Week of September 25 – October 1, 2022

WELCOME TO THE INTERFAITH AIRPORT CHAPELS OF CHICAGO!

The O'Hare Airport Chapel and Midway Airport Chapel are each a peaceful oasis in a busy venue. A place to bow your head in prayer while lifting up your heart and spirit! Prayer books and rugs, rosaries, and worship materials are available, as are chaplains for spiritual counsel. You are welcome to attend Mass or Worship services and to come to the chapels (open 24/7) to pray or meditate. Know that you & your families are always in my prayers. May God bless your travels.

Fr. Michael Zaniolo

Administrator, Interfaith Airport Chapels of Chicago
Roman Catholic Chaplain, Chicago Airports Catholic Chaplaincy

Interfaith Calendar & Events

→ September 25-27: Rosh Hashanah - the Jewish New Year initiates religious New Year 5783 and begins a ten-day period of repentance and introspection. Rosh Hashanah marks the anniversary of the birth-day of the world. Rosh Hashanah (literally "head of the year is the first of the High Holidays or Yamim Noraim ("Days of Awe"), celebrated ten days before Yom Kippur. Rosh Hashanah is observed on the first two days of Tishrei, the seventh month of the Hebrew calendar. It is described in the Torah as יום תרועה (Yom Teru'ah, a day of sounding [the Shofar]). The worship service is highlighted by blowing the Shofar (Ram's Horn). (Tishrei 1-2)

→ September 26 to October 4: Navratri - The nine-day fast festival of Navratri is celebrated by Hindus in the honor of Goddess Durga.

Deacon Jim O'Malley (1927-2022)

THE O'HARE CHAPEL COMMUNITY MOURNS the passing of DEACON JIM O'MALLEY, 95, who died Friday, Sept. 9, 2022, following a brief illness. A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Mary Catholic Church, 794 Pearson Street, Des Plaines, and interment was at All Saints Catholic Cemetery.

Jim was hired as an Associate Chaplain by Fr. John Jamnicky, predecessor to Fr. Michael Zaniolo, in May, 1986. He was ordained to the Permanent Diaconate on May 1, 1974 — the second class to be ordained in the Archdiocese of Chicago. He retired from active ministry at the O'Hare Chapel on March 14, 2017, age 90, after 31 years of dedicated service to people on the move.

In many key ways, Jim was responsible for defining the role of Catholic deacon in the civil aviation apostolate, presenting a paper on the topic at the Vatican. Throughout his time at ORD Chapel, he developed the ministerial office of associate chaplain in an airport chaplaincy. In 1990, he was recognized with the St. Lawrence the Deacon Award for ministering to the poor and needy. Jim developed the Wings of Vision Awards Luncheon, which got off the ground in 1995, and earned a D.Min in Applied Ministry in May, 1997.

Jim has been involved with the National Conference of Catholic Airport Chaplains since shortly after its founding, attending annual meetings and serving in various offices through the years, including president from 2001-2005, the first deacon to serve in that office. He shepherded the NCCAC through a process which gave them the ability to certify Catholic airport chaplains through the U.S. Bishop's Conference. At the tenth anniversary Annual Meeting of the NCCAC, the first eight airport chaplains were certified, including Jim.

Deacon Jim O'Malley has been an integral part of our ministry. He made numerous significant contributions through the years. We remember Jim with heartfelt gratitude. Please pray for the repose of his soul, and please remember his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren in your prayers. May he rest in peace.

A memorial flyer is posted on the chapel website: www.airportchapels.org

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time – September 25, 2022

[K]eep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ. — 1 Timothy 6:14

CARE FOR EACH OTHER

Don't delude yourselves, Jesus says through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. We really are supposed to care for others. It is not enough to go to Mass and occasionally serve at a parish or outreach function. We cannot remain complacent and consider ourselves followers of Jesus. No matter how much or how little material wealth we have, we always have something to give—our time and attention, care, and, when possible, our money. The way we treat and care for others, especially the poor and vulnerable, is the manner in which we show our love of God. As disciples, we must "pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness." Jesus calls us to see and respond to the least among us, because, as God's children, we are all part of one another.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Woe to the complacent. Their wanton revelry shall be done away with (Amos 6:1a, 4-7). Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146). Second Reading — Compete well for the faith. Keep the commandment until the appearance of the Lord Jesus (1 Timothy 6:11-16). Gospel — The parable of Lazarus and the rich man (Luke 16:19-31).

