Have a Safe and Happy Fourth of July Holiday!

Americans celebrate their foremost national holiday, Independence Day, this Tuesday, July 4. Independence Day is the anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence from Great Britain on July 4, 1776. The declaration was ordered and approved by the Continental Congress, and written largely by Thomas Jefferson. It declared the 13 colonies independent from Great Britain, offered reasons for the separation, and laid out the principles for which the Revolutionary War was fought. The signers included John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, John Hancock and Jefferson. Customary festivities include picnics, parades, band concerts, decorations in red, white and blue, and nighttime fireworks displays.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time — July 2, 2017

Think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

— Romans 6:11

THE RICHNESS OF LIFE IN CHRIST

Today we have the beautiful story of the woman promised a child, the wonderful exhortation about life in Christ, and a powerful instruction from Jesus. An embarrassment of riches? Not if we take Jesus' words about "welcome" to heart. The many challenges and blessings offered to us today by Elisha, Paul, and Jesus should be cause for rejoicing, and welcomed heartily into our lives. And, like the great treat that they are, they should be enjoyed and shared generously with others. Today's reading from Romans was chosen very early in the liturgical life of the Church to be the sole apostolic instruction received by candidates for baptism at the Easter Vigil. This illustrates its importance as a core belief, and as a means of comprehending the story of the Resurrection. Christ's resurrection is not merely a story about something that he underwent once upon a time, but it is our story, the story of how we joined the other members of the one Body of Christ, the church. We were not only dead, but we were buried; not ultimately buried, but raised to eternal life with Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Elisha promises a baby son to the hospitable woman (2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a). Psalm — For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 89). Second Reading — We shall live in newness of life as Christ was raised from the dead (Romans 6:3-4, 8-11). Gospel — Whoever gives but a cup of cold water to another will surely be rewarded (Matthew 10:37-42).

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Monday: Eph 2:19-22; Ps 117:1bc-2; Jn 20:24-29
Tuesday: Gn 19:15-29; Ps 26:2-3, 9-12; Mt 8:23-27; or, for Independence Day, any readings from the Mass "For the Country or a City," nos. 882-886, or "For Peace and Justice," nos. 887-891
Wednesday: Gn 21:5, 8-20a; Ps 34:7-8, 10-13; Mt 8:28-34
Thursday: Gn 22:1b-19; Ps 115:1-6, 8-9; Mt 9:1-8
Friday: Gn 23:1-4, 19; 24:1-8, 62-67; Ps 106:1b-5; Mt 9:9-13
Saturday: Gn 27:1-5, 15-29; Ps 135:1b-6; Mt 9:14-17;
Sunday: Zec 9:9-10; Ps 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14; Rom 8:9, 11-13; Mt 11:25-30

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

It's Independence Day week, and there is a link worth tracing between the Declaration of Independence and the language of liturgy. One of the signers of the Declaration on that July 4 long ago was Charles Carroll, probably the wealthiest man in the colonies and one of the few Catholics on the political scene. As a flourish to his signature, he sought to distinguish himself from other prominent citizens bearing the same name by penning "Charles Carroll of Carrolltown"—a defiant "come and get me if you dare" postscript aimed at the British.

Carroll's brother John was a priest and patriot who in 1789 was given the task of organizing the Catholic Church in this country. By 1791 he had assembled a synod, or assembly of delegates, to launch that task formally. Archbishop Carroll wanted to gain acceptance of our faith by American people who mistrusted our customs and could not comprehend our liturgy. He made the amazing proposal to Rome that our liturgy should be prayed not in Latin, but in the vernacular, English. His wish was denied, but one hundred sixty years later, his deep desire helped the American bishops and scholars at the Second Vatican Council to win the vote in favor of the vernacular not just for the United States, but for the Church throughout the world. —Rev. Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves and under a just God cannot long retain it. —Abraham Lincoln

