Opportunities for Spiritual Growth

"What Was Handed On To Me": passing the faith from one generation to the next, Oct. 12, 7 p.m., $10, in Dominican Priory Auditorium, 7200 W. Division, River Forest, (708) 714-9105. Melissa Musick Nussbaum and Anna Keating, a mother-daughter team, are both religious educators and widely published essayists on spirituality. In a time when "delegate" and "outsourcing" are common verbs, there are still some things that can only be done by hand, handed from one person to another. As St. Paul writes to the church at Corinth, "For I handed on to you as of first importance what I also received..." It is human work on a human scale, giving over what can only be modeled, not compelled, taught, and not directed from a distance. Parenting and faith formation have that in common; they are labors, done by hand and in person.

Lost Child Pilgrimage: a sacred journey of loss, healing and hope, Oct. 16, 9 a.m.-1 p.m., 8:30 a.m. check-in, coffee, liturgy 9:15 a.m., talks by Fr. Richard Fragomeni, author Maggie Kast, and others, $20/before Oct. 12, at Shrine of Our Lady of Pompeii, 1224 Lexington, call (312) 421-3757 to RSVP, info.

If we have died with [Christ Jesus] we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him. — 2 Timothy 2:11-12a

GOD REVEALED TO THE NATIONS

Our extended lesson in discipleship continues this weekend with a focus on the centrality of thanksgiving to the Christian life. We hear stories of foreigners who experience the healing, cleansing power of the God of Israel and give the Lord thanks. In today's episode from the book of Kings the prophet Elisha cures a foreigner named Naaman of his leprosy. Naaman returns to thank Elisha and pledges to worship only the God of Israel from that day forward. The Gospel presents the story of the cleansing of ten lepers. It is the Samaritan—also a foreigner—who returns to give Jesus thanks and give God glory and praise. "The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power," sings the psalmist. "Sing joyfully to the Lord . . . Sing praise" (Psalm 98:2, 4). © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

SAINT TERESA OF JESUS (1515-1582) October 15

Let nothing disturb you; let nothing frighten you. Gifted with a passionate spirit, young Teresa dreamed of converting Muslims and becoming a martyr. All things are passing; God never changes. But her mother's death when Teresa was fourteen inspired lifelong devotion to Our Lady, and Teresa entered the Carmelites, Mary's order, despite her father's objections and her own fragile health. Patience gains everything. Initially, she enjoyed her lax convent's sociability and "busyness," but mystical prayer and John of the Cross' collaboration inspired her to reform the Carmelites. Whoever has God, lacks nothing. When her ideals encountered resistance and brought suffering, she maintained her peace—and humor. Discovered devouring leftovers, she told her mildly scandalized nuns, "When I fast, I fast! When I eat, I eat!" To nuns demanding less work and more prayer in the convent schedule, she retorted: "What we really need around here are fewer stary eyes and more strong arms!" God alone is enough! The italicized sentences here are her "Breviary Bookmark," the simple, profound prayer of Teresa, the first woman Doctor of the Church. —Peter Scagnelli, © Copyright, J. This Week in the Life of the Church

Being a compendium of feast days and notable events in Church history.

✚ We Remember: ST. FRANCIS BORGIA (1510-1572), one of the greatest saints of the Catholic Counter-Reformation, was born to the noble family of de Borja in the kingdom of Aragon (modern Spain). Reared at the Court of Charles V, he married very young; when his wife died, he distributed his vast estates and titles among his children and joined the Society of Jesus, eventually becoming its General. Under him, the Jesuits spread throughout Europe and the foreign missions. The austere Francis was courteous, refined, kind, humble and generous, yet most determined and enterprising. He died while traveling on a mission for his great friend, Pope Pius V, who died the same year. (B,D) • Today in 1710, the birth of ALBAN BUTLER, priest and hagiographer (1710-1773), who did more than any modern writer to stimulate devotion to the saints. (AS) • Today in 1982, Pope John Paul II canonized ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE, a Polish conventual Franciscan who gave his life in exchange for that of a husband and father in the Nazi camp at Auschwitz, Poland.

