NATURAL DISASTER SECOND COLLECTION OCT. 28-29

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On behalf of our brothers and sisters who have been severely affected by Hurricane Harvey and Hurricane Irma, it is my wish to sincerely thank you for the tremendous outpouring of support you have shown them during this challenging time. Banding together to answer the cry of those in need, the Archdiocese of Chicago community has seamlessly partnered with Catholic Charities USA, local parishes, and schools to bring financial, physical, and spiritual aid to those who have lost so much in the Gulf Coast. The September 9-10 collection raised more than $600,000 for these efforts, a true testament to the compassion of the people of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Now it is time once again to stand in solidarity with our brothers and sisters affected by natural disasters that have occurred over the last few weeks, including Hurricane Maria and the earthquakes in Mexico. As requested by the USCCB, all parishes in the Archdiocese of Chicago are invited to take up a second collection at all Masses on the weekend October 28-29. Proceeds from this special collection will support humanitarian and recovery efforts in Mexico and Puerto Rico. There is also an option for your parish to donate directly to these efforts.

To donate, please visit <http://pvm.archchicago.org/hurricane> or mail contributions to the following address. Please make all checks payable to the Natural Disaster Emergency Appeal.

ATTN: Natural Disaster Emergency Appeal
3525 South Lake Park Avenue
Chicago, IL 60653

It is my prayer that we continue to support those affected by these natural disasters through both prayer and action.

With every good wish, I remain, Sincerely yours in Christ,

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich Archbishop of Chicago

THIS WEEK IN THE LIFE OF THE CHURCH - FEAST DAYS AND NOTABLE EVENTS IN CHURCH HISTORY

Sunday, October 29, 2017

✠ We Remember: St. Narcissus (d. 222) was a Greek who was named bishop of Jerusalem in his old age. He imposed strict discipline on his see, and was summoned to the Council of Jerusalem, at which he favored the Roman custom of celebrating Easter. Because of this, he was forced to flee by some of his opponents. He lived as a hermit for several years until the people of Jerusalem persuaded him to return as their bishop. (B,P)

Monday, October 30, 2017

✠ We Remember: ST. ALPHONSUS RODRIGUEZ (1531-1617) was born at Segovia in Spain, became a merchant and married, but lost his wife and children, and at the age of 44 was received into the Society of Jesus. Sent to Majorca, he served as doorkeeper at a college - and in this office he edified the whole island. One of his disciples was the great St. Peter Claver, whom he urged to become the apostle of the Africans enslaved in South America. A sonnet by G.M. Hopkins celebrates his humility. He was canonized in 1888. (B,R)

Tuesday, October 31, 2017

✠ We Remember: ST. WOLFGANG (924-994) was a native of the German province of Swabia; he became a teacher at the school of the Wurzburg Cathedral. In 964, he joined the Benedictines and was later made bishop of Regensburg in Germany by Holy Roman Emperor Otto III. The new bishop was unhappy about giving up his monastic life, but agreed to serve, though he led an austere life. During his tenure, his see included all of Bohemia. Bishop Wolfgang realized that his area was too big for one man to administer and suggested that a new diocese be formed. Thus was the future Archdiocese of Prague begun. St. Wolfgang was canonized in 1052. (W) (B,L) ■ Today is also HALLOWEEN - "All Hallows Eve," the name given to the vigil of Hallowmas, which we now know as All Saints Day.

Wednesday, November 1, 2017

✠ We Remember: SOLEMNITY: ALL SAINTS Today we commemorate all the saints in heaven, but particularly those without any specified feast day of their own. Pope John Paul II, on this day in 1991, said, "The saints are in fact those who put into practice the Sermon on the Mount and who become poor, humble, merciful, loving, patient, pure of heart and peacemakers" for the love of God. "This is the way we also should act if we want to follow their destiny of eternal bliss." The Irish are credited with celebrating this feast on Nov. 1; they often commemorated important feasts on the first day of each month. From Ireland, this date spread to England and the continent, and appears listed on this date by the beginning of the 9th century. At Rome, the feast was celebrated with a vigil and fasting in the 10th century, but Rome borrowed from the East the date of May 13. In Syria, there was a feast in honor of all the Christian martyrs, and St. Ephrem composed a hymn for the feast. On May 13 in 609, Pope Boniface IV dedicated the Pantheon in Rome as a church in honor of "Mary ever Virgin and all the martyrs." The feast was celebrated in the Easter season to emphasize the paschal victory of the martyrs. It has been celebrated on Nov. 1

since about 731, when Pope Gregory III consecrated a chapel in St. Peter's Basilica in honor of all the saints and set the date of the feast. (E,S)

