend Mass or Worship services and to come to the chapels (open 24/7) to pray or meditate. Know that you & your families are always in my prayers. May God bless your travels.

— Fr. Michael Zaniolo

Happy Mother's Day!

→ A blessed and happy Mother's Day to all mothers! We celebrate mothers with a special Spiritual Bouquet at our 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. Masses today, Sunday, May 14. A spiritual bouquet is a Catholic devotion, "a collection of prayers, devotional exercises, and acts of self-denial offered to an individual for spiritual benefit" — in this case, a Mass intention. We are grateful to all those who participated in the Spiritual

Bouquet at the chapel and we hope this prayerful expression of affection increases the joy of your Mother's Day celebration. Mother's Day is a fairly recent observance. Anna Jarvis of West Virginia is the person most responsible for today's celebration. Born in 1864, Anna was very close to her mother. When Anna went away to college in Virginia, she missed her mother very much, but she was determined to be educated, and she returned home a certified school teacher. Anna was grief-stricken when her mother died May 9, 1905, just two years after her father's death. Though she had been an exemplary daughter, she felt that she hadn't done enough for her mother. This lament continued until, two years later, Anna came up with an idea. She invited a group of friends to her home on the second Sunday in May - the anniversary of her mother's death - and announced her idea to launch an annual nationwide celebration to be called Mother's Day. Her friends were enthusiastic. In spring, 1908, Anna wrote to the director of the Methodist Sunday school in Grafton, West Virginia, where her mother had taught a weekly religion class for 20 years. She felt that the local church would be an ideal location for a celebration in her mother's memory, and by extension, all mothers present would be honored. On May 10, 1908, the first Mother's Day service was held in Grafton, attended by 407 children and their mothers. With dogged persistence, Anna Jarvis pursued her dream of establishing Mother's Day as a national observance, and on May 8, 1914, President Woodrow Wilson signed a proclamation designating the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day. Her efforts brought joy to countless mothers, but Anna's final years were sad. Hurt by a disastrous love affair, she never married. She deplored the commercialization of Mother's Day, thinking of it as a religious observance. She exhausted her savings, lost her family home, and her blind sister Elsinore, to whom she was devoted, died. Anna became a recluse and spent her last years in a private sanitarium, where she died, age 84, in 1948. [Extraordinary Origins of Everyday Things, Charles Panati, 1987]

Sixth Sunday of Easter — May 14, 2023

THE ADVOCATE

As Jesus prepared the apostles for the time when he would no longer be with them physically, and knowing that they would face hardship, trials, and persecution in the future, he promised them an Advocate, the Holy Spirit. Through baptism that same Spirit dwells within us, always with us to guide us in the truth of God's love and strengthen us so that we may know Christ and live as Christ's people. Now, as in every time, God knows it is not always easy to live as a Christian. With the assurance of the Holy Spirit's presence, we find the grace to love Jesus and to keep the Lord's commandments. TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The people of Samaria accepted the word of God preached by Philip; they received the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:5-8, 14-17).

Psalm — May the whole world shout to God in jubilation (Psalm 66).

Second Reading — Act with gentleness and reverence toward all, so that when you are maligned those who defame you will be the ones put to shame (1 Peter 3:15-18) or 1 Peter 4:13-16. Gospel — I will not leave you orphans, but will come to you (John 14:15-21) or John 17:1-11a.

This Week in the Life of the Church – Feast Days and Notable Events in Church History

✠ We Remember: ST. MATTHIAS (1st Century) took the place of Judas Iscariot (Acts 1:15-26). He was chosen by lot by the remaining Eleven. He evangelized Cappadocia and the area around the Caspian Sea. We know nothing about the details of his martyrdom; legend says he was either crucified or beheaded. (S) ✠ ST. MARY MAZZARELLO (1837-81), like many women religious, was like a mother to many. Born near Genoa, the eldest daughter of a hard working farm family. She attended Mass often and at 18, joined a Marian sodality (an association of the faithful for the promotion of piety, charity and public worship), started by the parish priest - who was in turn inspired by the work of ST. JOHN BOSCO, then working in Turin. In 1860, the Sodalists were asked to nurse the victims of a typhoid outbreak, and in doing so Mary caught the fever and almost died. Weakened by this illness, Mary took up dressmaking and started a business which hired local girls. This was the beginning of the Salesian Sisters, who aimed at "combining piety with work and education in a very natural and joyful way," as St. John Bosco had done for boys. Mary was chosen superior and in 1872, eleven sisters took their vows. In spite of a limited education, she was very successful governing the congregation, which rapidly spread in Italy, France, and South America. Only 44 when she died, her body reposes next to St. John Bosco in Turin. As of 2016, the Salesian Sisters number over 14,000 members in 89 different countries, and on five continents. She was canonized in 1951. (L)

