Thirty=second Sunday in Ordinary Time — November 12, 2023 Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour. — Matthew 25:13

We consider wisdom today. The first reading from the book of Wisdom presents this precious gift as a feminine spirit, a very desirable virtue sought by many and graciously present to all who seek her. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable to illustrate wisdom in a practical, measurable way. The wise will conserve their resources, use them prudent ly, and mark the passing of time. The foolish, on the other hand, not planning ahead, will be in the dark. Both of these readings tell us how accessible wisdom is to all who simply and honestly seek it. Paul's words to the Thessalonians are not about wisdom, but describe one result of true wisdom: To the wise person of faith even death holds no terror.

Our faith in Jesus' resurrection tells us we will all one day rise to new life in Christ.

In Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Wisdom is easily discerned by those who love her (Wisdom 6:12-16).

Psalm — My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God (Psalm 63).

Second Reading — Since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 [13-14]).

Gospel — Stay awake! You know neither the day nor the hour (Matthew 25:1-13) 25:1-13).

Congratulations to fr. Michael Bradley on his 50th Marathon!

Fr. Michael Bradley was recently featured in a Runners World about running in the Chicago Marathon October 8th, his 50th marathon. "He retired in early 2022, but he keeps busy-saying Mass at St. Gertrude and at the city's two major airports, O'Hare and Midway. And he remains committed to Heart to Heart, a St. Gertrude organization that helps senior citizens of all faiths in Edgewater with rides to doctors appointments or the grocery store. They also have a closet of medical equipment wheelchairs, walkers, crutches-to lend out to people who need it. Fr. Mike has raised more than $15,000 this year for Heart to Heart," according to the interview.

The article relates that during his run, "In his prayers will be his friend Bishop Kevin Birmingham, an archdiocesan bishop, who died suddenly at age 51, the week before Chicago. 'People are heartbroken,' he said. 'I'm dedicating this run to him. With every step, I'll be thinking of Kevin.' Bishop Birmingham served as Episcopal Liaison to the National Conference of Catholic Airport Chaplains.

He prays from the beginning of the race, not just when the miles get tough. "When I think of all the concerns and the issues that people are dealing with, it motivates me," he said. "It's a wonderful thing to be able to pray."

+ We Remember: ST. JOSAPHAT (1580-1623), martyr and patron for the reunion of the Greek and Latin Churches, was born in Poland in 1580 as an Orthodox, becoming a Catholic and then a monk and priest of the Order of St. Basil. He became archimandrite (the equivalent of an abbot in the Latin Church) and later Archbishop of Poloz. A zealous bishop and worker for Christian unity, in 1623 Josaphat was assassinated by enemies while making a pastoral visitation. He was canonized a saint in 1857.

- + We Remember: ST. Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850-1917) Mother Cabrini was the first citizen of the United States to be canonized (on June 7, 1946). Born in Lombardy, Italy, Frances fervently desired to be a missionary ever since she was a young girl. Early in 1889, Pope Leo XIII asked her to go to the United States, where there were many Italian immigrants. Within a few months after the arrival of the first group of Sisters, Mother Cabrini had already opened an orphanage and a school. She became a naturalized citizen in 1909, and during the remainder of her life, she founded a total of 67 charitable institutions and houses of her Congregation. She died Dec. 22, 1917, at one of her foundations, Columbus Hospital, 2520 N. Lakeview Ave., in the Lincoln Park neighborhood of Chicago.
- + ST. STANISLAUS KOSTKA (1550-1568), Patron of Poland. Son of a Polish senator, St. Stanislaus was sent to Vienna in 1563 to study with the Jesuits, and resolved to join the Order, despite fierce opposition from his family. St. Peter Canisius encouraged him to go to Rome, where he was received into the Jesuit novitiate by St. Francis Borgia in October, 1567. He died within a year, but during that short period he had gained a reputation for angelic innocence. He was canonized in 1726. "I was not born for the good things of this earth; what my heart alone desires are the good things of eternity," said St. Stanislaus Kostka. (B.D)
- In 1986, the American bishops approved the pastoral letter "Economic Justice for All: Catholic Social Teaching and the U.S. Economy." (C)

- + We Remember: ST. LAWRENCE O'TOOLE (1128-1180), a great Irish saint, was born in Leinster, became an Augustinian canon at Glendalough at the age of 12 and its abbot at 25. Eight years later, he was made archbishop of Dublin. In 1179, St. Lawrence attended the Lateran Council at Rome and was made papal legate in Ireland. He carried out many reforms in his diocese and was much engaged in negotiating on behalf of the Irish king with King Henry II of England. It was while on an embassy to the latter that he died at the Augustinian abbey of Eu in Normandy. He was canonized in 1226. When about to die, St. Lawrence was urged to make a will. His answer was a smile and the words: "God knows I have not a penny in the world." (D,S)
- + In 1996, Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, Archbishop of Chicago, died. A truly visionary shepherd, Cardinal Bernardin built bridges within the Church and bridges to people of other denominations and faiths and cultures. His prophetic stance toward the evils of nuclear proliferation, racism, abortion, and capital punishment, as well as matters of economic and social justice, challenged Catholics and indeed people of good will everywhere to turn away from sin and be faithful to Gospel values.