Monday, October 11, 2010

✚ We Remember: ST. KENNETH (c. 525 - c. 599). Founder of two monasteries, St. Kenneth was trained to the monastic life under St. Finian of Clonard and St. Cadoc of Wales. He has always been very popular in Ireland, where the city of Kilkenny is named for him. ✚ ST. MARY DESOLATA TORRES ACOSTA (1826-1887) was a truly great woman born in the poor quarter of Madrid. She tried unsuccessfully to become a Dominican nun; in 1848 she responded to the call of a priest to found an institute for the care of the sick in their own homes. A subsequent priest-director of the young institute (Handmaids of Mary) removed her and appointed another superior in her place, with the result that the institute nearly perished. But after an examination by the bishop, she was reappointed and lived to found 46 houses. She was canonized in 1970. (B) • In 1962, VATICAN II WAS CONVENED, the 21st General Council in Church history. Called by Pope John XXIII, more than 2,860 bishops took part. The Council has had a major effect on all aspects of the Catholic Church. (W) • In 1976, the death of JOAO BOSCO BOURNIER, Jesuit Martyr of Brazil (1917-1976).

Tuesday, October 12, 2010

✚ We Remember: Ss. FELIX & CYPRIAN were two African bishops, leaders of a great multitude of Catholics - the number 4,966 is usually given by historians - who were driven out to starvation and death in the Sahara desert by the Arian Vandal king, Hunneric, about the year 484. We have the account of their sufferings from Victor of Utica, a contemporary writer. (B) • In 1954, the death of Frances Caryll Houselander in London, England. Author of many spiritual works and books for children, she also did counseling for people referred to her by priests.

Wednesday, October 13, 2010

✚ We Remember: ST. EDWARD THE CONFESSOR (1003-1066), Saxon king of England, is called the confessor because of his Christian piety: "one who became a witness to Christ by his holy life." Son of King Ethelred the Unready, Edward became king in 1042. Considerate, just, gentle and unselfish, his reign was one of peace, prosperity and good government. Given to prayer and hunting, he built St. Peter's Abbey on the site of what is now Westminster Abbey in London, where he was buried. Canonized in 1161, his relics were solemnly enshrined on Oct. 13, 1162, and although removed for a time at the Reformation, remain almost undisturbed since then behind the high altar of the abbey. (B) • In 1720, the birth of

Jesuit Fr. Ferdinand Farmer in Wurttemberg, Germany. A missionary to the U.S. colonies, he established the first Catholic Church in New York City. (W)

✠ We Remember: ST. CALLISTUS, or CALIXTUS, POPE AND MARTYR (c. 222). A Christian slave of Rome, Callistus was made deacon by his friend and counselor, Pope St. Zephyrinus, whom he succeeded as pope in 217. For his forgiving and tolerant attitude toward repentant sinners, he incurred the wrath of the rigorists - notably Hippolytus, Tertullian and Novatian. As deacon he had supervised the Christian cemetery on the Appian Way, which is still known by his name. Honored as a martyr, it is said he was drowned in a well on the site of Santa Maria in Trastevere in Rome, near the Chapel of St. Callistus, which is possibly the successor of one built by today's saint. His actual tomb was discovered in 1960 on the Via Aurelia; the crypt is decorated with later frescos depicting his alleged martyrdom. (B,S,R) • In 1644, birth of William Penn, English Quaker leader, founder of Pennsylvania; "Men are generally more careful," Penn wrote, "of the breed of their horses and dogs than of their children." • In 1656, the Massachusetts General Court passed the first punitive legislation against Quakers in the colony, imposing a 40 shilling fine on anyone harboring a Quaker. • In 1696, the birth of Samuel Johnson, American clergyman, first president of King's College - now Columbia University. • In 1964, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., became the youngest recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize. He donated the entire $54,000 prize money to furthering the causes of the civil rights movement. • In 1983, the National Council of Churches issued the Inclusive Language Lectionary, the first volume of a new, three volume Bible translation designed to eliminate sexist references.

✠ We Remember: Mystic, founder of the Discalced Carmelites, and first woman Doctor of the Church, ST. TERESA OF AVILA (1515-1582) was born Teresa de Cepeda y Ahumada near Avila, Spain. Her large family was of Jewish ancestry. At the age of 20, Teresa entered the Carmelite monastery of the Incarnation at Avila. Though Teresa led a prayerful life during the next two decades, she felt that she had not surrendered fully to God and later commented that she had not felt fully alive. In 1554, while praying before a statue of the wounded Christ, she underwent a profound conversion. Inspired by the memory of 13th century Carmelites, Teresa founded her first reform convent of Carmelite nuns in 1562 at Avila (poverty and enclosure had grown lax in the convent she entered). From that year until her death 20 years later, she was always on the move, opening new houses, smoothing away difficulties for her nuns, placating those in authority (both clerical and lay), who often fiercely opposed her and called her the "roving nun". (During her lifetime, she opened 15 new foundations of Carmelite nuns of the strict observance directly and 17 through others.)