✠ We Remember: ST. ISIDORE (1070-1130) spent his whole life working as a farm laborer on an estate outside of Madrid. He married a girl as poor and holy as himself, ST. MARIE DE LA CABEZA. After their only son died in infancy, they lived the rest of their married life in perfect chastity. Isidore was a man of intense prayer and his life was marked by numerous miracles and supernatural interventions. His wife survived him for several years and they are both venerated as saints in Spain. Canonized in 1622, he is the patron saint of Madrid. St. Isidore is celebrated in the U.S. as the patron of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference. He is, however, not only a patron for farmers, but serves as a model of the spirituality of the laity. He shows how persons living and occupied in the world, and especially those doing manual labor, can be united with God in prayer even as they perform their daily duties. His charity toward the poor and needy and his respect for God's creation are of special significance to those living in our modern consumer society. He is also a reminder to all lay persons in the Church that they are called by God to sanctify the temporal order in this world. (S,B)

✠ We Remember: ST. BRENDAN OF CLONFERT (c. 486-575) was a monk, later abbot, and his principal area of activity was western Ireland, and among the main abbeys he founded was Clonfert. We sometimes hear of Brendan referred to as "the Navigator," both for his many journeys founding abbeys in Ireland, Scotland and Wales, and because of a romance written in ninth-century Germany by an exiled Irish monk, which tells of the sea voyage with a group of monks to an island of promise in the Atlantic Ocean. There are scholars who believe the accounts of Brendan's voyages, which Christopher Columbus studied, were based on actual events, and that he did reach North America. (L) ✠ ST. SIMON STOCK (1165-1265) was among the first English people to join the Carmelites and eventually (1247) became the sixth general of the order. He was instrumental in establishing houses at the principal university cities of Europe: Cambridge (1248), Oxford (1253), Paris (1260), Bologna (1260), and in modifying the rule so that the Carmelites became an order of mendicant friars rather than of hermits. The Carmelite Scapular, which signifies shouldering the "yoke" of Jesus Christ, has been most popular in the Church. The Carmelite Orders of men and women are devoted to contemplation. ST. THERESA OF AVILA and ST. JOHN OF THE CROSS are champions of their spirit. (B,D) ✠ ST. JOHN NEPOMUCEN, patron of Bohemia, was a priest who served as vicar general of his diocese and was martyred in 1393 for helping to preserve the goods of a monastery from the devious actions of the king. On the night he was killed by being thrown from a bridge, legend says that seven stars hovered over the water.

✠ In 1164, the death of HELOISE, Abbess of the Convent of the Paraclete. The story of Heloise and Abelard is one of the most famous of the Middle Ages. ■ In 1209, ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI (1181-1226) founded the Order of Friars Minor (O.F.M.), which came to be called the Franciscans. Preaching, missionary, educational, parochial, and charitable work characterizes their apostolate. (W)

✠ We Remember: ST. PASCHAL BAYLON (1540-1592) started his life as a shepherd. Later he became a Franciscan lay-brother and spent his life mainly as doorkeeper in different friaries of Spain. All his life, he was animated with an intense love of the Holy Eucharist. In 1897, he was declared patron of all Eucharistic confraternities and congresses. (B)

✠ In 1992, the first native of the Sudan was canonized, SISTER JOSEPHINE BAKHITA (1869-1947). She had been kidnapped and sold into slavery, suffering brutality in many forms, until in 1883 she was sold to an Italian family who treated her kindly and made her a nursemaid and governess. Only when she sought to join the Daughters of Charity in Venice (while accompanying one of her charges at a boarding school), and the family objected, did she discover that slavery was illegal in Italy. (The superior of the religious Order and the Cardinal of Venice had intervened in her defense). She was baptized in 1890 and devoted her life to simple tasks such as sewing, cooking, serving as sacristan and doorkeeper, taking her vows in 1896. In her holy simplicity she was an inspiration to all. In her last years she became ill and could not leave her wheelchair. When a visiting bishop asked her what she did all day in her wheelchair, she replied, "What do I do? Exactly what you are doing - the will of God." Sister Josephine died Feb. 8, 1947. (AS)

