memorial day observed may 28

MEMORIAL DAY, OBSERVED THIS MONDAY, MAY 28, HONORS all the nation's war dead. Mass will be celebrated at ORD and MDW Chapels at 11:30 a.m. Formerly known as Decoration Day, Memorial Day was originally a day set aside to decorate the graves of Federal soldiers who died during the American Civil War. Gen. John Alexander Logan ordered its observance, beginning on May 30, 1868, and since 1971 it has been observed as a legal holiday on the last Monday in May. The holiday weekend is a time for family gatherings, barbecues, and celebrating the end of the school year. Many communities mark the day with parades and speeches. Flowers, wreaths and flags are commonly placed in memoriam. Memorial Day Mass will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Monday, May 28, at all the Archdiocese of Chicago's major and parish cemeteries. A list is published in the Catholic New World and is available here: <http://www.catholiccemeterieschicago.org/>

the most holy trinity may 27, 2018

Go . . . and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. — Matthew 28:19

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR FAITH

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today's solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Ask now of the days of old: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? (Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40).
Psalm — Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own (Psalm 33).
Second Reading — You received a Spirit of adoption through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" (Romans 8:14-17).
Gospel — I am with you always, until the end of the age (Matthew 28:16-20).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the great treasures of the Eastern tradition is the icon of the Holy Trinity created by the Russian iconographer Andrei Rublev in the 1400s. The Trinity is symbolized by the three travelers to the tent of Abraham and Sarah. They are seated at a table blessing a cup of wine, under the oak of Mamre. If you look closely, you will see a sacrificed calf in the chalice, reminding the viewer of the cross. The table, prepared for eating and tilted toward the viewer, is an invitation to the Eucharist. From left to right, each figure is keyed to a person of the Trinity. Like all icons, this image is theology in art. The persons are equal in proportion and dignity, they all carry staffs to symbolize their power, and are shown with golden wings and halos. Today, the best place to see Rublev's work is the Holy Trinity Cathedral, at the heart of the vast Holy Trinity monastery about an hour from Moscow. After decades of persecution, it is now once again a living monastery, a world heritage site, and the spiritual home of Russian Orthodoxy. A Google visit is highly recommended today!—Rev. this week in the life of the church - feast days and notable events in church history

SUNDAY, MAY 27, 2018

✠ We Remember: ST. AUGUSTINE OF CANTERBURY, (c. 605). In 596, St. Gregory the Great commissioned Augustine and some 30 monks to evangelize southeastern England, where Christianity had been submerged by the paganism of the invading Saxons in the 5th and 6th centuries. After the conversion of Ethelbert, King of Kent, Augustine returned to France and was ordained a bishop. King Ethelbert gave him the ancient church of St. Martin in Canterbury. At Christmas, 597, Augustine had the joy of seeing a large number of Ethelbert's subjects baptized. In 601, Augustine became the first archbishop of England, assigned to Canterbury. (L)

• In 1564, JOHN CALVIN died, age 55. French theologian and one of the most important figures of the Protestant Reformation. Calvin broke with the Catholic Church in 1533. His master work, the Institutes of the Christian Religion, was published in 1536. Simple and austere in lifestyle, Calvin was a reticent man. His great intellectual ability and charismatic leadership had an enormous impact upon the course of church history.- Mark A. Noll, Grolier Interactive

MONDAY, MAY 28, 2018—MEMORIAL DAY (USA)

✠ We Remember: ST. GERMANUS OF PARIS (c. 496-576) - "one of the chief glories of France in the sixth century," says Butler. While serving as an abbot, Germanus happened to be passing through Paris when the episcopal see was vacant - and King Childebert I nominated him bishop of Paris in 555. Germanus "retained his simplicity of dress and food, but his house was always crowded by a throng of beggars whom he entertained at his own table. Through his eloquence and example he brought many sinners and careless Christians to repentance, including the king himself who, from being entirely absorbed in worldly interests, became a generous benefactor to the poor and the founder of religious establishments." He cured the king of an illness, and the king then built for him the abbey of St. Vincent, now known as Saint-Germain-des-Pres, which for several generations was the burial place of the royal family. Germanus, who died today in 576, is remembered as "father of the poor." (B)

✠ BLESSED LANFRANC OF CANTERBURY (ALSO OF BEC) (1005-89), called "a dominant figure in the intellectual, monastic and political life of eleventh century Western Europe," was a scholar, Benedictine and archbishop, founder of a school which was to become famous throughout Christendom, Bec in Normandy. Though Italian (from Pavia), he spent most of his life in Normandy and England. In 1070 he became archbishop of Canterbury, where he remained "very much a monk." (B,L)

✠ BLESSED MARGARET POLE (1473-1541) was executed at the age of 70; niece of English Kings Edward IV and Richard III, she was described as "the saintliest woman in England" by King Henry VIII when he became king in 1509; at that time she was a widow with five children. She was governess of Princess (later Queen) Mary. Margaret's son, Reginald, became a cardinal. When Reginald wrote against the royal supremacy in the king's dispute with Rome, Henry told the French ambassador that he meant to get rid of the whole family. Margaret, whose intellectual ability as well as her tall figure and dignified bearing won the respect and admiration of the king's emissaries, who tried to implicate her in a plot against the crown, was imprisoned in the Tower of London, where she suffered extremes of cold. She was never brought to trial - it was believed no jury would convict her - yet a servile Parliament condemned her to die. On this day in 1541 she was beheaded. "The understudy executioner added to her suffering by his lack of skill." (B,L)

