Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. — Mark 10:14

HE EMBRACED THEM AND BLESSED THEM

Today Jesus stresses how children embody the reign of God. They are trusting and loving and have hearts that are open to love. They are joyful when they are made aware of God's love for them, and are eager to return that love. This is the model Jesus holds out to us if we want to welcome the reign of God. We need to have open, loving hearts. We must drop our defenses, however we came by them, and welcome Christ's love for us with joy. This is impossible for us on our own. Only the grace of God will enable us to do this, but that grace is freely and generously given. We have only to accept it. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of our great treasures is the way the Church has frequently flourished under unfavorable conditions, like the grape ivy on the mantel that refuses to die no matter how infrequently you water it or open the drapes. Like the apartheid laws in South Africa in the last century, the penal laws of Ireland were aimed at depriving the majority population of basic human rights. The Protestant parliament of Ireland enacted laws limiting the practice of Catholicism. The goal was to force conversion from "popery" to the Church of Ireland, and additional laws took aim at Jews, non-Anglicans, and Quakers.

There were laws against intermarriage, laws against Catholics being lawyers (there was a one-hundred-pound fine), a law granting lifelong income to priests who became Protestant, and a ban on weapons. In fact, until 1793, a Catholic man had to recruit and pay a Protestant man to serve in the local militia in his place! As if family life is not complicated enough in any age, the sons of a deceased father could divide his land equally, unless one became Protestant. In that case all would go to him! When allowed, new Catholic churches had to be built of wood, not stone, be off a main road or city square, have no steeple or bell, and be called a "chapel." Catholic "Emancipation" was largely secured by 1829, but even up to the founding of the Irish State in the 1920s, some effects of the laws endured. No wonder that poor Irish immigrants to the United States frequently built gloriously beautiful churches as their first act on free soil! — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Peace and union are the most necessary of all things for men who live in common, and nothing serves so well to establish and maintain them as the forbearing charity whereby we put up with another's defects. There is no one who has not his faults, and who is not in some way a burden to others, whether he be a superior or a subject, an old man or a young, a scholar or a dunce. — St. Robert Bellarmine this week in the life of the church - feast days and notable events in church history

Sunday, October 7, 2018

✠ We Remember: OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY: This feast derives from the feast of St. Mary of Victory, instituted by the Dominican Pope Pius V after the defeat of the Turkish fleet at Lepanto on Oct. 7, 1571. In 1716, Pope Clement XI inscribed the feast in the Roman Calendar. Counting one's prayers on beads is a very ancient form of praying, used by Muslims and the people of India. Repetition of the Hail Mary on the beads of the rosary goes back to the 12th century; around the year 1328, a treatise names Rosarius referred to St. DOMINIC as the promulgator of the rosary. This feast's title was changed from Holy Rosary to Our Lady of the Rosary in 1960. (S) ■ In 1772, the death of JOHN WOOLMAN (1720-1772), American Quaker preacher and campaigner against slavery. From 1743 he made long, arduous preaching journeys on foot, and in great simplicity, rallying Quaker communities against slavery. His Journal (1744) is recognized as a spiritual classic. (F)

✠ We Remember: ST. SIMEON (1ST C.) He was the aged man mentioned in St. Luke's Gospel who took Jesus into his arms and prophesied about Him when He was presented at the Temple. He uttered a beautiful canticle about Our Lord and told Our Lady that a sword would pierce her soul. (V) ■ In 1986, the Vatican took part in the Christian-Marxist World Conference on Ethics, which opened this day in Budapest, Hungary. (W)

■ In 1989, the death of journalist PENNY LERNOUX (1940-1989) just one month after being diagnosed with cancer. She helped tell the story of the Church in Latin America. Two weeks before her death she wrote, "I feel like I'm walking down a new path. It's not a physical fear or fear of death, because the courageous poor in Latin America have taught me a theology of life that, through solidarity and our common struggle, transcends death. Rather, it is a sense of helplessness - that I who always wanted to be the champion of the poor am just as helpless - that I, too, must hold out my begging bowl; that I must learn - am learning - the ultimate powerlessness of Christ. It is a cleansing experience. So many things seem less important, or not at all, especially my ambitions." Through her writings, especially her landmark history of the suffering church of Latin America, Cry of the People, she became a critical link between the churches of the Americas. (AS)

✠ We Remember: ST. DENIS, the first bishop of Paris, who was beheaded the year 250 (with companions RUSTICUS and ELEUTHERIUS), during the persecution of Decius. Above his tomb on the outskirts of Paris rose the great Benedictine Abbey of St. Denis, later the place of burial for the kings of France. Born in Italy and sent to evangelize Gaul (modern France), Denis is the highly venerated patron of Paris. (S,B,G)

✠ ST. JOHN LEONARDI (1541-1609), one of the founders of an institute for educating and aiding foreign missionaries, the College for the Propagation of the Faith (Collegium Urbanum de Propaganda Fide) in Rome. Born in Lucca, Italy, and educated as a pharmacist, he left that profession at age 25 to study for the priesthood. He worked with great zeal in prisons and hospitals. (S,B) ■ In 1845, the conversion of JOHN HENRY CARDINAL NEWMAN to the Roman Catholic Church, the culmination of almost 30 years of searching for the truth, much of it under a firm conviction that the Catholic Church was a great evil and something to be avoided with dread. He was ordained an Anglican priest in 1825; about 1832 he accompanied a sick friend on a health tour of the Mediterranean area and became seriously ill himself. Convalescing in Sicily, he made trips to many Catholic shrines and churches in southern Europe, leading Fr. Newman to write his renowned poem Lead Kindly Light - and to begin rethinking his position on the Catholic Church. Passionist Fr. Dominic Barberi received Newman into the Catholic Church along with a group of his followers. Two years after his conversion, he was ordained a Catholic priest and went on to world fame as a Catholic apologist, theologian, and cardinal.

