Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time — July 31, 2022

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart.

— Psalm 90:12

THE CENTER OF A MEANINGFUL LIFE

Today's readings invite us to reflect upon some of life's deepest questions, and to explore the meaning of faith. We hear of the universal human search for meaning in our lives in the book of Ecclesiastes. In Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus' parable about one who foolishly seeks ultimate security through the accumulation of wealth. In Colossians, faith in the crucified and resurrected Christ is proclaimed as the path to a richly purposeful and meaningful life. The path of Christian faith places our work, our sufferings, and our limitations within the larger picture of God's purposes for all of us. In Jesus, God is revealed as our companion in human suffering and limitation. God's love is at the center of a meaningful life. We place our trust in this loving God, who created us to share in this love, and to share this love with others. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK — Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Draw near to your servants, O Lord,
and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness,
that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide,
you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How has the Lord answered my prayers?

NOTHING BETTER

Nothing . . . is sweeter than love; nothing higher, nothing stronger, nothing larger, nothing fuller, nothing better, in heaven or on earth.

This Week in the Life of the Church - feast days and notable events in Church

Sunday, July 31, 2022

✠ We Remember: Born in 1491 in the Basque section of Spain, IGNATIUS LOPEZ OF LOYOLA was the youngest of eleven children, born to a life of nobility. Trained for a military career, he was seriously wounded in battle May 20, 1521. While recovering, confined to bed and bored, he asked for a book of romances. None could be found, but books on The Life of Christ and Lives of the Saints were available, which he read to pass the time. Soon Ignatius was transfixed. Weeping for his sins, and resolving to imitate the saints, Ignatius turned his mind to the service of the Church. It was the same year that Martin Luther took up residence in the castle at Wartburg during his crisis. A vision of the Blessed Virgin Mary led Ignatius on pilgrimage to the Benedictine Abbey at Montserrat to venerate the famous Madonna. Settling nearby as a guest of the Dominicans, he wrote his epoch-making classic, The Book of Spiritual Exercises, in 1522. He journeyed to Jerusalem the following year and stayed with the Franciscans, but was ordered to leave: they were afraid that his zeal to convert Muslims would cause him to be kidnaped and held for ransom. Ignatius returned to Spain to study Latin. He lodged at a hospice, begged for a living and wore a course gray habit; he taught children religion, held devotions at the hospice and converted many wayward people. Then he went to the University of Alcalá for further studies in logic, physics and divinity. But he ran afoul of the Spanish Inquisition when someone denounced him to the bishop's vicar general, and he was imprisoned for 42 days on suspicion of being an illuminist - "one aspiring to or claiming high spiritual enlightenment." Though found innocent, he and his companions were forbidden to wear any singular dress or to give any instructions on religious matters for three years. So he migrated with three followers to Salamanca, where he was again imprisoned for three weeks on suspicion of introducing dangerous doctrines. After that he left Spain. Making his way to Paris, Ignatius received the Master of Arts degree at 43. On the Feast of the Assumption, 1534, Ignatius gathered six companions at Montmartre and vowed to live poverty and chastity and to go to Palestine to preach the gospel. That failing, they would offer themselves to the pope and go wherever he sent them - which is the way it turned out. Pope Paul III approved the Society of Jesus, more commonly known as the JESUITS, on Sept. 27, 1540. Ignatius led them for 15 years until his death in the early morning of July 31, 1556. He was canonized in 1622 and named patron of spiritual exercises and retreats. At a critical time, the Jesuits brought reform, laboring in mission lands and in the educational apostolate. Their great work continues all over the world today. Pope Francis is the first Jesuit to become pope. (B,L,S,V) ✠ In 1957, the death of BL. SOLANUS CASEY CAPUCHIN, beatified Nov. 18, 2017; born in 1870, he spent 20 years at St. Bonaventure's Friary in Detroit where his reputation for holiness spread.