✠ We Remember: ST. JOHN I (d. 526) joined the Roman clergy as an archdeacon and was elected pope in 523. He governed the Church for only three and a half years (523-526). In 526 he went to Constantinople on an embassy from Theodoric, the Arian king of the Ostrogoths. On his return, Theodoric threw the pope into prison at Ravenna, suspecting him of conspiring with the emperor Justin. The pope died there of want and hardship. The inscription on his tomb reads: "Victim for Christ because of a forced journey." He promoted the Roman chant, which led to the development of Gregorian chant (B,D,S). ✠ ST. ERIC OF SWEDEN (d. 1160) became king of Sweden in 1150 and at once began to exert all his influence to spread the gospel throughout the country. He codified the laws of his kingdom in the same spirit, and is for this reason called "The Lawgiver." He also labored for the conversion of the Finns. He was murdered as he was leaving a church after the Eucharist. • In 1920, the late POPE JOHN PAUL II, Karol Wojtyla, was born in Wadowice, Poland.

✠ We Remember: ST. DUNSTAN OF CANTERBURY (909-988), one of the great figures in English history and the most famous of all the Anglo-Saxon saints, he restored Benedictine monastic life in England. Under his rule as abbot, Glastonbury became the greatest center of learning in the country. Dunstan himself excelled as a goldsmith, an illuminator, embroiderer and musician. He was summoned to court to be a royal counselor, but was forced into exile by King Edwy, whom he had rebuked. Dunstan now spent one year at Ghent, then a great center of monastic restoration. He was recalled to England by King Edgar and became his chief adviser, being ordained bishop of Worcester (957), Canterbury (961), and appointed Pope John XII's legate in England (961). He chiefted, along with Saints Ethelwold of Winchester and Oswald of York, a thorough monastic and ecclesiastical reform throughout England and initiated a vigorous policy of national unification and moral restoration. Active and energetic until falling ill around the feast of Ascension, 988, the archbishop celebrated Mass and announced his impending death. He chose a place for his burial, and two days later died peacefully at Canterbury, in his cathedral of Christ Church. In art he is shown as a bishop holding the Devil by a pair of pincers, often by the nose. (B,L)

✠ St. Urban I (230) enjoyed a relatively peaceful pontificate because there were no persecutions under the emperor Severus. The Church's first anti-pope, Hippolytus, was alive during much of Urban's reign.

✠ St. Peter Celestine (1210-96) was the only pope to resign from office prior to Pope Benedict XVI. A hermit elected at the age of 80, Celestine V resigned voluntarily but was prevented by his successor from returning to his retreat.

Saturday, May 20, 2023

✠ We Remember: ST. BERNARDINE OF SIENA (1380-1444) was a reformer, popular preacher, writer, and promoter of devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus. He was a Franciscan accounted the foremost Italian missionary of the 15th century. We do well to remember St. Bernardine's statement, made like a true Franciscan: "If you speak of God, speak with love. If you speak of yourself, speak with love. Take care that there is nothing in you but love, love, love." (S,B) • In 325, the FIRST COUNCIL OF NICAEA, the first ecumenical or universal council in Church history, opened with Pope St. Sylvester I presiding in the city of Nicaea, located in modern-day Turkey. Nearly 300 bishops are said to have attended this first of 21 ecumenical councils, the latest of which, Vatican II, began Sept. 11, 1962. Nicaea I defined orthodox trinitarian belief; structured the organization of the Church after Roman civil government; condemned Arianism; and formulated the Nicene Creed. Each year, the Chicago Airports Catholic Chaplaincy celebrates Mother's Day with two special Spiritual Bouquet Masses at 9:00 and 11:00 a.m. This is a prayerful way for us to remember our mothers, grandmothers, sisters, aunts, nieces, and other special women in our lives. We'd like to thank all those who participated in this year's Spiritual Bouquet, and also to offer our prayers and best wishes to all mothers on this very special day.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for us!

The most important person on earth is a mother. Mothers are closer to God, the creator, than any other creature; God joins forces with mothers in performing this act of creation.