✠ We Remember: ST. MAXIMINUS (+ 347) was a native of Poitiers but went to Trier for his education, attracted by the reputation of its bishop, Agritius, whom he succeeded in 333. Maximinus became famous for his opposition to the heresy Arianism and for the practical help he gave its victims, the most celebrated of which was St. Athanasius, who was the bishop's guest for two years, and St. Paul of Constantinople, banished by the emperor. He warned the emperor Constans, a frequent visitor to Trier, against Arianism, which he opposed both in councils and in private. St. Jerome praised Maximinus as one of the most courageous bishops of his time. ✠ ST. SISINNUS AND COMPANIONS were martyred on this day some 1,600 years ago - in 397. Sisinnius was a deacon, and Martyrius was a reader, like his brother Alexander. They were commissioned to spread the Gospel to the Tyrolian Alps, and in spite of opposition won many to the Christian faith, but the pagans, enraged by the spread of Christianity, tried to force the newly-converted to participate in a polytheistic festival. The Christians refused, and were attacked, beaten severely, and burned to death in their church. ✠ THE MARTYRS OF TOULOUSE, who died in 1228, are also recalled on this day. These twelve - four of the secular clergy, three Dominicans, two Benedictines, two Franciscans and one layman - were put to death by Albigensians near Toulouse (France) on the eve of the Ascension. They died singing the Te Deum. (B,L) • A disturbing event in our nation's history unfolded today in 1647 when the first witchcraft execution on record took place. Achsa Young of Massachusetts was hanged as a witch.

✠ We Remember: ST. JOAN OF ARC (1412-1431) was burnt alive at the stake as a heretic and sorceress at Rouen (France) May 31, 1431. She was not yet 20 years old. Joan called to Jesus and Mary as the flames consumed her. In 1456, the case was re-tried and Joan was declared innocent. After centuries of popular veneration, she was beatified in 1909 and canonized in 1920. In 1922 she was declared patroness of France. Called "the Maid of Orleans," she was 17, minding her father's sheep, when she heard supernatural voices commanding her to take up arms and lead the French army against the English invaders. (B) ✠ In 1582, the martyrdom of ST. LUKE KIRBY, BL. THOMAS COTTAM, BL. WILLIAM FILBY AND BL. LAURENCE RICHARDSON in London; all four were converts and were hanged for being Catholic priests. (W)

✠ We Remember: THE VISITATION OF MARY TO ELIZABETH - Luke's Gospel tells how Mary, after the Annunciation, visited her cousin Elizabeth. Today, between the feast of the Annunciation and the birth of John the Baptist, we celebrate the Visitation. The scene is one of joy, promise and hope because of God's recent actions for Mary and Elizabeth. (V)

FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 2018

✠ We Remember: ST. JUSTIN MARTYR, a layman, exerted a strong influence in the early Church. He went through a difficult intellectual struggle to find Christ. Born in Samaria around 100 A.D., he studied various philosophies and was converted to Christ when about 30 years old. Justin taught in Ephesus, later opened a school in Rome, and wrote defenses of Christianity. He wrote our oldest descriptions of the Baptismal rite and of Sunday Mass. Justin died a heroic martyr's death in about 165, during the persecution of the philosopher Emperor, Marcus Aurelius. (V) ■ In 1964, the Supreme Court banned prayers and Bible teaching in public schools on the constitutional grounds of separation of church and state.

SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 2018

✠ We Remember: ✠ Saints MARCELLINUS and PETER are associated with the catcombs - those vast underground burial chambers of special importance for the early centuries of our faith. The catacombs of Marcellinus and Peter, located outside Rome, contain the richest collection of early Christian paintings. A beautiful inscription from Pope Damasus states that Peter and Marcellinus demonstrated edifying serenity in the face of death. They were martyred around 304 or 305. The family of Constantine built a large basilica in their honor. (V)

■ In 1987, FR. ANTHONY DE MELLO (1987) died suddenly of a heart attack at the age of 56. Director of the Sadhana Institute of Pastoral Counseling in India, he was internationally recognized for his bestselling books (Sadhana: A Way to God; One Minute Wisdom; The Song of the Bird; Well-springs; Taking Flight, Awareness, The Way to Love) and guided prayer cassettes. "Too much of our lives," he said, "is spent in the past, worrying about our mistakes, living fearfully, and carrying around heavy loads of guilt. Or too much in the future, paralyzed with fear of what is about to happen." A fellow Jesuit, Fr. Myron Perira, wrote, "In the area of spirituality, Tony brought us back to what Ignatius (the founder of the Jesuits) would call the central place of consolation in prayer - that is, the experience of being loved by God. And through consolation, he asked us to allow ourselves to feel - anger, passion, desire, joy, and peace - and then to pass from feeling to silence. In this he borrowed freely from the great religious traditions of East and West and shared his treasures with all as freely. In those days after Vatican II, this was heady stuff, indeed. But thus it is that revolutionized the interior lives of so many religious, who earlier had just stuck it out through sheer duty. In this, too, Tony was a sign of an age to come."