✠ We Remember: ST. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI, BISHOP AND DOCTOR: Today's notable saint, born near Naples in 1696, earned a degree in both civil and canon law. He gave up law to become a priest - an apostle to the poor, an untiring preacher and writer, a merciful confessor. He once said of his preaching: "I have never preached a sermon which the poorest old woman in the congregation could not understand." Alphonsus founded the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (Redemptorists) to evangelize the poor. He was an outstanding moral theologian and then a bishop, and through many trials worked unceasingly and patiently. Alphonsus died in 1787 at the age of 91. Canonized in 1839, declared a Doctor of the Church in 1871, Alphonsus was named patron of moral theologians in 1950. The Redemptorists did much for the faith in the early years of the Church in the United States. They continue to serve in the spirit of their founder. (B,S,V)

✠ We Remember: ST. EUSEBIUS OF VERCELLI, born in Sardinia around 300. He became a priest of Rome and in 345 the first bishop of Vercelli in north Italy. Persecuted by the heretical Arians and sent into exile after the Synod of Milan (355) because he refused to sign the document condemning St. Athanasius. During his exile he traveled to Palestine, Egypt, Alexandria and Antioch, always promoting orthodox teaching. Eusebius was permitted to return to Vercelli about 361, continued to develop the faith, and encouraged priests to live a community life. Eusebius was the first with his clergy under a rule, an example followed by St. Augustine. He died Aug. 1, 371, but his feast is celebrated a day later because Aug. 1 is the feast of St. Alphonsus Liguori. (B,V) ✠ ST. BASIL THE BLESSED (d. 1552), "Holy fool for Christ," after whom St. Basil's in Moscow is named. Revered in the Russian Orthodox Church, St. Basil the Blessed belonged in the tradition of Fools for Christ, vagrant ascetics who often invited ridicule and contempt for their bizarre behavior, "but to the extent that their conduct suggested a divine inspiration they might also merit cautious respect." When Basil died, he was buried with honors next to the new cathedral in the center of Moscow, which had been dedicated to the Mother of God. But it is a mark of the high esteem Russians held him in that the cathedral became better known as the site of his grave, and when Basil was canonized by the Russian church in 1580, the cathedral's name was formalized: St. Basil's. (AS) ✠ ST. PETER JULIEN EYMARD (1811-1868), founder of two religious communities, was ordained a Marist Father in 1834. He founded the Blessed Sacrament Fathers (1856) and helped establish a contemplative women's community, the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament (1858). He died Aug. 1, 1868, and was canonized in 1962 during the Second Vatican Council. "When you place a Eucharistic spark in a soul, you have implanted therein a divine seed of life and of all the virtues which is self-sufficient," said St. Peter.

✠ We Remember: ST. GERMANUS OF AUXERRE was named bishop of Auxerre (in Gaul) in 418. Germanus (also Germain) embraced a life of poverty and austerity, built a monastery, and endowed various poor churches in the diocese. In 429 he and St. Lupus, bishop of Troyes, were sent to Britain to combat the Pelagian heresy; he returned a second time in 440 with much success. Germanus died July 31, 448. (P) ✠ ST. WALTHEOF (c. 1100-1160). His outstanding characteristics were cheerfulness and unbounded generosity to the poor. Waltheof was educated at the court of the king of Scotland, where he became a great friend of St. Aelred, then abbot of Rievaulx. He joined the Augustinian canons but later migrated to the Cistercians and eventually became abbot of Melrose rebuilt for him by King David, his stepfather. (B)