Also in 1562, Teresa composed the first draft of her autobiographical Life, which included a nearly independent treatise on the growth of mystical prayer using the imagery of water. This work was followed in 1566 by The Way of Perfection and Meditations on the Song of Songs. The next year, 1567, Teresa met for the first time the newly ordained John of Mathias (later known as St. John of the Cross), whom Teresa convinced to remain a Carmelite and to collaborate in her reform of the order. Although she and John act in the tradition as complements and interpreters of one another, Jerome Gracian was her closest friend among the friars. In 1568, Teresa saw to the inauguration of the first of the reform houses of the friars at Duruelo, and in 1577 she began the composition of her masterpiece, The Interior Castle, a disguised autobiography in the third person while her Life was in the hands of the Inquisition. For Teresa the test of growth in the mystical life is love of neighbor. She stressed the importance of rooting prayer in Christ, and she emphasized the wholly gifted nature of the mystical life. Profoundly contemplative with regular manifestations of mystical phenomena, she was a spiritual adviser to countless people, as her warm and informative letters show; in fact, these letters reveal her lively and down-to-earth personality. This Spanish mystic has a strong ecclesial sense. She died saying: "Finally, Lord, I am a daughter of the Church." Modern writers find Teresa's spirituality a complement to that of St. Ignatius of Loyola (d. 1556). She died at nine in the evening of Oct. 4, 1582; the very next day, the Gregorian reform of the calendar came into force and ten days were dropped, so that it was accounted Oct. 15, the date on which her feast was ultimately fixed. St. Teresa was beatified in 1614 and canonized in 1622. Named a Doctor of the Church by Pope Paul VI on Sept. 27, 1970, St. Teresa is the saint of sound common sense, of sane good humor, of generous ideals, and her influence on the spiritual lives of Christians of all denominations is immeasurable. She is also the patron saint of Spain. Her message to us is, "We need no wings to go in search of Him, but have only to find a place where we can be alone - and look upon Him present within us, said St. Teresa. (C - Keith J. Egan; S, B, L)

✠ We Remember: ST. HEDWIG (1174-1243); ST. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE (1647-1690), and BL. MARGUERITE D'YOUVILLE all share this feast day. St. Hedwig was a Polish noblewoman who lived a life of remarkable humility, caring for the poor and sick. She was educated in a monastery of Benedictine nuns, where she developed a love for Scripture, and by the age of 12, she married Henry I, with whom she had seven children.

GENEROUS IN GIVING most of her income to charity, St. Hedwig prevailed upon her husband to found a monastery of Cistercian nuns at Trebnitz, and she retired there when her husband died. She died Oct. 15, 1243, and was canonized in 1267. (S) ✠ ST. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE, born in Burgundy, joined the Visitation Order in 1671, and though suffering greatly due to health problems, she made her profession the following year. From a revelation made to her by our Lord in 1675, she was led to enter upon her work, the spreading of public and liturgical devotion to the Sacred Heart. The Lord also asked her to receive Communion on the first Friday of each month and to make reparation for the sins committed against him. St. Margaret Mary suffered much opposition until a friend of hers became superior; thus on June 21, 1686, the feast of the Sacred Heart was celebrated in the convent for the first time. St. Margaret Mary died Oct. 17, 1690, and was canonized in 1920. Ultimately, in 1856, the feast was extended to the universal Church by Pope Pius XI, and raised to a solemnity in 1929. In 1873, France was consecrated to the Sacred Heart, and the basilica of Sacre Couer was built in the Montmarte district of Paris. ✠ Oct. 16 is also the feast of BL. MARGUERITE D'YOUVILLE, wife and mother, foundress of the Grey Nuns, who died in 1771. • Today in 1978, the first non-Italian pope in 456 years, Cardinal Karol Wojtyla of Poland, was elected.
