twenty-ninth sUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 21, 2018

Through his suffering, my servant shall justify many. — Isaiah 53:11b

TOO MUCH INFORMATION!

There is a common expression: "Too much information!" We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don't want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as he often does, Jesus answers a question with a question; today it's about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John's outrageous request, he proceeds to give them what may have been "too much information" for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem "too much" for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information. It is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — My servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear (Isaiah 53:10-11). Psalms — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33). Second Reading — Let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help (Hebrews 4:14-16). Gospel — Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all (Mark 10:35-45 [42-45]).

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

- Monday: Eph 2:1-10; Ps 100:1b-5; Lk 12:13-21
Tuesday: Eph 2:12-22; Ps 85:9ab-14; Lk 12:35-38
Wednesday: Eph 3:2-12; Is 12:2-3, 4bcd-6; Lk 12:39-48

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As election campaigns move into high gear, sometimes the phrase "the Catholic vote" is heard. It's an interesting concept, since Catholics started out in this country as a very fragile group: fewer than forty thousand of us at the time of the first census in 1790, and only about 2 percent of the population by 1830. It was a priestless church for all intents and purposes, lay-led clusters of Catholics waiting patiently for the occasional visit of a priest, sustained by gathering when they could on Sunday for devotional prayer like litanies and the rosary. They tried to hold on to their ancestral faith as best they could. Archbishop Jean-Louis Cheverus told one family in Maine to "every day say your prayers on your knees with affection, and every Sunday gather to hear the Gospel, to pray in common, and to quiz the children on the catechism."

Inevitably, some became Protestant, but many more stayed Catholic from generation to generation, with very little encouragement or sacramental ministry from the clergy. Archbishop John Carroll, the first American bishop, tried to make Church law flexible: shortening the length of the fast before Communion, easing the Lenten fast, and even relaxing the rule of Sabbath rest at harvest time. Catholicism in England had been quietly sustained in this way for two centuries, and the first American Catholics carried on as had their ancestors, providing a fertile soil for the unprecedented success and phenomenal growth of the Church in our country.

this week in the life of the church - feast days and notable events in church history

Sunday, October 21, 2018

✠ We Remember: ST. HILARION (c.291-371) was an Abbot, Hermit and Ascetic, a fascinating desert saint whose biography was written by St. Jerome in 391. Hilarion patterned his life after St. Anthony of Egypt, with whom he stayed for several months. He later returned to Palestine and his home in Gaza, where he began his hermitage. The simplicity and austerity of this desert saint is revealed in his last will and testament, where he bequeathed his riches: "...his book of Gospels, a sackcloth shirt, hood, and a little cloak."

• In 1097, the Crusaders first arrived at Antioch.

Monday, October 22, 2018

✠ We Remember: St. JOHN PAUL II (1920-2005), the first Polish pope and the most widely traveled in the history of the papacy. Karol Jozef Wojtyla was born in Wadowice, Poland, the youngest child of a schoolteacher and a retired army officer. He was an active young man, an athlete and an outdoorsman, whose passions were poetry, philosophy, and the theater. Much of his advanced education was obtained underground after the Nazi invasion of Poland in 1939. He was ordained a priest in 1946, a bishop in 1958, and appointed archbishop of Krakow in 1964. He was elevated to the College of Cardinals in 1967, at 47 its youngest member. When Cardinal Wojtyla was elected the 264th successor of Peter in 1978, he became the youngest pope since Pius IX a hundred years before, the first Polish pope, and the first non-Italian pope since Adrian IV in the 16th century. John Paul circled the globe, logging over a million miles and visiting every continent except Antarctica. He opened dialogues with Protestant denominations; made a pilgrimage to Auschwitz; and visited a Jewish synagogue and a Muslim mosque. He made pilgrimages to Orthodox countries where no pope had ever before set foot. On May 13, 1981, was shot twice at close range while riding in an open automobile in St. Peter's Square at the Vatican. Two other persons also were wounded. An escaped terrorist, Mehmet Ali Agca, was arrested and convicted July 22, 1981. After convalescence, Pope John Paul II was pronounced recovered by his doctors Aug. 14, 1981. He forgave Mehmet, meeting with him in jail. His legacy to the Church includes more than a dozen encyclicals, as well as scores of apostolic letters, constitutions and exhortations. He beatified and canonized more than 1000 men and women from all walks of life and greeted hundreds of millions of the faithful through his travels and papal audiences. He was tireless in his work for the poor and powerless, speaking out against war, economic injustice, political oppression, and what he called the industrialized world's "culture of death." Pope John Paul II's ultimate homily was probably his own life – a life characterized by a charismatic, heartfelt prayer, moral vision, global evangelism, tireless advocacy for human dignity and political and religious freedom, and unshakable faith. He was canonized, with Pope John XXIII, on April 27, 2014.