Thursday, November 2, 2017

✠ We Remember: Observed the day after All Saints, ALL SOULS DAY commemorates the faithful departed. It is a time when we are reminded of the people in our lives who have died. It is also a time when we are reminded of our own impending death and our subsequent union with God. We pray today of our own beloved dead - ancestors, parents, relations, benefactors, friends - and of all the faithful departed." The feast dates back to the ninth century, although as early as the seventh century it was the custom in monasteries to set aside a day for prayers for the deceased. St. Augustine had praised the custom of praying for the dead outside their actual anniversary, since he felt that they needed suffrages to be admitted to heaven. The Feast spread to Rome in the 14th century, and in the 15th century the Dominicans had the custom of celebrating three Masses on that day in order to fulfill all the requests for Masses. In 1915, Pope Benedict XV extended this privilege to the universal church, prompted by the large number of those who had died in World War I. (W,V)

Friday, November 3, 2017

✠ We Remember: ST. MARTIN DE PORRES (1579-1639) was born in Lima, Peru, of a Spanish father and a freed black woman; he was given a Christian education by his mother and became a pharmacist and nurse. In 1603, he entered the Dominican Order as a lay brother, much against his father's wishes. St. Martin was well known for his apostolate for the sick and poor. Canonized in 1962, "Martin the Charitable" has been acclaimed as the patron of social justice because he constantly worked for equal rights for all classes of people.

Saturday, November 4, 2017

✠ We Remember: ST. CHARLES BORROMEO (1538-1584) was born of a noble Italian family (his mother was Margaret de Medici, the sister of the future Pope Pius IV). Charles graduated from the University of Pavia with doctorates in canon and civil law. Ordained a priest at 24 and called to serve at the Vatican, his uncle Pope Pius IV named him cardinal and archbishop of Milan. However, his condemnation of the excesses and abuses in the offices of the Roman Curia aroused the animosity of many persons, and in 1565, after the death of the pope, Charles Borromeo returned to Milan, where he served as archbishop of 18 years, and died Nov. 3, 1584. St. Charles worked vigorously for the reformation of his diocese, establishing the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time — October 29, 2017

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." — Matthew 22:37

BALANCE

Today's scriptures emphasize the fundamental link between love of God and love of our neighbors, especially those who are most in need. Love of God should compel us to love the people whom God cherishes. Conversely, work for justice and charity for those in need should be rooted in our love of God.

That connection and balance, however, isn't always easy to maintain in our lives. Even in religious orders we find that some Christians are more oriented toward contemplation and prayer, while others are more active in reaching out to those who are oppressed. Today Jesus reminds us of the necessity for both in the life of faith.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — You shall not oppress an alien, for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt (Exodus 22:20-26). Psalms — I love you, Lord, my strength (Psalm 18). Second Reading — You became imitators of the Lord, so that you became a model for all believers (1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10). Gospel — You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:34-40).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This week we have in All Souls' Day a commemoration that is linked to the Halloween customs. The big-spending sugar shock holiday is a long way removed from Thursday's grateful remembrance of the souls who are hidden from our sight, but alive to Christ. Old pagan superstitions might find us holding our breath when going by the graveyard, whereas others might actually go to the cemetery to tend the family graves, to share good food, and remember dear ones. Nowhere does a culture embrace this day as fully as in Mexico. The "Day of the Dead" is a national holiday that unfolds over three full days.

For three thousand years, the indigenous people of Mexico have been mocking death in an annual festival, and the invading Spaniards were shocked at the spectacle. To the Aztecs, life was a dream, and death was the entry into full life. Skulls were thus a symbol of joy and release from life's sorrows. The missionaries found all this a bit creepy, but they moved the three-day feast from August to synchronize it with the Christian calendar. So today, graves are decorated, altars are built in the home to honor the family dead, children feast on candy skulls, and people dress up in elaborate skeleton outfits. The devout spend hours in the cemetery, and there is a lively sense of the communion of saints, the living and the dead.

INCLUSIVE LOVE

Love of our neighbor is included in the love of God. —St. Thomas Aquinas