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Sunday: Hb 1:2-3; 2:2-4; Ps 95:1-2, 6-9; 2 Tm 1:6-8, 13-14; Lk 17:5-10

This Week in the Life of the Church - Feast days and notable events in Church history

Sunday, September 25, 2022

✠ We Remember: ST. ALBERT OF JERUSALEM (1149-1214) was an Italian of great diplomatic ability and trustworthiness whose holiness and talents were widely known. After brilliant theological and legal studies he became bishop of Vercelli and papal legate in the north of Italy; in 1205 he set out for Palestine, having been named the Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem. He gained the respect and trust of Christians and Moslems alike. But he is best known as co-founder of the Carmelite Friars, for whom, at the request of St. Brocard, he wrote the rule. He was assassinated by an evil-doer whom he had rebuked. (L,B) ✠ ST. SERGIUS OF RADONEZH (1314-1392), who founded the monastery of the Most Holy Trinity; looked upon as the founder of Russian monasticism.

✠ We Remember: World Day for Migrants and Refugees; Priesthood Sunday; Sts. COSMAS AND DAMIAN (c. 303) were Arab brothers (twins) from Syria, physicians by profession, who were martyred under Diocletian. Cosmas and Damian practiced their profession without taking payment from their patients, and on this account they are surnamed in the East Anargyroi (the moneyless ones). Along with St. Luke, they are patrons of physicians, surgeons and pharmacists. They are mentioned in the first Eucharistic prayer of the Mass; this feast commemorates the dedication of the basilica of Ss. Cosmas and Damian at the Roman Forum (a former pagan temple) by Pope Felix IV (526-530).

✠ We Remember: ST. VINCENT DE PAUL (1581-1660), born to a poor family in Gascony, France, became a priest at 19. He was captured by pirates on a sea voyage and spent two years as a prisoner and slave in Tunisia, but succeeded in converting his master to Christianity. In 1608, he took charge of a parish in suburban Paris, then served as a chaplain to galley-slaves in Paris, but it was in teaching religion to the peasants of the countryside that Vincent found his particular vocation. In 1619 he met FRANCIS DE SALES and JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL, and in 1622 he became superior of the convents of the Visitation in Paris, a post he held to his death. In 1625, he gathered a group that would be the basis of the CONGREGATION OF THE MISSION (known later as Vincentians). Composed of both priests and brothers, the Congregation was to engage in parish missions among the poor and uneducated. In Vincent's life of active charity, no one was excluded from his ministrations: he organized relief for abandoned orphans, sick children, fallen women, the poor, destitute, blind, and insane. In 1633 he organized the DAUGHTERS OF CHARITY, gathered together under the direction of LOUISE DE MARILLAC. Vincent died on this day in 1660, was canonized in 1737, and has been declared patron saint of all societies devoted to works of charity. (B,S)

✠ We Remember: ST. WENCESLAUS (907-929): In 929, Wenceslaus, ruler of Bohemia, was martyred near Prague, the first Slav to be canonized. He had received a pious upbringing from his grandmother, ST. LUDMILLA, and took over the reins of government in 922 at the time of a pagan reaction. This he tried to stem with great patience and mildness, but in the end he met his death as a result of a political conspiracy, murdered by his own brother. He is the patron of Bohemia and patron saint of the cathedral at Krakow, Poland. (B,S) ✠ LAWRENCE RUIZ, a Filipino layman, and 15 companions were martyred at Nagasaki by the Japanese in 1637 and were canonized by Pope John Paul II in Manila on Oct. 18, 1987. Lorenzo accompanied a secret Dominican mission to Japan; a storm drove them off course to Okinawa, where they were captured, suffering terrible tortures. (B,S) ✠ On the night of Sept. 28, 1978, POPE JOHN PAUL I died of a heart attack. The "September Pope," born ALBINO LUCIANI in 1912 in the Dolomite Mountains southwest of Venice, was elected on the fourth ballot after only eight and a half hours of the conclave's deliberations, on Aug. 26, 1978. John Paul I immediately won hearts with his warmth and informality. At his coronation he disdained the traditional papal throne borne by footmen and the bejeweled papal tiara. His first audiences were delightfully casual, and promised a papacy symbolized by a spirit of pastoral simplicity and joy. Pope John Paul I served 33 days. The son of a socialist glassworker and a scullery maid, Pope John Paul was ordained a priest in 1935 and received a doctorate in theology at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome. He served as a seminary vice rector and diocesan vicar general before being named bishop of Vittorio Veneto; he attended all the sessions of Vatican II. In 1969, he was appointed archbishop and patriarch of Venice, and in 1973 made a cardinal. Pope John Paul I served 33 days, the shortest pontificate in modern history. He is remembered by many for his humility and good human that won him the affectionate title, "the smiling pope." Declared "Venerable" in 2017, the Congregation for the Causes of Saints officially announced September 4, 2022, as the date for his beatification. (C,P)

