BEARING THE RIGHT KIND OF FRUIT

Today's readings focus our attention on vineyards. Isaiah's song concerning at 773-686-2636.

his friend's vineyard begins with inspiring and poetic images of an idyllic vineyard where the choicest harvest is expected. Instead, the vineyard yields wild grapes, which causes the owner to abandon it. The psalmist cries out to God, asking that God once again take care of the vineyard, which is the house of Israel. The parable told in today's Gospel offers a stern warning that those who commit treachery in the hopes of attaining personal wealth will be "put . . . to a wretched death" (Matthew 21:41). Jesus warns his listeners not to act like the murderous tenants in the vineyard. Instead he exhorts them to produce the kind of fruit that will lead them to the kingdom of God. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TODAY'S READINGS

Second Reading - God's peace will guard your hearts and minds (Philippians 4:6-9). Gospel – The kingdom of God will be given to those who will produce its fruit (Matthew 21:33-43)

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Before long, as we've seen, the four newly constructed Eucharistic Prayers became two. The old Roman Canon faded away into relative disuse after 1600 unbroken years, sometimes heard only at Christmas Midnight Mass or the Easter Vigil. The new Eucharistic Prayer IV, at least in its English form, grates a bit on most hearers, and besides is meant only for Ordinary Time. The reconstruction of the ancient prayer of Hippolytus, Eucharistic Prayer II, is the most familiar, but its brevity sometimes creates an imbalance with the Liturgy of the Word. No wonder that as soon as the creative juices began to flow at the Vatican, people worldwide were trying their hands at new pravers.

In 1967, even before the final shape of the new Mass was announced, bishops were asking to adapt that celebration for the needs of children. They wanted to clarify what ought to happen when large numbers of children are at Mass: what could be adapted, omitted, or shortened. Experimentation had already begun. Separate Liturgies of the Word for children were by this time commonplace in Holland and elsewhere in Europe. Catechists were saying that many of our liturgical forms were too complex for the children in their charge, and priests were making adaptations on their own. Clearly, the Vatican had to take this seriously.

We Remember: ST. SIMEON (1ST C.) He was the aged man mentioned in St. Luke's Gospel who took Jesus into his arms and prophesied about Him when He was presented at the Temple. He uttered a beautiful canticle about Our Lord and told Our Lady that a sword would pierce her soul. (V) In 1986, the Vatican took part in the Christian-Marxist World Conference on Ethics, which opened this day in Budapest, Hungary. (W) ■ In 1989, the death of journalist PENNY LERNOUX (1940-1989) just one month after being diagnosed with cancer. She helped tell the story of the Church in Latin America. Two weeks before her death she wrote, "I feel like I'm walking down a new path. It's not a physical fear or fear of death, because the courageous poor in Latin America have taught me a theology of life that, through solidarity and our common struggle, transcends death. Rather, it is a sense of helplessness - that I who always wanted to be the champion of the poor am just as helpless - that I, too, must hold out my begging bowl; that I must learn - am learning - the ultimate powerlessness of Christ. It is a cleansing experience. So many things seem less important, or not at all, especially my ambitions.' Through her writings, especially her landmark history of the suffering church of Latin America, Cry of the People, she became a critical link between the churches of the Americas. (AS)

We Remember: ST. DENIS, the first bishop of Paris, who was beheaded about the year 250 (with companions RUSTICUS and ELEUTHERIUS), during the persecution of Decius. Above his tomb on the outskirts of Paris rose the great Benedictine Abbey of St. Denis, later the place of burial for the kings of France. Born in Italy and sent to evangelize Gaul (modern France), Denis is the highly venerated patron of Paris. (S,B,G)

* ST. JOHN LEONARDI (1541-1609), one of the founders of an institute for educating and aiding foreign missioners, the College for the Propagation of the Faith (Collegium Urbanum de Propaganda Fide) in Rome. Born in Lucca, Italy, and educated as a pharmacist, he left that profession at age 25 to study for the priesthood. He worked with great zeal in prisons and hospitals. (S,B) In 1845, the conversion of JOHN HENRY CARDINAL NEWMAN to the Roman Catholic Church, the culmination of almost 30 years of searching for the truth, much of it under a firm conviction that the Catholic Church was a great evil and something to be avoided with dread. He was ordained an Anglican priest in 1825; about 1832 he accompanied a sick friend on a health tour of the Mediterranean area and became seriously ill himself. Convalescing in Sicily, he made trips to many Catholic shrines and churches in southern Europe, leading Fr. Newman to write his renowned poem Lead Kindly Light and to begin rethinking his position on the Catholic Church. Passionist Fr. Dominic Barberi received Newman into the Catholic Church along with a group of his followers. Two years after his conversion, he was ordained a Catholic priest and went on to world fame as a Catholic apologist, theologian, and cardinal.