✠ We Remember: ST. OTTO OF BAMBERG (c. 1062-1139). Otto came from a noble family and was ordained at an early age. He entered the service of Emperor Henry IV in 1090, and became his chancellor about 1101. Henry came into conflict with the papacy and established an anti-pope. But when Henry appointed Otto bishop of Bamberg in 1103, Otto refused to accept consecration until the rightful pope, Paschal II, approved and consecrated him in Rome in 1103. Otto labored to patch things up between the Pope and the emperor's successor, Henry V. In 1124, Otto was invited by King Boleslaus III of Poland to launch a missionary effort in eastern Pomerania. Thousands became Christians, and Otto is honored as their apostle. He died at Bamberg June 30, 1139, and was canonized in 1189. (P,B) • In 1865, GENERAL WILLIAM BOOTH presided over the first meeting of the Salvation Army in London. • In 1872, the birth of GEORGE CARDINAL MUNDELEIN in New York City. He was the third Archbishop of Chicago, offered the funeral Mass for St. Frances Cabrini, and hosted the 28th International Eucharistic Congress, among many notable achievements. (W) • In 1968, the death of FRANCIS CARDINAL BRENNAN in Philadelphia. Ordained a priest in Rome in 1920, Francis became the first American to be appointed to the Roman Rota (1940), the Vatican court of law. He served on the body for 27 years, the last eight as Dean. In 1967 he was consecrated bishop and named a cardinal by Pope Paul VI. The Pope then appointed him to head the Congregation of the Sacraments, the first American to do so. (W)

Monday, July 3, 2017 - St. Thomas, Apostle

✠ We Remember: ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE's feast was formerly celebrated Dec. 21, but was transferred to July 3 in order to coincide with the translation of his relics to Edessa. The Syro-Malabar Rite in India and the Syro-Malankara Rite also celebrate his feast on this day.

Pope Paul VI proclaimed St. Thomas the patron of India in 1972. This Apostle is simply named Thomas in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke (Mt 10:3; Mk 3:18; Lk 6:15; Ac 1:13), but St. John's Gospel (11:15; 20:24) adds the Greek name Didymus (twin) because that is the meaning of "Thomas." He is also known as doubting Thomas, because when Jesus appeared to the apostles to prove that he had truly risen, Thomas was not with them and so refused to believe. Later, Christ appeared again when Thomas was with the group, and he made his famous confession of faith: "My Lord and my God!" The Antiochene tradition of his missionary journey to Persia, and especially his stay in India, is based on apocryphal literature that may well have a historical basis. Legend has it that he was martyred at Calamina in India, but no one has succeeded in identifying the place. Others maintain that he was martyred at Mylapore or present-day Madras. His relics were ultimately transferred to Abruzzi, Italy, where they are venerated. (S)

• In 1897, the death of FR. AUGUSTINE F. HEWITT, CSP, a co-founder of the Paulist Fathers and founder of the Paulist Press. A convert to Catholicism, he opened the first religious order house of studies at the Catholic University of America. (W) • In 1988, SISTER ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE (Society of the Sacred Heart) became the fourth American elevated to sainthood. Sr. Rose braved the American frontier and founded the first free school west of the Mississippi. (W)

Tuesday, July 4, 2017 - St. Elizabeth of Portugal

Today is the Fourth of July - Independence Day in the United States. ✠ We Remember: ST. ELIZABETH OF PORTUGAL, Princess of Aragon and grandniece of St. Elizabeth of Hungary, this Elizabeth (1271-1336) was married at age twelve to King Denis of Portugal, and became known for her piety, charity and concern for the poor. She founded convents, hospitals, founding homes and shelters for wayward girls. Her life was frequently upset by politics and family quarrels, but kept in balance by deep spirituality and prayer. As a widow she renounced the world and lived in poverty and obscurity in the habit of a Franciscan. Known as Isabella in Portugal, she died this day and was canonized in 1626. (P,L) • July 4, 1779, marked the first public religious commemoration of the U.S. Declaration of Independence at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Philadelphia. The service was attended by members of the Continental Congress. (W)

Wednesday, July 5, 2017

✠ We Remember: ST. ANTHONY ZACCARIA Born in Cremona in north Italy in 1502, today's saint practiced as a medical doctor before priestly ordination in 1528. Even before the Council of Trent he also had a dream of priests who would be neither monks nor mendicants, but living under a rule of life with vows. He founded such a Congregation at Milan. Because they lived first at the Church of St. Barnabas, these religious priests were referred to as the Barnabites. Anthony died prematurely in 1539. The Order did much to inspire clergy and evangelize the people. (V) • In 1294, the accession of POPE ST. CELESTINE V, a Benedictine monk noted for his piety. He couldn't cope with the pressures and resigned five months later after issuing a letter stating that a pope can resign. (W)