✠ We Remember: ST. MICHAEL, ST. GABRIEL, and ST. RAPHAEL Previously, each of these three archangels had his own feastday, but in 1970 one day was assigned to all three. Biblical references to St. Michael, whose name means "Who is like God?" - are found in the Book of Daniel (chaps. 10 and 12), the Book of Revelation (12:7-9), and the Letter of Jude (9). • St. Gabriel, whose name means "Power of God," is the archangel who stands in the presence of God (Lk. 1:19). He is mentioned in the Book of Daniel (8:16; 9:21) as announcing the coming of the Messiah, in the New Testament as foretelling the birth of John the Baptist (Lk 1:10 and 19) and announcing to Mary that she would be the mother of Christ (Lk 1:26). He has been venerated since the second century, and in the Syriac Church he is considered first among the angels. He is the patron of postal, telephone and telegraph workers. • St. Raphael, whose name means "God has healed," is venerated by both Jews and Christians. His name appears in the Book of Tobit (12:12 and 15), where he identifies himself as one of the seven who stand before God. He is the patron of travelers.(S)

✠ We Remember: ST. JEROME (c. 347-420) ranks with Ambrose, Augustine and Gregory the Great among the great Doctors of the Western Church. He combined the most varied intellectual gifts. Born in Dalmatia, he studied at Rome, where he became proficient in Latin and Greek. He was baptized by Pope Liberius (352-366), and lived as a hermit in the Holy Land, where he was ordained a priest and learned Hebrew. Returning to Rome, Jerome developed his monumental translation of the Bible from the original languages into Latin. The "Vulgate" (meaning "the common language") of Jerome was made the official text of the Catholic Church. Jerome returned to Bethlehem and there for 30 years led a life of Scripture study and penance. Of forceful temperament, Jerome wrote many commentaries on Bible books. He died in Bethlehem on Sept. 30, 420, at the age of 91. His place as an exponent of Catholic dogma is still the highest ever allotted to a biblical scholar. In 1920, on the 1500th anniversary of his death, Pope Benedict XV declared him patron of all those who study Scripture.

✠ We Remember: ST. THÉRÈSE OF LISIEUX, (1873-1897), widely known as the "Little Flower" as well as St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus, received special permission to enter the cloistered Carmelite monastery of Lisieux in Normandy at the age of 15, where she remained until her death from tuberculosis nine years later. Marie Thérèse Martin was an intensely religious child, the youngest of nine (only four children survived infancy). She developed a spiritual approach of striving for perfection by being a child of God. The year before she died, Thérèse considered going to Hanoi in Vietnam to live with the Carmelites there, but she became sick with tuberculosis. Her sister, who was the prioress, had Thérèse write her memoirs, published posthumously as Story of a Soul, showing how the most ordinary person can attain sainthood by following her 'little way' of simple, childlike Christianity. She died Sept. 30, 1897, after a long and painful agony. She was canonized in 1925, and her shrine at Lisieux became a major place of pilgrimage. She is the patron of aviators, florists, foreign missions (with St. Francis Xavier), and a secondary patron of France (with St. Joan of Arc). St. Thérèse inspired Mother Theresa of Calcutta in her work. Pope John Paul II declared her a Doctor of the Church in 1997, 100 years after her death - the third woman to be named.(B,L,S,) ✠ In 2000, the Vatican canonized 87 Chinese and 33 European missionaries who died of religious persecution from 1648 to 1930. The 87 were the first Chinese Catholics raised to sainthood. The canonizations angered the Chinese government, because Oct. 1 is China's National Day, commemorating the founding of the communist state. Church officials said that the date was chosen because it is the feast of St. Thérèse, patron saint of missions. The Vatican recognized the group as martyrs decades ago, but China's condemnations intensified as the canonization drew closer. China was on the defensive because of its harsh treatment of some Christian churches that operate without state approval; Bishop Zeng Jingmu, an 82-year-old underground bishop who was imprisoned for 30 years, was arrested again along with two priests on Sept. 14, 2000 (he died April 2, 2016, age 96).
