ALL SOULS DAY PURGATORIAL SOCIETY

→ A special Purgatorial Society Mass will be celebrated on All Souls Day, Friday, Nov. 2, by the Catholic Chaplaincies at O'Hare & Midway Airport Chapels. "All Souls Day Remembrance" envelopes are available on the side tables for you to list those you wish to be remembered on the Feast of All Souls, which commemorates all the Faithful Departed and is a day of memorials and remembrance. "From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic Sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God." (Catholic Catechism, 1032). November 2nd, indeed the entire month, is a time when we pray for the souls of the dead.

The word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword. — Hebrews 4:12a

WORDS OF WISDOM

The spirit of wisdom, as we discover in today's first reading, comes to those who pray for her. Wisdom, like the word of God, carries a message of consolation as well as of great challenge. The Letter to the Hebrews tells us that the word of God, infused with the wisdom of God, is "sharper than any two-edged sword." We cannot shrink from the wisdom of God, or from the word that has the power to penetrate our hearts and minds. Jesus, the living word of God, the embodiment of wisdom, has strong, deeply penetrating words for the rich young man who comes to him seeking answers to his most profound questions. Just when the young man thought he had done enough to fulfill God's commands, more was asked of him. This is no less true for us. Copyright © J.S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. (Wisdom 7:7-11). Psalm — Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy! (Psalm 90). Second Reading — Indeed the word of God is living and effective (Hebrews 4:12-13). Gospel — It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God (Mark 10:17-30 [17-27]).

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

- Monday: Gal 4:22-24, 26-27, 31 — 5:1; Ps 113:1b-5a, 6-7; Lk 11:29-32
- Tuesday: Gal 5:1-6; Ps 119:41, 43-45, 47-48; Lk 11:37-41
- Wednesday: Gal 5:18-25; Ps 1:1-4, 6; Lk 11:42-46
- Thursday: 2 Tm 4:10-17b; Ps 145:10-13, 17-18; Lk 10:1-9
- Friday: Eph 1:11-14; Ps 33:1-2, 4-5, 12-13; Lk 12:1-7
- Saturday: Eph 1:15-23; Ps 8:2-3ab, 4-7; Lk 12:8-12
- Sunday: Is 53:10-11; Ps 33:4-5, 18-20; Heb 4:14-16; Mk 10:35-45 [42-45]

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

They say that it is not so much that Columbus discovered America, but rather that after he arrived, the new world "stayed discovered." The sponsorship of Ferdinand and Isabella assured that the news would flash around Europe with an air of authority that other "discoverers" lacked. One of the oft-mentioned early visitors is Saint Brendan the Navigator, a sixth-century Irish monk who had trouble staying at home. He is said to have sailed to "the Isle of the Blessed" in a leather-bound boat, and to have been away from his monastery for seven years. Upon his return, the stories of adventures to a new land attracted pilgrims to his monastery in the Basket Islands, off the west coast of Ireland. Columbus is said to have referred to The Voyage of Saint Brendan, a very popular adventure in those days. Only after his American journey is Brendan said to have gone to tamer lands to the east, England and Scotland.

In 1976, Tim Severin set out on a two-year voyage to America from Ireland in a leather-bound boat, traveling in summer and hopscoching from the Faroes to Iceland to Newfoundland, and encountering along the way exactly what Saint Brendan describes: icebergs, whales, and porpoises. Scholars warn not to dismiss this too quickly: just as the ancient Egyptian monks sought to live in the desert, for the Celtic monks exile in a boat was the Irish equivalent. Five centuries after Brendan, other Irish monks may have visited here as a refuge from Viking terror. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J.S. Paluch Co.

✠ We Remember: ST. CALLISTUS, or CALIXTUS, POPE AND MARTYR (c. 222). A Christian slave of Rome, Callistus was made deacon by his friend and counselor, Pope St. Zephyrinus, whom he succeeded as pope in 217. For his forgiving and tolerant attitude toward repentant sinners, he incurred the wrath of the rigorists - notably Hippolytus, Tertullian and Novatian. As deacon he had supervised the Christian cemetery on the Appian Way, which is still known by his name. Honored as a martyr, it is said he was drowned in a well on the site of Santa Maria in Trastevere in Rome, near the Chapel of St. Callistus, which is possibly the successor of one built by today's saint. His actual tomb was discovered in 1960 on the Via Aurelia; the crypt is decorated with later frescos depicting his alleged martyrdom. (B,S,R) • In 1644, birth of William Penn, English Quaker leader, founder of Pennsylvania; "Men are generally more careful," Penn wrote, "of the breed of their horses and dogs than of their children." • In 1656, the Massachusetts General Court passed the first punitive legislation against Quakers in the colony, imposing a 40 shilling fine on anyone harboring a Quaker. • In 1696, the birth of Samuel Johnson, American clergyman, first president of King's College - now Columbia University. • In 1964, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., became the youngest recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize. He donated the entire $54,000 prize money to furthering the causes of the civil rights movement.