★ We Remember: ST. FRANCIS BORGIA (1510-1572), one of the greatest saints of the Catholic Counter-Reformation, was born to the noble family of de Borja in the kingdom of Aragon (modern Spain). Reared at the Court of Charles V, he married very young; when his wife died, he distributed his vast estates and titles among his children and joined the Society of Jesus, eventually becoming its General. Under him, the Jesuits spread throughout Europe and the foreign missions. The austere Francis was courteous, refined, kind, humble and generous, yet most determined and enterprising. He died while traveling on a mission for his great friend, Pope Pius V, who died the same year. (B,D) ● Today in 1710, the birth of ALBAN BUTLER, priest and hagiographer (1710-1773), who did more than any modern writer to stimulate devotion to the saints. (AS) ● Today in 1982, Pope John Paul II canonized ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE, a Polish conventual Franciscan who gave his life in exchange for that of a husband and father in the Nazi camp at Auschwitz, Poland.

We Remember: ST. KENNETH (c. 525 - c. 599). Founder of two monasteries, St. Kenneth was trained to the monastic life under St. Finian of Clonard and St. Cadoc of Wales. He has always been very popular in Ireland, where the city of Kilkenny is named for him. O'Hare Chapel's gracious next door neighbor, Margaret (nee Brady) Gorny, secretary for USAirways, is a Kilkenny native. # ST. MARY DESO-LATA TORRES ACOSTA (1826-1887) was a truly great woman born in the poor quarter of Madrid. She tried unsuccessfully to become a Dominican nun; in 1848 she responded to the call of a priest to found an institute for the care of the sick in their own homes. A subsequent priestdirector of the young institute (Handmaids of Mary) removed her and appointed another superior in her place, with the result that the institute nearly perished. But after an examination by the bishop, she was reappointed and lived to found 46 houses. She was canonized in 1970. (B) • IN 1962, VATICAN II WAS CONVENED, the 21st General Council in Church history. Called by Pope John XXIII, more than 2,860 bishops took part. The Council has had a major effect on all aspects of the Catholic Church. (W) • In 1976, the death of JOAO BOSCO BOURNIER, Jesuit Martyr of Brazil (1917-1976).

★ We Remember: STS. FELIX & CYPRIAN were two African bishops, leaders of a great multitude of Catholics - the number 4,966 is usually given by historians - who were driven out to starvation and death in the Sahara desert by the Arian Vandal king, Hunneric, about the year 484. We have the account of their sufferings from Victor of Utica, a contemporary writer. (B)

• In 1954, the death of Frances Caryll Houselander in London, England. Author of many spiritual works and books for children, she also did counseling for people referred to her by priests.

★ We Remember: ST. EDWARD THE CONFESSOR (1003-1066), Saxon king of England, is called the confessor because of his Christian piety: "one who became a witness to Christ by his holy life." Son of King Ethelred the Unready, Edward became king in 1042. Considerate, just, gentle and unselfish, his reign was one of peace, prosperity and good government. Given to prayer and hunting, he built St. Peter's Abbey on the site of what is now Westminster Abbey in London, where he was buried. Canonized in 1161, his relics were solemnly enshrined on Oct. 13, 1162, and although removed for a time at the Reformation, remain almost undisturbed since then behind the high altar of the abbey. (B) ● In 1720, the birth of Jesuit Fr. Ferdinand Farmer in Wurttemburg, Germany. A missionary to the U.S. colonies, he established the first Catholic Church in New York City. (W)

We Remember: ST. CALLISTUS, or CALIXTUS, POPE AND MARTYR (c. 222). A Christian slave of Rome, Callistus was made deacon by his friend and counselor, Pope St. Zephyhrinus, whom he succeeded as pope in 217. For his forgiving and tolerant attitude toward repentant sinners, he incurred the wrath of the rigorists - notably Hippolytus, Tertullian and Novatian. As deacon he had supervised the Christian cemetery on the Appian Way, which is still known by his name. Honored as a martyr, it is said he was drowned in a well on the site of Santa Maria in Trastevere in Rome, near the Chapel of St. Callistus, which is possibly the successor of one built by today's saint. His actual tomb was discovered in 1960 on the Via Aurelia; the crypt is decorated with later frescos depicting his alleged martyrdom. (B,S,R) • In 1644, birth of William Penn, English Quaker leader, founder of Pennsylvania; "Men are generally more careful," Penn wrote, "of the breed of their horses and dogs than of their children." • In 1656, the Massachusetts General Court passed the first punitive legislation against Quakers in the colony, imposing a 40 shilling fine on anyone harboring a Quaker. • In 1696, the birth of Samuel Johnson, American clergyman, first president of King's College - now Columbia University. • In 1964, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., became the youngest recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize. He donated the entire $54,000 prize money to furthering the causes of the civil rights movement. • In 1983, the National Council of Churches issued the Inclusive Language Lectionary, the first volume of a new, three volume Bible translation designed to eliminate sexist references.