+ We Remember: ST. ALBERT THE GREAT (c. 1200-1280) Teacher of Thomas Aquinas, chief pioneer in the application of the Aristotelian system to theology, a prolific writer on Sacred Scripture, theology, philosophy and the natural sciences, Albert was born in Bavaria and studied at the University of Padua, were he joined the Dominicans. Appointed lector of theology, he taught at Cologne and Paris, where he was the first to recognize the genius of Aquinas and to foretell the work of his pupil. Albert became Provincial of his Order in Germany was named bishop of Regensburg (1260). He resigned two years later and retired to Cologne, where he spent the rest of his life teaching and writing. He wrote more on the Blessed Virgin Mary than anyone else in his day. He attended the Council of Lyons in 1274 and travelled to Paris in 1278 to defend the teaching of Aquinas, who had died in 1274. Albert died on this date in 1280 at Cologne, was beatified in 1622, and "equivalently canonized" by being declared a Doctor of the Church in 1931. (B,S,W)

+ We Remember: IGNACIO ILLACURIA AND COMPANIONS, JESUIT MARTYRS OF SAN SALVADOR: ON THIS DAY IN 1989, an elite "antiterrorist" force notorious for its record of human rights abuses murdered Fr. IGNACIO ILLACURIA, rector of the University of Central America in El Salvador, five Jesuit professors, their housekeeper Elba Ramos and her 16-year-old daughter, Celina. "Those seeking a meaning for their deaths could look to the Latin American church's option for the poor or to the Jesuits' commitment to social justice. Indeed, they could look to the Sermon on the Mount," says Robert Ellsberg in his book, ALL SAINTS. "But the immediate context was the fratricidal war in El Salvador, which in November 1989 had reached a critical stage."

+ ST. MARGARET OF SCOTLAND (1046-1093), as queen, convoked a council in which she eliminated some of the ecclesiastical irregularities and reinstated certain Roman customs, such as beginning Lent on Ash Wednesday, the making of the Easter duty, and the observance of Sunday as a day of rest. She constructed churches, monasteries and hospices. Immediately after her death at Edinburgh Nov. 16, 1093, she was venerated as a saint, canonized in 1250, and named her patron of Scotland in 1673. Of her eight children, two are honored as saints: David and Edith (who became Queen of England with the name Matilda).

+ ST. GERTRUDE THE GREAT (1256-1302): The great Benedictine abbey of Helfta was founded in 1234 at Rodarsdorf in Saxony, and in the course of the 13th century it produced three of the greatest female spiritual writers in the history of the Church: Mechtild von Magdeburg, who died there; Mechtild von Hackeborn, who spent her entire life there; and GERTRUD VON HELFTA - "THE GREAT" - who did the same. At the age of five, Gertrude entered the Benedictine monastery, where she was educated under the care of the abbess, Gertrude of Hackeborn, sister of St. Mechtild. Her feast was extended to the whole Church in 1677. (S,B)

+ We Remember: ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY (1207-1231): Born in Hungary, the daughter of King Andrew II, Elizabeth married Louis IV of Thuringia at 14. Her husband, who had gone on Crusade, died of an epidemic 18 days before the birth of their third child, Gertrude. Left a widow when she was scarcely 20 years old, Elizabeth left the castle at Wartburg and dedicated the rest of her life to extraordinary works of charity. After refusing to marry a second time, she founded a hospital in honor of St. Francis of Assisi at Marburg and donned the gray habit of Franciscan tertiaries and devoted herself to the relief of the destitute, living a life of voluntary poverty until her death at 24, greatly esteemed by the people. She was canonized three years later (1235) by Pope Gregory IX, who in 1228 had canonized St. Francis of Assisi."

+ We Remember: DEDICATION OF THE CHURCHES OF ST. PETER AND ST. PAUL commemorates the dedication of the basilica of St. Peter in the Vatican in 350 and the dedication of the basilica of St. Paul in 390. The date for the celebration was already established in the 11th century.

ST. ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE: Born at Grenoble, France, she joined the Visitation nuns, but because of the outbreak of the French Revolution, the community had to disperse. Until peace was restored in France, Philippine dedicated herself to works of charity, always hoping that eventually the community would reassemble. When all efforts failed, Philippine joined the Religious of the Sacred Heart, founded by MADELEINE SOPHIE BARAT in 1800. In 1818, at 49, Philippine Duchesne landed at New Orleans with four other religious. The bishop sent the group to St. Charles, Missouri., to establish a school. A few years later, they established an orphanage in St. Louis. There, Mother Philippine came into contact with the first Jesuits assigned to Missouri, and one of them later said that she saved the Jesuit mission from failure by sharing with them the few resources her own community had. At 72, Mother Philippine was able to realize her own dream of being a missionary to the native American Indians. She went with three other sisters to open a school for Indian girls at Sugar Creek, Kansas. Unable to master the Indian language, Mother Philippine nevertheless exerted a tremendous influence by her practice of prayer. In fact, the Indians called her "The woman who prays always," and they loved and respected her. After one year, she was called back to St. Charles, where she spent the last 10 years of her life; she died peacefully and her relics are enshrined there.

The Cosmic Dance

When we are alone on a starlit night, when by chance we see the migrating birds in autumn descending on a grove of junipers to rest and eat; when we see children in a moment when they are really children, when we know love in our own hearts; or when, like the Japanese poet, Basho, we hear an old frog land in a quiet pond with a solitary splash - at such times the awakening, the turning inside out of all values, the "newness," the emptiness and the purity of vision that make themselves evident, all these provide a glimpse of the cosmic dance. - New Seeds of Contemplation—Thomas Merton