✠ We Remember: Mystic, founder of the Discalced Carmelites, and first woman Doctor of the Church, ST. TERESA OF AVILA (1515-1582) was born Teresa de Cepeda y Ahumada near Avila, Spain. Her large family was of Jewish ancestry. At the age of 20, Teresa entered the Carmelite monastery of the Incarnation at Avila. Though Teresa led a prayerful life during the next two decades, she felt that she had not surrendered fully to God and later commented that she had not felt fully alive. In 1554, while praying before a statue of the wounded Christ, she underwent a profound conversion. Inspired by the memory of 13th century Carmelites, Teresa founded her first reform convent of Carmelite nuns in 1562 at Avila (poverty and enclosure had grown lax in the convent she entered). From that year until her death 20 years later, she was always on the move, opening new houses, smoothing away difficulties for her nuns, placating those in authority (both clerical and lay), who often fiercely opposed her and called her the "roving nun". (During her lifetime, she opened 15 new foundations of Carmelite nuns of the strict observance directly and 17 through others.)

Also in 1562, Teresa composed the first draft of her autobiographical Life, which included a nearly independent treatise on the growth of mystical prayer using the imagery of water. This work was followed in 1566 by The Way of Perfection and Meditations on the Song of Songs. The next year, 1567, Teresa met for the first time the newly ordained John of Matthias (later known as St. John of the Cross), whom Teresa convinced to remain a Carmelite and to collaborate in her reform of the order. Although she and John act in the tradition as complements and interpreters of one another, Jerome Gracian was her closest friend among the friars. In 1568, Teresa saw to the inauguration of the first of the reform houses of the friars at Duruelo, and in 1577 she began the composition of her masterpiece, The Interior Castle, a disguised autobiography in the third person while her Life was in the hands of the Inquisition.

For Teresa the test of growth in the mystical life is love of neighbor. She stressed the importance of rooting prayer in Christ, and she emphasized the wholly gifted nature of the mystical life. Profoundly contemplative with regular manifestations of mystical phenomena, she was a spiritual adviser to countless people, as her warm and informative letters show; in fact, these letters reveal her lively and down-to-earth personality. This Spanish mystic has a strong ecclesial sense. She died saying: "Finally, Lord, I am a daughter of the Church." Modern writers find Teresa's spirituality a complement to that of St. Ignatius of Loyola (d. 1556). She died at nine in the evening of Oct. 4, 1582; the very next day, the Gregorian reform of the calendar came into force and ten days were dropped, so that it was accounted Oct. 15, the date on which her feast was ultimately fixed. St. Teresa was beatified in 1614 and canonized in 1622. Named a Doctor of the Church by Pope Paul VI on Sept. 27, 1970, St. Teresa is the saint of sound common sense, of sane good humor, of generous ideals, and her influence on the spiritual lives of Christians of all denominations is immeasurable. She is also the patron saint of Spain. Her message to us is, "We need no wings to go in search of Him, but have only to find a place where we can be alone - and look upon Him present within us, said St. Teresa. (C - Keith J. Egan; S, B, L)

✠ We Remember: ST. HEDWIG (1174-1243); ST. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE (1647-1690), and BL. MARGUERITE D'YOUVILLE all share this feast day. St. Hedwig was a Polish noblewoman who lived a life of remarkable humility, caring for the poor and sick. She was educated in a monastery of Benedictine nuns, where she developed a love for Scripture, and by the age of 12, she married Henry I, with whom she had seven children.