✠ We Remember: ST. FRANCIS BORGIA (1510-1572), one of the greatest saints of the Catholic Counter-Reformation, was born to the noble family of de Borja in the kingdom of Aragon (modern Spain). Reared at the Court of Charles V, he married very young; when his wife died, he distributed his vast estates and titles among his children and joined the Society of Jesus, eventually becoming its General. Under him, the Jesuits spread throughout Europe and the foreign missions. The austere Francis was courteous, refined, kind, humble and generous, yet most determined and enterprising. He died while traveling on a mission for his great friend, Pope Pius V, who died the same year. (B,D) • Today in 1710, the birth of ALBAN BUTLER, priest and hagiographer (1710-1773), who did more than any modern writer to stimulate devotion to the saints. (AS) • Today in 1982, Pope John Paul II canonized ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE, a Polish conventual Franciscan who gave his life in exchange for that of a husband and father in the Nazi camp at Auschwitz, Poland.

✠ We Remember: ST. JOHN XXIII (1881-1963): From the moment Pope Francis said, "We declare and define Blesseds John XXIII and John Paul II be saints" and "they are to be venerated as such by the whole church," their October feast days automatically could be celebrated at Masses around the world. St. John's feast day is Oct. 11, the anniversary of the day in 1962 that he opened the Second Vatican Council. St. John Paul's feast day is Oct. 22, the anniversary of the inauguration of his pontificate in 1978. After the two were beatified — Pope John in 2000 and Pope John Paul in 2011 — special Vatican permission was required to publicly celebrate their feast days outside the Diocese of Rome, where they served as bishop and pope, and their home dioceses. Vatican permission also was required to name parishes after them, but with their canonization, that is no longer necessary. (Catholic News Service) St. John XXIII, original name Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli (born November 25, 1881, Sotto il Monte, Italy—died June 3, 1963, Rome; beatified September 3, 2000; canonized April 27, 2014; feast day October 11) one of the most popular popes of all time (reigned 1958–63), who inaugurated a new era in the history of the Roman Catholic Church by his openness to change (aggiornamento), shown especially in his convoking of the Second Vatican Council. He wrote several socially important encyclicals, most notably Pacem in Terris. (www.britannica.com/biography/Saint-John-XXIII)

ST. KENNETH (c. 525 - c. 599). Founder of two monasteries, St. Kenneth was trained to the monastic life under St. Finian of Clonard and St. Cadoc of Wales. He has always been very popular in Ireland, where the city of Kilkenny is named for him. O'Hare Chapel's gracious next door neighbor, Margaret (nee Brady) Gorny, secretary for USAirways, is a Kilkenny native. ✠ ST. MARY DESOLATA TORRES ACOSTA (1826-1887) was a truly great woman born in the poor quarter of Madrid. She tried unsuccessfully to become a Dominican nun; in 1848 she responded to the call of a priest to found an institute for the care of the sick in their own homes. A subsequent priest-director of the young institute (Handmaids of Mary) removed her and appointed another superior in her place, with the result that the institute nearly perished. But after an examination by the bishop, she was reappointed and lived to found 46 houses. She was canonized in 1970. (B) • In 1962, VATICAN II WAS CONVENED, the 21st General Council in Church history. Called by Pope John XXIII, more than 2,860 bishops took part. The Council has had a major effect on all aspects of the Catholic Church. (W) • In 1976, the death of JOAO BOSCO BOURNIER, Jesuit Martyr of Brazil (1917-1976).

✠ We Remember: STS. FELIX & CYPRIAN were two African bishops, leaders of a great multitude of Catholics - the number 4,966 is usually given by historians - who were driven out to starvation and death in the Sahara desert by the Arian Vandal king, Hunneric, about the year 484. We have the account of their sufferings from Victor of Utica, a contemporary writer. (B) • In 1954, the death of Frances Caryll Houselander in London, England. Author of many spiritual works and books for children, she also did counseling for people referred to her by priests.

✠ We Remember: ST. EDWARD THE CONFESSOR (1003-1066), Saxon king of England, is called the confessor because of his Christian piety: "one who became a witness to Christ by his holy life." Son of King Ethelred the Unready, Edward became king in 1042. Considerate, just, gentle and unselfish, his reign was one of peace, prosperity and good government. Given to prayer and hunting, he built St. Peter's Abbey on the site of what is now Westminster Abbey in London, where he was buried. Canonized in 1161, his relics were solemnly enshrined on Oct. 13, 1162, and although removed for a time at the Reformation, remain almost undisturbed since then behind the high altar of the abbey. (B) • In 1720, the birth of Jesuit Fr. Ferdinand Farmer in Wurttemberg, Germany. A missionary to the U.S. colonies, he established the first Catholic Church in New York City. (W)
