Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time – November 3, 2019

The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.
— Psalm 145:14

A GREAT AND GLORIOUS GOD

Our readings today ponder two powerful truths: God is infinitely greater than we are; and God provides every kind of help so we can discover and share in God's glory. The reading from Wisdom reminds us that we are tiny compared to "the LORD of the whole universe." Nevertheless, God preserves and nurtures us out of perfect love. If we feel tiny, weak, and sinful compared to God, we are blessed! God's greatness sustains and strengthens us. Saint Paul encourages the Thessalonian Christians with the same message. He reminds them that God alone makes the Church holy. He prays that everything they undertake will be for the glory of God. Luke's Gospel shows us what this looks like in real life: Zacchaeus, feeling small and excluded, looks for Jesus. Jesus finds him and gives him the strength he needs to repent of his sins and glorify God. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Every week, some treasures from our tradition are shared here. Where does all this history come from? The history of God's people of prayer is always coming to light, mostly because scholars have dedicated their lives to research. They translate and ponder prayers and songs; explore the places used for worship; look at the vessels, books, and vestments; and read works from legal documents to letters and diaries. In the 1930s, Hitler's rush to arm Germany closed seminaries as priests and seminarians alike were drafted into service. One professor, Father Josef Jungman, forced from his classroom, spent the war years in an Austrian library. His careful work disclosed much of what we know of the history of the Mass. His great work, The Mass of the Roman Rite, describes the evolution of Eucharistic celebration and inspired generations of scholars to explore a tradition surprisingly rich and varied. It was said of him that he had a command of the past that cast new light on the present, and opened up a clear direction to the future. His contributions to the Second Vatican Council helped shape the way that we worship today. At the end of his life, in 1975, his studies completed, he told a friend that he was waiting patiently for the Lord's knock at the door to take him to the heavenly banquet.

This Week in the Life of the Church – Feast Days and Notable Events in Church History

Sunday, November 3, 2019

✠ We Remember: ST. MARTIN DE PORRES (1579-1639) was born in Lima, Peru, of a Spanish father and a freed black woman; he was given a Christian education by his mother and became a pharmacist and nurse. In 1603, he entered the Dominican Order as a lay brother, much against his father's wishes. St. Martin was well known for his apostolate for the sick and poor. Canonized in 1962, "Martin the Charitable" has been acclaimed as the patron of social justice because he constantly worked for equal rights for all classes of people.

✠ We Remember: ST. CHARLES BORROMEO (1538-1584) was born of a noble Italian family (his mother was Margaret de Medici, the sister of the future Pope Pius IV). Charles graduated from the University of Pavia with doctorates in canon and civil law. Ordained a priest at 24 and called to serve at the Vatican, his uncle Pope Pius IV named him cardinal and archbishop of Milan. However, his condemnation of the excesses and abuses in the offices of the Roman Curia aroused the animosity of many persons, and in 1565, after the death of the pope, Charles Borromeo returned to Milan, where he served as archbishop of 18 years, and died Nov. 3, 1584. St. Charles worked vigorously for the reformation of his diocese, establishing the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

✠ We Remember: Many saints have borne the name Elizabeth, which means worshiper of God in Hebrew. The first chapter of St. Luke's Gospel tells the story of Saints ELIZABETH and ZECHARIAH - the parents of St. John the Baptist. Zechariah was a priest in the Temple in Jerusalem whose wife, Elizabeth - a cousin of the Blessed Virgin Mary - was beyond childbearing age. In a vision, while he was burning incense at the altar of the Lord, the angel Gabriel told Zechariah that he and Elizabeth would have a son and should name him John. When Zechariah thought this doubtful and asked for a sign, the angel announced that he would be struck dumb and only regain his speech when the prophecy was fulfilled. Luke 1 recounts how, aged and barren, Elizabeth miraculously conceived. When Mary visited her during the sixth month of her pregnancy, Elizabeth declared, "Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb" (Luke 1:42) - more commonly known as the second verse of the Hail Mary (the first verse comes from Luke 1:28). Mary then proclaimed the hymn of praise now known as the Magnificat. After John's birth and naming, Zechariah's speech was restored and he pronounced the prophetic oracle now known as the Benedictus. (E,B,L) ✠ ST. BERTILLA (died c. 705) was a Benedictine nun at Jouarre, France; she held the offices of infirmarian, headmistress of the convent school and prioress. She was made the first abbess of the nunnery at Chelles and governed it for half a century. Great numbers flocked to her convent, including many Anglo-Saxon girls. (B)

