OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE NOVEMBER 25, 2018

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. — Revelation 1:5

CHRIST IS KING

On the final Sunday of the liturgical year we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. It's easy to understand today's scriptures as events that happened long ago and far away, or predictions that will come true somewhere, some day. But they invite us to claim Christ as our King here and now. Jesus' words to Pilate in the Gospel remind us that his kingdom transcends time and place. And the prophecies from Daniel and Revelation give us reason to be faithful to Christ our King right here and right now.

By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only King over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation. No matter what nation we belong to or what language we speak, he "has made us into a kingdom" (Revelation 1:6)—one people united in love and peace for all eternity. Copyright © J.S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although our Puritan forebears at Plymouth Rock were almost a hundred years removed from their Catholic roots, the old liturgical calendar still had an unconscious claim on their hearts. We've already seen how on Saint Martin's Day, November 11, medieval continental Europe observed a great harvest day of Thanksgiving, with games, dances, parades, and a festive dinner of roast goose. With the goose went ample draughts of "Saint Martin's Wine," the first wine of the new harvest. Martinmas celebrated full barns and larders stocked for the winter. Even after the Reformation, the tradition of eating goose on Saint Martin's Day was retained in Holland, and it was there that our Pilgrims encountered this tradition. When Governor Bradford sent four hunters out into the Massachusetts wilderness in the autumn of 1621, they did indeed find some geese and ducks, and were persuaded by the indigenous people to try turkey, too.

Just as the liturgical calendar has been tweaked over the years, President Roosevelt moved Thanksgiving to the third Thursday in November in 1939, probably to extend the Christmas shopping season. The protest was so great that in 1941 the day established by President Lincoln, the last Thursday in November, was restored. If the Pilgrims had known of the Martinmas connection, they might never have celebrated at all!

this week in the life of the church - feast days and notable events in church history

Sunday, November 25, 2018

✠ We Remember: ST. CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA (d. 310) has been venerated in the East since the 10th century, though nothing of certainty is known of her; she is remembered as a maiden martyred at Alexandria under Maxentius, and her alleged relics have been enshrined for the last thousand years in the Orthodox monastery of Mt. Sinai. Catherine was said to have been born of a patrician family and converted to Christianity by a vision. She denounced Emperor Maxentius in person for his persecution of the Christians, and when 50 pagan philosophers were converted by her arguments, he had them burned to death. When she refused a bribe of a royal marriage if she would apostatize, he had her imprisoned. On his return home from a camp inspection, he found that his wife, an officer, and two hundred soldiers of her guard had been converted, and had them all put to death. He then condemned Catherine to death on a spiked wheel, and when the wheel miraculously broke, he had her beheaded. Catherine is one of the Fourteen Holy Helpers, and is said to have appeared with Our Lady to St. Dominic; she was also one of the "heavenly voices" heard by Joan of Arc in the 1400's. She is claimed by the Dominicans as their protector, and is the patroness of philosophers, maidens, women students, millers, wheelwrights, and preachers. (B,P,D) ✠ In 1277, the accession of Pope Nicholas III to the Chair of Peter. He was a peacemaker striving to settle political problems. He established a permanent papal residence at the Vatican. (W) • In 1881, the birth of ANGELO GIUSEPPE RONCALLI, better known as Pope John XXIII. One of the greatest and most beloved popes in the entire history of the Catholic Church, he is best known for calling the Second Vatican Council (1962-65) and for initiating a period of major renewal and reform of the Church. A strong proponent of ecumenism, peace, and social justice, Pope John died June 3, 1963, less than a year after X-rays revealed stomach cancer. He realized that if the Council lasted more than one session, he would not be able to see it through. He said to a friend, "At least I have launched this big ship - others will have to bring it into port." (E)

Monday, November 26, 2018

✠ We Remember: ST. LEONARD OF PORT MAURICE (1676-1751) was an Italian Franciscan, a spiritual writer, and is patron of parish missions. Born on the Italian Riviera, he became a missionary soon after his ordination, spreading everywhere devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, to the Sacred Heart, to the Immaculate Conception, and to the Stations of the Cross. He is said to have established the Way of the Cross in 572 places, including the Colosseum in Rome. (D,B,P) • In 1842, The University of Notre Dame was founded by Holy Cross Fr. Edward F. Sorin, CSC, near South Bend, Indiana. (W) ✠ In 1883, the death of SOJOURNER TRUTH, a former slave who had been sold four different times, an evangelist who argued for abolition and women's rights.

Tuesday, November 27, 2018

✠ We Remember: Today we remember ST. SEACHNALL (375-447), an Irish bishop who was a disciple of St. Patrick. He joined the Irish missionaries following his ordination in Gaul; his great claim to remembrance is as a hymn writer; he wrote the earliest Latin poem of the Irish church - an alphabetical hymn in honor of St. Patrick. St. Seachnall was an assistant bishop of Armagh. (D,B) ✠ Today we also remember ST. JAMES INTERCISUS (died 421), a Persian officer of high rank who apostatized to keep the favor of King Yazdegerd, but repented, and under King Varanes V, was martyred by being cut into 28 parts. Hence his surname of Intercisus (cut into pieces). Many other Christians suffered with him. (B) • On this day in 1983, the latest, updated Code of Canon Law went into effect. The code governs everything from holy day observances to the church's laws on marriage. (C)