GENEROUS IN GIVING most of her income to charity, St. Hedwig prevailed upon her husband to found a monastery of Cistercian nuns at Trebnitz, and she retired there when her husband died. She died Oct. 15, 1243, and was canonized in 1267.(S)

✠ ST. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE, born in Burgundy, joined the Visitation Order in 1671, and though suffering greatly due to health problems, she made her profession the following year. From a revelation made to her by our Lord in 1675, she was led to enter upon her work, the spreading of public and liturgical devotion to the Sacred Heart. The Lord also asked her to receive Communion on the first Friday of each month and to make reparation for the sins committed against him. St. Margaret Mary suffered much opposition until a friend of hers became superior; thus on June 21, 1686, the feast of the Sacred Heart was celebrated in the convent for the first time. St. Margaret Mary died Oct. 17, 1690, and was canonized in 1920. Ultimately, in 1856, the feast was extended to the universal Church by Pope Pius XI, and raised to a solemnity in 1929. In 1873, France was consecrated to the Sacred Heart, and the basilica of Sacre Couer was built in the Montmartre district of Paris. ✠ Oct. 16 is also the feast of BL. MARGUERITE D'YOUVILLE, wife and mother, foundress of the Grey Nuns, who died in 1771. • Today in 1978, the first non-Italian pope in 456 years, Cardinal Karol Wojtyla of Poland, was elected.

✠ We Remember: "Where the bishop is, there is the Christian community, just as where Christ is, there is the Catholic Church," said ST. IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH (50-107?). He was the third bishop of Antioch, which had once been the scene of Peter's ministry; it is the city in which Christians were first called by that name. In addition, St. Ignatius is thought to be the first person to speak of the Church as "the Catholic Church". He was a prolific writer and suffered martyrdom in the Coliseum, devoured by two fierce lions. (S,D)

Thursday, October 18, 2018

✠ We Remember: ST. LUKE the Evangelist was a Greek of Antioch and a physician by profession, who became a fellow worker of St. Paul and remained with him till the great apostle's martyrdom. St. Luke wrote the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles. He died a natural death at age 84. He is the patron of doctors, together with Cosmas and Damian, and also of painters, because he is said to have painted an icon of the Blessed Virgin Mary. St. Luke rejected the concept of Christianity as a religion for the elite and insisted that Jesus is the friend of publicans and sinners. He presents the Church as a community in which all things are shared in common. (S,B)

✠ We Remember: ST. ISAAC JOGUES (1607-1646); ST. JOHN DE BREBUEF (1593-1649) AND COMPANIONS; ST. PAUL OF THE CROSS (1694-1775). Between 1642 and 1649, eight French Jesuit missionaries became the first Martyrs of North America. They were the first missionaries to go to Canada following its discovery by the Europeans in 1534. They preached the gospel to the Iroquois and Huron Indians, and after being tortured, they were martyred in the area of what is now Auriesville, New York. Ten years after the martyrdom of St. Isaac Jogues, St. Kateri Tekawitha was born in the same village in which he died. These martyrs are co-patrons of Canada. (S)

✠ ST. PAUL OF THE CROSS, founder of the Passionists, was inspired by a series of visions to found a religious order dedicated to the passion of Our Lord, and did so in 1720. The first general chapter was held in 1747. Born near Genoa of a family of merchants, St. Paul from his youth had been a devout Christian and practiced austerity. Ultimately he was ordained a priest in 1727, along with his brother, in St. Peter's Basilica, by Pope Benedict XIII. He died in 1775 at the age of 80. (B,S) ✠ Today, Oct. 19, is also the anniversary of the death of ST. PHILIP HOWARD in 1595 in London. One of the 40 Martyrs of England and Wales, he was the Earl of Arundel and son of the Duke of Norfolk. He was raised a Protestant and graduated from Cambridge University. He was also married, in an arrangement made for him at age 12, to Anne Dacres. In 1581, he heard a debate between the future Jesuit saint and martyr, EDWARD CAMPION, and a group of Protestant theologians. He was so impressed by Fr. Campion's learning and zeal that he and his wife converted to Catholicism. Philip had been serving in the Court of Queen Elizabeth I and, being one of her favorite courtiers, the news of his conversion caused a great uproar and vows of vengeance. Obeying a government order to make a diplomatic visit, the couple left for Europe. The order was a ruse. An enraged Queen Elizabeth had Philip arrested at sea and returned to London. He would never see his wife again nor the son she bore him after his imprisonment. He was sentenced to death for the treason of praying that Spain would conquer England. The sentence was never carried out. St. Philip languished in prison for ten years before dying of the harsh regimen. He was 38. (W)

✠ We Remember: ST. BERTILLA BOSCARDIN (1888-1922), a humble farm girl born in Northern Italy, she became a nun (a member of a religious congregation called Teachers of St. Dorothy, Daughters of the Sacred Hearts) and attained such heights of sanctity that she became a canonized saint in 1961. She earnestly devoted her life of obedience to the service of the sick and of children.