■ The Council of Constance opened today in 1414 (it concluded in 1418). The 16th ecumenical council of the Church and second of three reform councils (with Pisa and Basel), it was called to deal with the crisis of papal authority provoked by the Great Schism (1378-1417). It elected Pope Martin V on Nov. 11, 1417 and condemned 267 teachings of the Englishman John Wycliffe (c. 1329-84). Wycliffe's Bohemian follower John Hus (1369-1415) consented to attend, but despite the emperor's guarantee of safe conduct, Hus was imprisoned, condemned for heresy, and burned at the stake July 6, 1415. ✠ We Remember: ST. LEONARD (died c. 559), one of the most popular saints of Western Europe during the late Middle Ages, was a Frankish nobleman, the godson of King Clovis I (the first Catholic King of France). Even more noted for his sanctity than his nobility, Leonard declined a bishopric offered to him by Clovis in order to live as a monk, and eventually, as a hermit in a forest near Limoges. Clovis was hunting in this forest one day when his queen, who had accompanied him, went into a difficult labor. Leonard prayed for her, and the child was delivered safely. To show his appreciation, the king gave Leonard as much land as he could ride around on his donkey in the course of one night. On this land, Leonard formed a community; it thrived and became the Abbey of Noblac, which is now called the town of Saint-Leonard. As Leonard evangelized the surrounding area he became known for his miracles. He died at Noblac and is the patron saint of women in labor, as well as prisoners (because of the legend that Clovis promised to release every captive Leonard visited). Today, St. Leonard is still invoked in Germany, Belgium, Spain, Italy and Poland; and in France, a host of churches have been dedicated to him. (G,P,R,B) ✠ Today is also the feast of ST. DEMETRIAN (c. 835-912) one of the greatest bishops and most venerated saints of Cyprus. He is especially honored for his purity and power of healing. (D,B)

✠ We Remember: ST. WILLIBRORD (c. 658-739), "Apostle of the Frisians," was born in England, trained in Ireland to be a missionary, and then went to what is now Holland, Belgium and Denmark, accompanied by eleven other English monks, to spread the Gospel. Six years later, in about 690, he was ordained bishop by Pope Sergius and established his see at Utrecht. His labors bore much fruit, and with the help of Pepin of Herstal, Willibrord founded the monastery of Echternach in Luxemburg in 698 as the center of his missionary activity. There he died, and his relics still remain at Echternach and are held in great veneration. (B,D,P,R)

✠ We Remember: ST. GODFREY (1065-1115), at five years old, was placed with the Abbot of Mont-Saint-Quentin in France, and eventually became a monk and was ordained a priest. Appointed abbot of rundown Nogent Abbey in Champagne, Godfrey restored discipline and rebuilt Nogent into a flourishing community. In 1104, he was named bishop of Amiens, but he insisted on continuing to live very simply. As bishop, his strict discipline, insistence on clerical celibacy, and struggle against simony aroused much bitter opposition and even caused an attempt on his life. Godfrey became disheartened by this and wished to join the Carthusians, but his people would not allow it. He died on his way to Soissons to visit his see. In art he is portrayed serving the sick and embracing a poor man. (E,G,B,P)

✠ ST. ELIZABETH OF THE TRINITY (1880-1906) was a Carmelite nun from Dijon, France, influenced by St. John of the Cross and Therese of Lisieux; her spirituality, which leads through deepening silence to the indwelling Trinity, is strongly Christo-centric. Her writings emphasize heaven and eternity permeating every temporal moment. ✠ The Orthodox Church observes the Feast of Archangels Michael and Gabriel and all the other angels mentioned in the Bible. Catholics observe the Feast of the Archangels Michael, Gabriel and Raphael on Sept. 29 and of the Guardian Angels on Oct. 2.

✠ We Remember: Dedication Of Lateran Basilica: The Lateran basilica was erected around the year 324 by the emperor Constantine and is the cathedral of Rome. In the 12th century this feast was assigned to Nov. 9, for reasons unknown, though tradition holds that it was on this day in 324 that Pope Sylvester consecrated this church to Our Lord. The basilica has as its patrons St. John the Evangelist and St. John the Baptist, although since the 7th century it has also been known as the basilica of the Most Holy Savior. The Lateran basilica was the official seat of the bishop of Rome from the fourth to the 14th centuries; it is called "the mother of all churches." Rebuilt, reconsecrated and enlarged over the years, the basilica is regarded as the church of highest dignity in Rome and throughout the Roman Rite. The relevance of this feast is evident: as vital members of our local church, we should relate to the mother-church in Rome, going beyond our geographical confines to a sense of universal Church.