Thursday, July 6, 2017 - St. Maria Goretti

✠ We Remember: ST. MARIA GORETTI: This young girl was scarcely twelve years old when she died in defense of her chastity at Nettuno, Italy, on July 6, 1902. She was canonized by Pope Pius XII in 1950, and it is the first time in history that the mother of a saint was present at the canonization. Maria Teresa Goretti was born of a poor family and was uneducated, but she manifested a maternal spirit in caring for her four little brothers and the neighbors' children while the adults were working in the fields. Her father died when she was ten years old. She was stabbed to death by Alexander Serenelli, son of her father's partner, who lived in the same house with the Gorettis, while resisting his attempt to seduce her. Maria died in the hospital at Nettuno after forgiving her assassin. In 1910, during his eighth year in prison, Alexander was converted after a dream in which the young martyr presented him with a bouquet of flowers. He was released from prison in 1928 and, after asking pardon of Maria's mother, he received Communion with her at the Christmas Mass. Alexander was also present for the canonization of Maria, and spent his last years as a third-order Franciscan and died in 1970. (P,L) • In 1415, JOHN HUS (ca. 1369-1415), Czech priest, theologian, preacher, and rector of the University of Prague (1409), was burned as a heretic. "Influenced by John Wycliffe's ideas about Church reform, Hus led the reform movement that ultimately expelled German influence from the University of Prague. Hus (and his followers) rejected transubstantiation, demanded Communion in both kinds, and claimed that reprobate priests (including popes) forfeited their authority within the Church. Excommunicated in 1410, Hus was summoned to the COUNCIL OF CONSTANCE (1414) where, despite an imperial guarantee of safe conduct, he was arrested and burned at the stake. His execution helped ignite a revolution against the medieval Church in Bohemia." (E) "The courage and serenity with which Hus met his fate, insisting on his innocence while forgiving his enemies, left many witnesses wondering whether the condemned heretic was not in fact a saint. Like the early Luther, to whom he is often compared, Hus combined a deep loyalty to the church with an outspoken discernment of its various pathologies. He represented a bridge between a rigidly institutional model of the church and a freer, spiritual model. In burning that bridge, the council fathers resolved one crisis only to prepare the way for the far greater upheavals of the following century. (AS)" • In 1535, ST. THOMAS MORE was beheaded at the Tower of London. St. Thomas - from 1529 to 1532 England's lord chancellor - went to the gallows at age 57 for refusing to take the oath provided in the Act of Succession repudiating the pope and recognizing the divorced Henry's marriage to Anne Boleyn and the rights of succession of their offspring. His last words are immortal, and the inspiration since for all who have been forced to choose between conscience and convenience, principle and accommodation: "I die the king's good servant, but God's first." Patron saint of lawyers, he was the subject of the play and motion picture A Man For All Seasons. (W,L) • In 1978, the first Roman Catholic Mass to be said in the British Parliament Chapel in more than 400 years was celebrated to mark the 500th anniversary of the birth of St. Thomas More.

✠ We Remember: ST. PALLADIUS: We all know that St. Patrick was the great missionary to the Irish people, but today we remember St. Palladius - the man he succeeded. A deacon at Rome, he was responsible for sending St. Germanus of Auxerre to Britain in 429 to combat Pelagianism and in 431 was consecrated by Pope Celestine I and sent as a missionary to Ireland - the first bishop of the Irish. He worked in Leinster, encountered much opposition, but made some converts and built three churches. Acknowledging his lack of success in Ireland, he went to Scotland to preach to the Picts, and died soon after he arrived at Fordun, near Aberdeen, in 432; St. Patrick arrived later that year. (B) • In 1946, ST. FRANCES X. CABBINI was canonized by Pope Pius XII. Born in Italy, she became a U.S. citizen and opened many schools, hospitals and orphanages here. She is the first American saint and is the patron of immigrants. (W)

Saturday, July 8, 2017

✠ We Remember: ST. WITHBURGA was the youngest daughter of the King of the East Angles in Britain, who led an austere life in solitude for several years until laying the foundation of a church and nunnery, but dying March 17, 743, before seeing her project completed.

✠ ST. ISABELLA (ELIZABETH) OF PORTUGAL (1271-1336) established hospitals, orphanages and homes for wayward women. She joined the Order of St. Clare later in life. At her death, she said to Queen Beatrice, who looked after her, "Draw up a chair for the radiant lady in white who is coming." It was the Blessed Virgin who entered; the dying woman murmured: "Maria, Mater gratiae;" then gently gave up her soul.