Wednesday, November 28, 2018

✠ We Remember: ST. JOSEPH PIGNATELLI (1737-1811) was known as the second founder of the Jesuits for reviving the Order following its suppression. AHe was buried in the church of San Pantaleo, in the little street where he died, not far from the Colosseum, and his death mask is preserved in the room of St. Ignatius at the Jesuit generalate in Rome. He was canonized in 1954, says Butler's. ✠ ST. CATHERINE LABOURE (1806-1876) once said, "I knew nothing; I was nothing. For this reason God picked me out." Daughter of a farmer, St. Catherine never went to school, taking care of her family at the age of eight upon the death of her mother. She joined the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul in 1830, and almost at once began to experience a series of visions of Our Lady in the chapel of the convent. In several of the visions, Our Lady asked her to strike a medal showing Our Lady and honoring the Immaculate Conception - this became the famous "Miraculous Medal." She spent her life performing menial tasks at a hospice, revealing none of her visions to anyone except her confessor until a few months before her death on December 31. She was canonized in 1947. • In 1568, the DISCALCED CARMELITES, who observe a strict monastic life, were founded by St. John of the Cross in Spain. It was based on the inspiration of St. Teresa of Avila. (W) • In 1843, the DIOCESE OF CHICAGO was established by Pope Gregory XVI. The first bishop was William Quarter. (W) → In 1979, Pope John Paul II flew via Alitalia to Ankara, Turkey, for an ecumenical visit with the Orthodox Patriarch. They each attended Mass in the other's cathedral.

✠ We Remember: ST. SATURNINUS (died c. 257), also known as Sernin, was a missionary from Rome who evangelized the district around Pampeluna in Spanish Navarre, and then the territory and city of Toulouse; he is venerated as the first bishop of Toulouse and said to have been martyred in the persecution of Valerian by being fastened behind a wild bull which dragged him about until he was dashed to pieces. (B) • In 1530, the death of THOMAS CARDINAL WOLSEY at Leicester Abbey in England. Privy Councillor to Henry VIII, he attained great power, being named bishop of Lincoln, then archbishop of York, lord chancellor and papal legate. His influence was great, and his immense revenues allowed him to live in a state of pride and splendor. Despite desperate measures to please Henry, including the surrender of his huge Hampton Court Palace, he was arrested and charged with high treason for his failure to procure a papal dispensation for the divorce of Henry from Catherine of Aragon in 1530. He died en route to London for trial. During his last illness he is reported to have said: "If I had served God as diligently as I have done the king, he would not have given me over in my gray hairs. But this is the just reward that I must receive for my diligent pains and studies that I have had to do him service, not regarding my service to God, but only to satisfy his pleasure." (W) • In 1633, the DAUGHTERS OF CHARITY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL were founded in Paris by St. Vincent and St. Louise de Marillac. (W) ✠ In 1980, of the death of DOROTHY DAY in New York City (1980). Dorothy Day, Obl. O.S.B. (November 8, 1897 - November 29, 1980) was an American journalist, social activist, and devout Catholic convert. She advocated the Catholic economic theory of distributism. In the 1930s, Day worked closely with fellow activist Peter Maurin to establish the Catholic Worker Movement, a pacifist movement that continues to combine direct aid for the poor and homeless with nonviolent direct action on their behalf. She served as editor of the Catholic Worker newspaper from 1933 until her death in 1980. The Catholic Church has opened the cause for Day's canonization and therefore refers to her with the title Servant of God. Dorothy founded some forty houses of hospitality and communal farms. She was awarded the prestigious Laetare Medal from the University of Notre Dame in 1972. She managed to say some hours of the Divine Office every day of her life as a Catholic. She died of heart failure at Maryhouse for Women, a home she established.

Friday November 30, 2018

✠ We Remember: ST. ANDREW, APOSTLE (c. 60) "Come and see," Jesus said to the two disciples of John the Baptist who were following Him. They were curious about where Jesus stayed, especially after they heard John the Baptist refer to Him as the "Lamb of God." One of the disciples was Andrew. The first thing Andrew did was to search out his brother Simon Peter and tell him, "We have found the Messiah" (John 1:35-41). The Greeks called Andrew "Protoclete," or "first called." Tradition says that he preached the gospel in Greece and in the year 60 was crucified in Patras on an X-shaped cross (now known as St. Andrew's cross). His relics were transferred to Constantinople in 357 and later to Amalfi, Italy, in 1208, but his skull was sent to Rome in 1462. In 1964, as an ecumenical gesture, his relics were returned to Patras in Greece. There is great devotion to him in the Byzantine Church. He is patron of Russia and Scotland. The Feast of St. Andrew has been celebrated on Nov. 30 since the beginning of the 5th century; around 470, a church was dedicated to him in Rome, near St. Mary Major's. (D,S)

Saturday December 1, 2018

✠ We Remember: ST. ELIGIUS (c. 590-660) If today's saint rings a bell, you may have been a fan of the 1980's TV show St. Elsewhere, about a Boston hospital named St. Eligius. Oddly, Eligius had nothing to do with medicine; he was skillful metalsmith. A native of Limoges, he was appointed master of the mint at Paris under King Clotaire II. In 640, he abandoned this office to become a priest, and was later ordained bishop of Noyen. He evangelized the districts around Antwerp, Ghent, and Courtrai, and founded Solignac Abbey, among many other monasteries and convents. He was among the most popular and loved saints during the Middle Ages. Some examples of his great skill survived until the French Revolution. (D,B) ✠ ST. EDWARD CAMPION (1540-1581), the most famous of the Jesuit martyrs of England and Wales, died this day, age 41. He is among some 357 English and Welsh Catholics put to death by the English state between 1535 and 1680 for refusing to take the Oath of Supremacy that acknowledged the king (or queen) as head of the Church of England, or simply for being priests or sheltering priests. Pope Paul VI canonized a representative group of 40 martyrs in 1970, and their feast is observed October 25. St. Edward died at Tyburn along with Alexander Briant and Ralph Sherwin. In his name, the annual Campion Award is given by the Catholic Book Club to recognize eminence in the field of Catholic letters. (E,S)