✠ ST. PHILIP was a bishop of Heraclea near Constantinople; Severus was his deacon; Eusebius and Hermes, two of his clergy. During the persecution of Diocletian, they were all arrested and brought to trial. It was demanded that they should deliver up the sacred books of the church to be burnt. On their refusal, they were taken to Adrianopolis and burnt at the stake (304). There exists a copy of the legal process instituted against them, a document of undeniable authenticity.

✠ In 1967, the Canon of the Mass (the Eucharistic Prayer) was said in English for the first time. It had been said only in Latin for 1400 years.

Tuesday, October 23, 2018

✠ We Remember: People in the United States know that each year, the swallows return to San Juan Capistrano, a mission in California. But who was the man for whom the mission is named? St. John (1386-1456) was born in Capistrano, Italy, and began life as a lawyer, married (but was widowed at age 30), and became governor of Perugia in the Papal States in 1412. Taken prisoner when his province was conquered, John had a vision in which St. Francis of Assisi invited him to enter the Franciscan Order, which he did in 1418, becoming a life-long friend of St. Bernardine of Siena. His whole religious life was spent as a papal legate to various states, including Sicily, Palestine, Milan, France, Austria, Bavaria, Poland, Bohemia and Silesia. He is most remembered for his work in Bohemia, and for the part he played inspiring the heroic resistance of the Hungarians to the Turks, who had conquered Constantinople, attacked the fortress at Belgrade (in 1456), and threatened Europe with onslaught. (B,S,D)

• In 1900, the birth of Valerian Cardinal Gracias in Karachi, Pakistan. He became the first native cardinal of India and was Archbishop of Bombay.

Wednesday, October 24, 2018

✠ We Remember: "When I am before the Blessed Sacrament I feel such a lively faith that I cannot describe it. Christ in the Eucharist is almost tangible to me. To kiss his wounds continually and embrace him. When it is time for me to leave I have to tear myself away from his sacred presence," said St. Anthony Mary Claret (1807-1870). Today's saint started life as a weaver, but entered the priesthood in 1835 and devoted himself to missionary work among the people, helped by a group of priests, whom he formed into the institute of the Missionary Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary - today called the Claretians. Anthony was ordained bishop of Santiago de Cuba, and in 1856 was made confessor to Queen Isabella II and was exiled with her in 1868. Both in Cuba and in Spain he encountered the hostility of the Spanish anti-clerical politicians. He had the gifts of prophecy and miracles. Canonized in 1950. The Claretians today are devoted to missionary, parochial, educational and retreat work. They are the publishers of U.S. Catholic magazine, headquartered in Chicago. ✠ In 1846, St. Vincent Archabbey, the first Benedictine House in the U.S., opened in Latrobe, Pa. Eighteen men were invested in the religious habit. The Archabbey was begun by monks from Bavaria, Germany. (W)

Thursday, October 25, 2018

✠ We Remember: St. Gaudentius (c.410) was a monk at Caesarea in Cappadocia. Gaudentius was recalled to Brescia to succeed St. Philastrius as bishop and was ordained by St. Ambrose (c.387). In 405 he was sent to the East to defend the cause of St. John Chrysostom and was imprisoned near Thrace; he died shortly thereafter. (B,L)

Friday, October 26, 2018

✠ We Remember: St. Evaristus (c.109). Nothing is certain about this very early pope, traditionally of Hellenic-Jewish background. Honored as a martyr, Evaristus followed St. Pope Clement I, serving the Church from c. 100-109. (B) ✠ In 1645, of the deaths of Archbishop Malachy O'Queely, Fr. Tadgh O'Connell, OSA, and Fr. Augustine O'Higin, OSA, near Sligo in Ireland. Archbishop O'Queely was the head of the Archdiocese of Tuam. The two priests were Augustinians, with Fr. O'Connell serving as secretary to the archbishop. All three men murdered by Parliamentarian troops under Oliver Cromwell's persecution of the Irish Church. (W) • In 1987, Pope John Paul II hosted a gathering of world religious figures in Assisi, Italy.

Saturday, October 27, 2018

✠ We Remember: St. Frumentius (c. 380) was a native of Tyre, who in the course of a voyage on the Red Sea, was wrecked on the Ethiopian coast with his brother - St. Aedesius. Everyone on the ship was killed by natives except the brothers, who were taken to the king's palace at Axum, where they were made members of the court, attaining high offices. Frumentius went to Alexandria to ask St. Athanasius to send a missionary to the country he had just left; Athanasius consecrated Frumentius bishop of the Ethiopians and sent him back. Frumentius and Aedesius preached the gospel with great success and are for this reason venerated as the apostles of Ethiopia. Frumentius was called ABUNA (our father) in Ethiopia and to this day, the Ethiopian primate's title is Abuna. (B,P) • In 1553, the execution of Spanish theologian and physician MICHAEL SERVETUS (born 1511), condemned to death for blasphemy on Oct. 26, 1553, and burned at the stake at Geneva, Switzerland, the next day.

• TODAY IN 1882, the birth of MOTHER MARY JOSEPH ROGERS, MM, in Boston. Founder of the Maryknoll Sisters (W)