✠ We Remember: ST. JOHN MARY VIANNEY, the Cure of Ars, is the beloved patron of parish priests. "If something uncharitable is said in your presence," said St. John Vianney, "either speak in favor of the absent, or withdraw, or, if possible, stop the conversation." He also said, "Those who are led by the Holy Spirit have true ideas; that is why so many ignorant people are wiser than the learned. The Holy Spirit is light and strength." Born in a hamlet near Lyon, France (1786), to a devout peasant family, John lived through the suppression of the Church during the French Revolution. He was a "delayed vocation" whose academic slowness, as well as political upheavals, greatly hampered his progress through seminary. When nearly 30, he was at last ordained because his bishop was impressed with his devotion and simplicity, and because Lyons, like all of France, was desperate for priests after the ravages of the preceding 25 years. He transformed the godless parish of Ars by holiness, preaching, prayers and penances. He possessed a remarkable gift for reading souls, and Ars became a place of pilgrimage from all over Europe and the Americas because of its holy pastor. He would hear confessions for 18 hours a day! He refused the appointment as a canon of the diocese and when he received the medal of the Legion of Honor in 1843, he sold it in order to give the money to the poor. St. John sought the serenity of a Carthusian monastery several times but was always discovered and brought back to his parish to continue his ministry. He died of exhaustion at the age of 74, as he had predicted, peacefully and without fear, on this date in 1859 and was canonized a saint in 1925. (S,V,W,S)

✠ We Remember: DEDICATION OF THE BASILICA OF ST. MARY IN ROME, one of the four major basilicas of Rome. This feast was inaugurated by Pope Sixtus III (432-440) on August 5 and it was a local feast until the fourteenth century. According to legend, during the pontificate of Liberius (352-366), the Roman patrician John and his wife, who were without heirs, made a vow to donate their possessions to Our Lady. They implored her to make known to them in what manner they were to dispose of their property in her honor. During the night of August 5, snow fell on the summit of the Esquiline hill and, in obedience to a vision which they had the same night, they built a basilica in honor of Our Lady on the spot which was covered by snow. (This is the origin of the Marian title, Our Lady of the Snows). Above the entrance arch are the words "Plebi Dei," meaning dedicated to the People of God, reportedly from the time of Pope Sixtus III. The central nave is decorated with mosaics that date back to the fifth century. This feast was entered into the Roman calendar in 1586. (H,S,V)

✠ We Remember: •Hiroshima Memorial Day
THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD. This feast, kept in the East since the fourth or fifth century, commemorates the event described in Mt 17:1-3. In the West it was made universal in 1457 by Pope Callistus III - who died on Transfiguration Day the following year. The dramatic Transfiguration scene gave the Apostles a glimpse of who Jesus of Nazareth really was and prepared them for the coming shocking events of Holy Week. Tradition identified the mountain with Mt. Tabor. (OCY, V) ✠ In 1978, the death of Pope Saint Paul VI in Rome. Giovanni Battista Montini was born in 1897 and served as pope from 1963 to 1978. He guided the Church through its difficult post-Vatican II transition and authored three major encyclicals, including the controversial Humanae Vitae (1968). Pope Paul was prepared for the papal office by working intimately with popes Pius XI and Pius XII. A liberal in liturgy, ecumenism, and social questions, he had long advocated the "internationalization" of Curia. But he had not expected the council called by his friend Pope John XXIII and thought at first that it would stir up a "hornet's nest of problems." His spiritual adviser told him to relax in the Holy Spirit. So Paul VI - his name was chosen to express the adventurous, outgoing spirit of Paul the missionary to the Gentiles - had to conclude a council that he would not himself have called. He had to be won over to collegiality, reassured that it did not undermine the primacy. But once convinced, he loyally accepted the council's authority. He canonized 84 saints, among them the Americans Elizabeth Ann Seton and John Neumann. He created the Synod of Bishops and convened it five times. First Pope since Pius IX to travel outside Italy, he became known as the "Pilgrim Pope" for his pastoral visits around the world, including the Holy Land (1964), and an address to the U.N. in New York (1965) on the feast of St. Francis, where he proclaimed "Never again war!" He vigorously pursued ecumenism, and in 1967 he and the Patriarch of the Greek Orthodox Church nullified mutual excommunications imposed on each other by their respective churches in 1054. Pope Paul died of a heart attack. He was canonized by Pope Francis Oct. 14, 2018; feast day May 29. (E,W)
